

EMMA F. MATTINGLY, WILL

I, Emma F. Mattingly, of Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this writing to be my last Will and Testament, and I hereby revoke all other wills, codicils and papers of a testamentary character heretofore made by me.

ITEM I. I direct my Executor, as hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts, the expenses of a modest funeral, the cost of an appropriately inscribed marker or headstone for the grave of my deceased mother, Hilda Ann Henning, provided that I shall not acquire such a marker or headstone prior to my death, and the expenses of administering my estate, including all inheritance, succession, legacy and estate taxes, if any, assessed upon or against my estate or upon or against any of the legacies herein made as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM II. I give, devise and bequeath the whole of my net estate, of every kind, form and description and wheresoever situated, including all properties over which I may have the power of appointment, unto my husband, Alfred R. Mattingly, of Breckinridge County, Kentucky, if he survive me, for and during his life, and upon his death, I give, devise and bequeath the remainder of said net estate to my son, Jack F. Mattingly, of Fayette County, Kentucky, in fee simple absolute; during the life of my husband, I hereby give him the express power and authority to use, sell, convey, assign, lease, dispose, encumber or mortgage so much thereof, even to the extent of exhausting the whole of said estate, as he shall in his sole discretion, without the advise or consent of any person or tribunal, deem necessary for his maintenance, comfort, happiness and support, and without liability upon any vendee, grantee, assignee, transferee, mortgagee, lessee or other person to look to the application of the proceeds; but, provided, however that if my said husband predeceases me or if he and I die as the result of the same accident or other casualty, under circumstances from which it would be impossible to determine which one survived the other, then, and in any of these events, I give, devise and bequeath the whole of my said net estate to my son, Jack F. Mattingly, of Fayette County, Kentucky, in fee simple absolute.

ITEM III. I hereby nominate and appoint my husband, Alfred R. Mattingly, of Breckinridge County, Kentucky, Executor of this my last Will and Testament and I request and direct that he be permitted to qualify as such without surety upon his bond. If my husband predeceases me or is unable or unwilling to serve as the Executor of estate, then and in any of these events, I nominate and appoint my son, Jack F. Mattingly, Executor hereunder, and I request and direct that he be permitted to qualify as such without surety upon his bond.

For the purpose of aiding my Executor in the administration and settlement of my estate, I hereby give and grant to him the unqualified power and authority to sell, convey, assign, transfer, mortgage, encumber and lease my properties, or any part or portion thereof, at such time or times and manner and upon such terms and conditions as he may deem to be for the best interest of my estate and the beneficiaries thereof, without the authorization, consent or approval of any other person or tribunal, and without liability upon any vendee, grantee, assignee, transferee, mortgagee, lessee, or other person to look to the application of the proceeds.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, Emma F. Mattingly, have subscribed my name to preceding page, for the purpose of identifying the same as parts and portions of this my last Will and Testament, and I have hereunto subscribed my name in Breckinridge County, Kentucky, this the 15th day of February, 1955.

W.R. DENISON, WILL

Feb. 16, 1952.

Hudson, Breckinridge County, Kentucky.

I, W.R. Denison, do hereby write my will as to the disposition of my property and funds at death.

1st: To pay off all notes signed by me, also burial expenses, this to be done by funds on hand or funds from sale of personal property.

All other funds and property to be used for the support of my wife, Nannie Denison during her life, or as long as she remains my widow.

As set forth in Deed Book No. 73 page 101, Lovel Denison was partner with me in the purchasing of the farm contained in this will; his payments amounted to $300. after this amount is paid to him (without interest) it is my will that the remaining property or funds be equally divided between my heirs and Nannie Denison's heirs.

Now, in case my wife be married to another, it is my will that she settle with Lovel Denison-pay him the $300 mentioned above, and whatever remains, to be divided equally between herself and my heirs nearest of kin.

ALLIE M. & EULA SQUIRES, WILL

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, Allie M. Squires and Eula Squires, husband and wife, of Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be our joint and last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by either of us.

ITEM I. We direct that all just debts and funeral expenses of the one predeceasing the other be paid as soon as practicable after the death of said decedent, and out of said decedent's estate.

ITEM II. Whereas, each of us has loaned to our son, Hendrick Miller Squires, sums of money at different times, and we may hereafter make other loans to him, taking his notes for the amounts thereof, NOW, at the time of the death of the one predeceasing the other, any and all notes then owing by him to either and both of us shall be considered as paid and cancelled, and we give and bequeath to our daughter, Anna Lewis Squires Boling, a sum equal to the total amount of all of said notes, and which sum shall be paid to her out of the estate of said decedent.

ITEM III. We hereby give, devise and bequeath to the one surviving the other all of the remainder of the property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description and wheresoever situate, of the other, to have and to hold the same to his or her use and benefit during his or her natural life, with full and complete power, during said time, to use and control said property in such manner as he or she may deem best, and, whenever in the opinion of said survivor it is necessary or advisable to do so, to sell at public or private sale, at such prices and upon such terms of credit or otherwise, as he or she may deem best, the whole or any part of the real or personal property, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds or other instruments of conveyance thereof to the purchaser or purchasers.

ITEM IV. After the death of the survivor, we direct that the just debts and funeral expenses of said survivor be paid as soon as practicable and out of the then remainder of said estate.

ITEM V. After the payment of the funeral expenses and debts of the survivor as aforesaid, we give, devise and bequeath the then residue and remainder of said property to our said son, Hendrick Miller Squires, and our daughter, Anna Lewis Squires Boling, jointly and equally, absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM VI. The one surviving the other is hereby appointed executor of executrix of the other, as the case may be, and it is requested that no bond be required of such executor or executrix. Further, after the death of the survivor, the said Hendrick Miller Squires and Anna Lewis Squires Boling are appointed joint executors to complete the carrying out of this will, and no bond shall be required of either of them as such; and, if either of them should be deceased at that time, then the other shall act as such executor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set out hands, this the 1st day of August, 1953.

ANNIE FRANCES BISHOFF, WILL

I, Annie Frances, Bishoff, of Irvington, County of Breckinridge, State of Kentucky, hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills, testaments and codicils heretofore made by me.

I. I direct my executor to pay my lawful debts, funeral expenses and expenses of my last illness. I direct my executors to pay all inheritance, estate, legacy, succession and other death taxes, payable in respect of my estate or of any devise, legacy or distribution under this will, or levied by reason of my death, whether or not the property, transfer, or proceeds with respect to which said taxes are levied are a part of my estate at my death, such taxes to be paid by my executor as an expense of administration and without reimbursement to my estate by or deduction from the share of any beneficiary, legatee, devisee or transferee.

II. I devise and bequeath to my beloved husband, Lorenzo Dow Bishoff, all and every part of my estate, of whatever kind and wherever situated, except as above provided in paragraph I; provided, however, if my husband shall not survive me, or, if surviving me does not live until complete distribution of my estate, every part of my estate not distributed to my husband during his lifetime shall be distributed as provided in paragraph III hereof.

III. I devise and bequeath every part of my estate, of whatever kind and wherever situated, not paid or distributed under paragraph I or II, to my children, the survivor of them, share and share alike.

IV. I appoint my husband, Lorenzo Dow Bishoff, of Irvington, Kentucky, executor of this last Will and Testament and direct that he be allowed to serve without giving surety on his bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I sign my name at Irvington, Kentucky, this 23rd day of November, 1955, in the presence of the witnesses signing as such, who, at my request, in my presence, and in the presence of each other, sign as attesting witnesses hereto.

Annie Francis Bishoff

The undersigned hereby declare that on the 23rd day of November, 1955, the foregoing instrument was executed and acknowledged in the presence of them both, by Annie Frances Bishoff as her last Will and Testament, and at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, the undersigned have hereto subscribed their names as witnesses thereto.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ROY McCOY

I, Roy McCoy, of Harned, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

ITEM I. I direct that as soon as practicable after the time of my decease, and out of my estate, all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid, and that a monument be purchased and erected to my grave, which monument shall be such as is proper and suitable according to my estate and the station in life occupied by me, and as may be determined by my executrix hereinafter appointed.

ITEM II. All the residue of my estate, real and personal, of every kind and description, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Alma McCoy, to have and to hold for the use, benefit and support of herself and my children, during her natural life, or so long as she remains my widow, with full power in her to control and dispose of said property if needed for the support of herself and said children. And, after the death of my said wife, Alma McCoy, or in the event of her re-marriage, in which event her rights in said property shall cease and determine the same as if she were dead, I give, devise and bequeath what may remain of said property, at the time of the happening of either of said events, to my children, namely, Margaret Adele Parks, Roy McCoy, Jr., and Jean Marshall McCoy, the same to be equally divided among them, except that the said Margaret Adele Parks is to be charged with the sum of $2,000 which I have heretofore advanced to her, and this amount shall be reckoned as a satisfaction to that extent of the portion hereby given to her, or her issue. Should any of my said children be dead at the time said estate would vest in them, without leaving issue, then the share of such deceased child shall go to the other children then living.

ITEM III. I hereby nominate and appoint my said wife, Alma McCoy, to be the executrix of this my last will and testament, hereby authorizing and empowering my said executrix to compound, compromise, settle and adjust all debts and claims which may be presented against my estate, or which may be due to my estate; and, when in her opinion, it is necessary or advisable, to sell, at private or public sale, at such prices, and upon such terms of credit or otherwise, as she may deem best, the whole or any part of my real estate or personal property, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds or other proper instruments of conveyance thereof to the purchaser or purchasers. And I direct that no bond be required of my said executrix as such.

Having much faith and confidence in the business ability of my daughter, Margaret Adele Parks, it is my wish and I request my said executrix to consult and advise with my said daughter as to the proper management of the estate at all times, when in need of advice.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF TOM LYDDAN

I, Tom Lyddan, of Irvington, Kentucky, make this as my last will and testament.

1. I direct payment of my debts and funeral expenses, as soon after my death as may be practicable.

2. All my estate, real, personal and mixed, which I may possess at the time of my death, I give to my beloved wife Norris K. Lyddan. If my wife, Norris K. Lyddan, does not survive me, my estate is to be divided equally among my four children, Helen, Robert, Mayme and Mary Thomas.

In case the house in which I now live in Irvington is to be sold, my daughters, Helen and Mayme are to be given an opportunity to purchase it from my estate, at a price determined to be fair by competent dis-interested appraiser.

3. I hereby appoint my nephew, J. D. Lyddan, as executor of this my last will, granting him full power to dispose of any or all my property, without order of court, as he may deem for the best interests of my estate, and request that no appraisal be required and direct that no surety be required on his bond as such executor.

Witness my hand and seal this 18th day of September, 1958.

JOINT AND LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF J. P. THOMPSON AND THEODOSIA THOMPSON, HUSBAND AND WIFE.

We, J. P. Thompson and Theodosia Thompson, husband and wife, of Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, each being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be our joint and last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by either of us.

ITEM I. We direct that all just debts and funeral expenses of the one predeceasing the other be paid as soon as practicable after the death of said decedent, and out of said decedent's estate.

ITEM II. We hereby give, devise and bequeath to the one surviving the other all property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description and wheresoever situated, of the other, to the survivor, to have and to hold for his or her use and benefit during his or her natural life.

ITEM III. After the death of the survivor, we hereby give, devise and bequeath whatever may remain of said property to the following persons, namely: Dove Roberts, Ray Chancellor, Ross Chancellor, Beatha Thompson, and Tommie Leslie, the first three named being sisters of said J. P. Thompson, the fourth named party being his niece, and the last named being no relation, but he was raised by the said J. P. Thompson, and they are to take said property jointly and equally, share and share alike. Provided, however, if any of the said sisters or said niece shall die before us, without leaving issue of their body, then the share of that person shall go to the other surviving parties, equally; and if the said Tommie Leslie should pre-decease us, then his share shall go to the other surviving parties, or their issue, if any be deceased.

ITEM IV. The one surviving is hereby appointed executor of the other, and it is requested that no appraisalment or inventory of the estate be made in so far as the same may be lawfully omitted, and that no bond be required of said executor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands, this the 29 day of April, 1947.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MRS MIRA MARGARET POWELL

I, Mira Margaret Powell, of Dyer Kentucky, Breckinridge County being of sound mind and memory do hereby make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by me.

Item 1

I desire that my just Debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my personal estate, if the same is sufficient therefor, as soon as the same may reasonably be done after my demise.

Item 2

To my daughter Mary Oleta (Powell) Lyons I devise in Fee simple the tract of land this day purchased by me from Luther Butler and wife, which lays adjacent to the land owned by my said daughter's husband Harvey Lyons. This tract contains about one half acre of land. However, it is not my intent to devise the improvements on the said tract to my said daughter, it being my desire that the said improvements be sold in the way most advantageous to my estate and the proceeds of the sale added to my other property which will be otherwise disposed of in this will.

Item 3

All of the residue of my property both real and personal and where ever situated I devise to the following in equal portions and in Fee simple, Tellis Agnes Bland, daughter, Bert Edwards Powell, son, Jesse Damon Powell, son, Mary Oleta Lyons Daughter, Dwight Norman Powell, Grandson of Charles Timothy Givens Grandson. If either of my said grandsons be dead at my demise and unable to take the interest hereby devised then I desire that the portion of the said decedent be divided equally among those of the above named who are living.

I hereby make nominate and appoint Bert Edwards Powell executor of this my last will and testament and I request that no bond be required of him as such and that no appraisement of my estate be made in so far as the same may lawfully omitted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Hardinsburg Kentucky this the 23 day of December 1954

JOINT AND MUTUAL WILL
W. C. PATE AND MAYME
B. PATE

We, W. C. Pate and Mayme B. Pate, residents of Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County, Kentucky being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be our last Will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by us heretofore made.

ITEM I. We direct that all of our just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of our estates as soon as practicable after the time of our respective decease, including a marker or monument (double or single), to our respective graves.

ITEM II. The one of us surviving the other is to inherit all property, real, personal, or mixed, of the other, to be used by the survivor for and during his or her natural life, and when both shall be dead, then the property of both shall be treated as one and the same, and be disposed of as herein-after provided.

ITEM III. When both of us shall be dead we give, devise and bequeath the balance of whatever remains of our estate to some suitable person to be named by the Court in trust however for the uses and purposes following, to wit: To hold, manage, control, invest and reinvest the same and out of the income thereof to care for and maintain our burial lots, and the burial lots of O. W. Foster and Jeanette Seaton, and the burial lots of Remus A. Pate and Lucy J. Pate, they being our respective parents.

ITEM IV. We direct that the survivor of this, our last will and testament, be appointed the executor or executrix hereof and request that no bond be required of him or her as such.

MRS. SALLIE E. HENNINGER, WILL

I, Mrs. Sallie E. Henninger, a resident of Breckinridge County, Kentucky do make this my last will, hereby revoking all former wills made by me and any and all letters, papers, writings, and documents which may be construed as having probative value.

Item 1. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be first paid.

Item 2. All of the rest and residue of my estate, including all real property and personal property, of every kind and description and wheresoever situated, I give, bequeath and devise to my beloved daughter, Miss Edna B. Henninger, to be hers absolutely and in fee simple. I have not given any of my estate to my other children because my daughter has cared for me for many years and spent much of her estate for my support and welfare and for and for this reason I am giving my estate to her. My other children know this to be true and understand why I am giving my estate to my aforesaid daughter.

Item 3. I name and appoint my daughter, Miss Edna B. Henninger, to be executrix of this my last will and testament and I request that no surety be required on her official bond. I give to my said executrix as full and complete power to sell and convey any or all of the assets of my estate, including all real and personal property with as full and complete power as I now personally possess.

Signed in the presence of witnesses this 6 day of July 1959.

Called in Term, September 5, 1959.

This day came A. Murray Beard heretofore appointed by order of the Breckinridge County Court as administrator of the estate of Lena R. Milner, deceased, and produced to the Court four certain papers, discovered following his appointment as such administrator and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Lena R. Milner and offered same for probate as the last Will and Testament of said Lena R. Milner. Whereupon, came Mrs. Nelson Prewitt, heir at law of Lena R. Milner and tendered and filed written objections to the probate of said papers as the last Will and Testament of said Lena R. Milner.

Each of said papers was proved to be in the handwriting of and wholly written by said testator by the testimony of A. Murray Beard and Floyd Nelson, and the Court being sufficiently advised, it is ordered that the objections of Mrs. Nelson Prewitt be, and they are hereby overruled, and two of said papers, each being signed by the testator and dated Feby. 15, 1950, and marked by the Court for the purpose of identification as "Exhibits A and B" respectively, be and they are adjudged by the Court to be the last Will and Testament of said testator and ordered to be recorded as such.

It is further ordered and adjudged by the Court that the other two papers presented, each of which is signed by the decedent and dated Sept. 18, 1949, and which have been marked by the Court for the purpose of identification as "Exhibits C and D" respectively, are not the last Will and Testament of Lena R. Milner, deceased, and each is rejected as such and probate is refused thereon. Whereupon the same with the foregoing and this certificate have been duly recorded in my said office.

I direct my executrix to pay all inheritance, estate, legacy, succession and other death taxes, payable in respect of my estate or of any devise, legacy or distribution under this will, or levied by reason of my death; whether or not the property, transfer, or proceeds with respect to which said taxes are levied are a part of my estate at my death, such taxes to be paid by my executrix as an expense of administration and without reimbursement to my estate by or deduction from the share of any beneficiary, legatee, devisee or transferee.

II.

I devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, ANNIE FRANCES BISHOFF, all and every part of my estate, of whatever kind and wherever situated, except as above provided in paragraph I; provided, however, if my wife shall not survive me, or, if surviving, she does not live until complete distribution of my estate, every part of my estate not distributed to my wife during her lifetime shall be distributed as provided in paragraph III hereof.

III.

I devise and bequeath every part of my estate, of whatever kind and wherever situated, not paid or distributed under paragraph I or II, to my children, the survivors of them, share and share alike.

IV.

I appoint my wife, Annie Frances Bishoff, of Irvington, Kentucky, executrix of this Last Will and Testament and direct that she be allowed to serve without giving surety on her bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I sign my name at Irvington, Kentucky, this 23 day of November, 1955, in the presence of the witnesses signing as such, who, at my request, in my presence, and in the presence of each other, sign as attesting witnesses hereto.

Lorenzo Dow Bishoff
