

Kentucky, Breckinridge County Court:
Regular Term, November 26th, 1917.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Wm. H. Brunfield, deceased, was this day produced to Court and duly proven by the oath of E. F. Kroush, one of the attesting witnesses thereto, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and testament of the said Wm. H. Brunfield, deceased, and as such ordered to record, whereupon the same and this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest: C. V. Robertson, Clerk.

Cloverport Kentucky
August 13, 1910

On this Day I will my house and lot here

On this Day I will my house and lot here in Cloverport Ky

To my wife Emma her life time at her Dath then falls to my children or my asse and if She fails to Draw A portion she is to have 50 Dollars A yar out of the other estate for annu 7 years the rest of my Estate to be Equalia Divided between my children

I will Anaint T. D. Wethington my son and Henry Mattingly Adminstrators of the Estate
W. R. Wethington

Witness above Paul Lewis.

Cloverport Ky May 4, 1914

I will change the other side of this will A little as long as my wife remains my widow that stands

W. R. Wethington

Kentucky Breckinridge County Court:
Regular Term, November 26th, 1917.

The foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of W. R. Wethington, deceased, was this day produced to Court and offered for probate, and being duly proven by the oaths of P. D. Wethington and Henry Mattingly to be wholly written by the said W. R. Wethington, deceased, and to be wholly in his own handwriting, whereupon the same was established as and for the last will and testament of the said W. R. Wethington, deceased, and as such ordered to record.

Then was produced to Court a writing purporting to be a Codiell to the aforesaid will and being duly proven by the oaths of P. D. Wethington and Henry Mattingly to be wholly written and signed by the said W. R. Wethington, deceased, and to be wholly in his own handwriting, whereupon the same was established as a Codiell to the foregoing will and as such ordered to record, whereupon the aforesaid will and codiell, together with this certificate have been duly recorded in my office.

Attest: C. V. Robertson, Clerk.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, Emma Wethington, <sup>said</sup> widow of W. R. Wethington, deceased, do hereby renounce the provisions of the Will of my husband, W. R. Wethington, who died a resident of and domiciled in Cloverport, Kentucky, on the----- day of September 1917, and which Will was on the 26th day of November, 1917, admitted to probate by the Breckinridge County Court, and established as the last will and testament of the said W. R. Wethington; and I hereby relinquish the provisions of said Will for my benefit and elect to take my dower and distribute share of my said husbands estate as if no will had been made by him; to-wit: One half, absolutely of his personal property, and a homestead in his real estate, not to exceed one thousand dollars in value as to the homestead, which real estate consists of a house and lot in Cloverport, Kentucky in which I now reside.

This 1st day of December, 1917.

Mrs Emma Wethington

State of Kentucky,
County of Breckinridge Set.

I, Marion Weatherholt a Notary Public in and for the aforesaid county and state, certify that on this day the foregoing Instrument of Writing was produced before me by Mrs. Emma Wethington, widow of the late W.R.Wethington, and signed and acknowledged before me to be her free act and deed.

Witness my hand this the 7th day of December, 1917.

(SEAL) Marion Weatherholt,
Notary Public E.C.

My Commission Expires January 13, 1928.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COUNTY OF BRECKINRIDGE.....Set.

I, C.V.Robertson Clerk Of the County Court, for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing Instrument of Writing was this day lodged in my office for record, whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.

Given under my hand, this 8th, day of December, 1917.

C.V.Robertson, Clerk.

Irvington, Ky, Dec., 31, 1917.

I, John D. Jordan being of sound mind but realizing the uncertainty of life do make this my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all other wills I may have made.

I desire first that my son Justice shall have all my landed estate comprising 84 acres more or less together withall the appurtenances thereunto belonging, whatever personal property I may have at the time of my death I desire that my executor shall sell a sufficiency thereof to pay almy just debts and my burial expenses and to pay my daughter May an amount equal to a promissory note for $50 with interest from date which she holds against me. If there be not enough personal property to meet the above named claims, then I desire that my executor shall sell a sufficient amt. of the land to meet all claims above indicated. I further desire that My daughter Allian shall have from the sale of my personal property or land if necessary the sum of $50 of with which ~~may~~ she ~~May~~ the better educate herself.

And I further desire that John M. Compton shall be my executor without bond.

Signed by me and in the presence of these witnesses, this Dec. 31, 1917.

John D. Jordan.

Witnesseth: (Owen Kasey.
(R.W. Meador.

State of Kentucky,
County of Breckinridge, Set.

I, A. T. BEARD, Clerk of the County Court for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing ~~Instrument of Writing~~ was, this day lodged in my office for record, whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.

Given under my hand, this 28th day of January, 1918

A.T. Beard Clerk.
By _____ D. G.