To Mary James Marion the following described lands:-

"Seven Hundred and twenty-five acres, same being survey No. 1, Township No. 7, Block No. 56, Certificate numbers 5174 and 5328, Patent No. 465, dated April 1st, 1885, to the Texas and Pacific Railway Company issued by the commission of the General Land Office of the State of Texas. Said land is located about 38 miles South from the town of Toyah, in the County of Reeves, State of Texas, together with all and singular, the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any way appertaining, and being the same property conveyed to W. S. Hazel, one of the parties of the first part, by H. A. Birkhead, Trustee, on the 26th day of March, A. D., 1920, and said deed is of record in Reeves County, State of Texas, Vol. 51 on page 101. Being the same property conveyed to H. A. Birkhead, Trustee, by W. H. Bruford on the 21st day of April, 1911, and recorded in Reeves County Record of Deed Book 30, at page 516.

I hereby ratify and confirm each of said conveyances and devise to my said children named above, the respective parcels of land above set out, and which is the same lands described in the respective deeds, under the conditions hereinafter set out.

In this devise to my said children and conveyances to them of said respective lands, I have endeavored to divide same equally among them, but it may develop in the future, either before or after my death, that oil or gas may be found under said lands in paying quantities, and if so, the present division would be unequal. In order to equalize my said three children in the distribution of said lands, I desire and request of them that in the event oil or gas should be found under either of said tracts of land in paying quantities, that the child on whose land oil or gas may be found in paying quantities, divide one-half of the royalties paid to such child for oil or gas to the other two children, such one-half to be divided equally between them, and the owner of the land where oil or gas may be produced, retain the other one-half of said royalties. This is a request to my said three children in regard to these lands, and I further request them to be fair to each other, in order to carry out my intention of equalizing said property and any oil productions among them.

THIRD: I own a tract of land containing about thirteen and one-half acres situated in the City of Owensboro, Kentucky, lying along the south side of Eighteenth Street and the west side of the Hartford Road, and at the southwestern corner of the intersection of said Street and said Road. I desire that this land be used for Catholic church and school purposes, and to this end I devise said entire tract of land to John A. Floersch, Roman Catholic Bishop of Louisville, Kentucky, and to his successors in office, which devise, if accepted, shall be upon the following terms and conditions:-

(a) The sum of $100,000 shall be set apart within two years from and after my death for the purpose of constructing upon said real estate a Catholic church, a Catholic boys' school, or a Catholic girls' school, or all of them, and work on such building or buildings shall be begun in good faith within said time and continue until completed. No part of said real estate shall be sold, mortgaged or encumbered for the purpose of creating any fund to be used in the erection of said buildings, or any of them, or to maintain them after erection, but said property shall remain intact as a whole, and when this devise is accepted it shall be used for the purposes mentioned above and for no other purpose.

(b) If any Catholic Church is erected on said lands, it shall bear the name of "St. Charles Ignatius". If any Catholic boys' school is erected on said land, it shall bear the name "St. James Augustus Catholic Boys' School". If any Catholic girls' school is erected on said land, it shall bear the name "St. Agnes Apollonia Catholic Girls' School". These names are those of my deceased friends and relatives who were near and dear to me, and whose memory I wish to perpetuate in a lasting work for the honor and glory of God.

(c) In the event this devise is accepted, the terms hereinbefore set out must be complied with, and further if in the course of time on account of the growth of the City or for any other reason it should be deemed advisable to sell said property and erect a church and school building in other parts of the City, then the devise herein named shall have the right to sell and convey said property by deed and convey a perfect fee simple title thereto, but the proceeds of such sale must be reinvested in other Catholic church property similar in kind to the church, school or schools erected thereon which shall bear the names hereinbefore set out, and be held by the Roman Catholic Bishop of Louisville and his successors in office on the same terms and conditions as hereinbefore set out.

(d) If the devise herein is accepted, and my executor herein-after named is fully satisfied that the terms and conditions are and will be fully complied with, then he is authorized, directed and empowered to make, sign, execute and deliver a deed to the Roman Catholic Bishop of Louisville and his successors in office, conveying the title to said real estate, to be held under the terms and conditions herein expressed.

(e) If said devise is accepted and conveyance made, same shall be held on the terms and conditions as above set out, and if any one of the terms or conditions upon which this devise is made shall at any time be broken and violated, or not complied with as herein specified, then this devise shall cease and determine, become void and of no effect, and said property so devised shall revert to my estate and be divided equally among my then surviving children, or their descendants as they would take under the laws of descent and distribution.

FOURTH: (a) I have a judgment in the Daviess Circuit Court against D.O. C. Daugherty for $600.59 with interest thereon; entered at the June term, 1909, of the said Court, and I devise this judgment to St. Frances Academy of Owensboro, Kentucky.

(b) I also have a judgment against D.O.C. Daugherty in the Daviess Circuit Court for $430.00 with interest thereon, which judgment was entered at the April term, 1923, of said Court, which judgment I devise to St. Mary's Home, (conducted by the Ursuline Sisters of St. Joseph, Kentucky) which Home is situated in the residence and home of the late Wilford Carrio, deceased.

(c) I have a judgment in the Daviess Circuit Court against Estill W. Neel for $250.00 with interest thereon, which judgment was rendered at the February term, 1923, and which I devise to the Mary Kendall Home of Owensboro, Kentucky.

I have been unable to realize on either of said judgments during the lifetime of the debtors, and fee that as I am devising same to charitable institutions, the judgment debtors will satisfy these judgments by paying same to the respective devisees, so that same can be used for the charitable purposes herein set out.

(d) I have two bonds issued by the Knights of Columbus Association, Numbers 22 and 58, on which there is an unpaid balance at this time of $500.00, these bonds I devise to St. Frances Academy of Owensboro, Kentucky,

(e) In addition to the property which I have heretofore given my wife, Agnes L. Hazel, as mentioned in the FIRST paragraph, I will and devise to her a policy for $1,000 issued on my life by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company on the 19th day of August, 1875, the proceeds of said policy to be hers to be used and disposed of in any manner she may wish or desire.

(f) I have an indebtedness of $301.60 with interest thereon, against E. D. Searce, which indebtedness is secured by an insurance policy for $1,000 issued on the life of said E. D. Searce by The Travellers Insurance Company of Hartford Connecticut, and assigned by said E. D. Searce to me to secure said indebtedness. I will and devise said indebtedness, together with said insurance policy assigned to me to secure same, to my grandson, George M. Hazel, who is to be the owner and holder of said indebtedness and insurance policy, and to collect the proceeds thereof at the death of said Searce.

(g) I procured to be issued on the life of my son, Joseph B. Hazel, two insurance policies in the Inter-Southern Life Insurance Company, Numbers 105234-5 respectively for $5,000 each, in which policy I am named as beneficiary, and on which I have paid, and will pay all premiums to the date of my death. I will, devise and direct that in the event my son, Joseph B. Hazel, should survive me, that after my death he will keep all premiums paid by on said two policies of insurance, and at his death the proceeds of said two policies be divided equally among his wife and children, they sharing equally in the proceeds thereof. In order to carry out this intention and devise, if necessary after my death, I direct that my son, Joseph B. Hazel, procure a change of beneficiary in each of said policies, and make his wife and children the joint beneficiaries in said policies so that the proceeds thereof may be paid equally to them after his death, and in accordance with my wish and devise as expressed herein.

(h) All of the indebtedness owing to me at the time of my death by Mrs. John Weber of R.F.D., Lewisport, Kentucky, shall be cancelled and held for naught, and she shall not be required to pay to my estate after my death any part of same. This release and cancellation does not, however, include any indebtedness that may be owing to me at the time of my death by her son, Sam Weber, which indebtedness shall remain in full force and collected by my Executor for the use and benefit of my estate.

(i) John Jackson has lived for many years on a farm owned by me known as the "Old Hoskins Farm". I direct that he be permitted to live on said farm as long as he lives, or may desire, on the same conditions as heretofore, he paying to my estate one-half of the proceeds of the crops grown by him on said farm if he is able so to do, and if not able to pay this portion of the proceeds of the crops, then that he pay to my estate one-third of same. I desire to provide him with a home during the remainder of his life, and upon easy terms with which he can comply.

FIFTH: All of the residue of my property, not hereinbefore devised, consisting of real estate, notes, stock, bonds and of every kind, I hereby devise and bequeath equally to my three children, J. B. Hazel, Cloe Hazel Gropp and Mary James Marion, to be paid, distributed and conveyed to them by my Executor as hereinafter directed.

SIXTH: I have the utmost confidence in the honesty and integrity of my son, J. B. Hazel, but in view of his inexperience in such business matters as will follow in the settling of my estate, and realizing that it will be better to have same handled by an experienced lawyer, I have reluctantly concluded it not wise to appoint him as my Executor. I, therefore, for these reasons, appoint Herman A. Birkhead of Owensboro, Kentucky, Executor of this will, and direct that he be permitted to execute bond as such in the sum of TWENTY THOUSAND ($20,000) DOLLARS, and when he executes such bond, should he procure a bonding company as surety thereon, any premiums paid for such bond shall be paid out of the estate in his hands. My said Executor is hereby give full power to handle, dispose of and distribute that portion of my estate that comes to his hands as he thinks for the best interest of my said three children to whom said property is devised. He is given full power to sell and transfer or re-invest any stocks, bonds, or personal property of any kind that I may own at the time of my death, and is given the further power to sell, convey and pass a perfect fee simple title to any real estate that I may own at said time, and will exercise his judgment as to the best manner in which my said estate and the proceeds of any sales or investments shall be made and distributed. He shall have power and authority to distribute the residue of my estate among my said three children from time to time on their respective distributable shares, and in doing so, if they so desire, he may distribute to them any part of said property in kind instead of in money; and should they desire to receive any of the real estate upon their distributable share by agreement among themselves, then my said Executor is authorized and directed to convey any parcel or real estate to any distributee on his or her distributable share of the residue of my estate. To carry out my intention, I give to my said Executor full power and authority to do any and all things he may deem necessary in the premises for the preservation of my estate, and for an equal distribution of same among my children to whom same is devised. In view of the fact that I have many notes, securities and various kinds of property that cannot be realized on in a short period of time, my Executor shall have five years from and after the date of my death in which to dispose of, settle and distribute my estate in accordance with the terms of this will.

I further direct my Executor to pay all debts that may be owing by me at the time of my death, and if any of the property heretofore conveyed, or may be hereafter conveyed by me, or devised to either of my said children herein, should at the time of my death be encumbered by lien or debt of any kind, then my Executor is directed out of my estate to pay and discharge any and all such liens or debts so that each of my said children to whom any property has been conveyed, or may be conveyed by me, or devised to them under this will shall receive same free of liens or encumbrances of any kind.

In the deed I have heretofore made to my daughter, Mary James Marion, and recorded in the Clerk's office of the Daviess County Court, there is reserved to my beloved wife, Agnes L. Hazel, a life estate of her choice of the houses and lots set out in said deed, which will provide a home of her own selection for and during her life; and I also devise to her all of the household and kitchen furniture and property of every kind that may be situated in the home occupied by us at the time of my death, and direct that my Executor will not have same appraised, but deliver same to her to be hers absolutely and to do with as she may wish.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I hereunto signs my name to this and the ten pages next preceding as and for my last will and testament on this the day and date first above written.

CODICIL

I, W. S. Hazel of Owensboro, Kentucky, make this as Codicil Number Two to my will bearing date February 20th, 1928.

First: I revoke "Clause Third" in its entirety as it appears in my original will beginning on page 4 and concluding on page 7 thereof. Said clause shall be void and of no effect.

Second: I revoke sections "e", "f" and "i" of the "Fourth Paragraph" of said will, and said sections shall be held for naught.

Third: I revoke so much of "Paragraph Six" of said will as appoints Herman A. Birkhead of Owensboro as Executor of said will, and in his stead I now appoint Richard H. Slack of Owensboro as such Executor, and he shall have all the power and authority as set out in said paragraph. With the exception of the substitution of Richard H. Slack as Executor for Herman A. Birkhead, said paragraph is to remain in full force and effect in the manner in which same is written or appears in said will.

The reason I make this change is that Mr. Birkhead has a large law practice, busily engaged as attorney for the Commonwealth and perhaps will not have ample time to devote to the settling of my estate under the terms of said will. Richard H. Slack is a much younger man, the son of one of my old-time friends, Robert W. Slack, and I feel that in honoring him by making him Executor I honor his father, who I know would appreciate my entrusting of the settling of my estate to his son.

Fourth: My cousin, Mrs. Hattie Hon, has and is using a piano that belongs to my daughter Jane Hazel, and I desire that Mrs. Hon continue to use this piano in her profession of teaching music.

I suggest to my daughter, Jane Hazel, that after my death she come home, live in one of the houses which she will own and have her cousin, Mrs. Hattie Hon, to live with her. In making this suggestion I feel that it would be pleasant and agreeable for each of them, out of which association they would derive much pleasure and happiness.

Fifth: (a) The various properties in the attic of my house that belong to empty houses, I direct to be placed back in the houses where the various articles belong. Jim Kirk knows in which houses the various articles belong.

(b) I direct there shall not be any sale of the personal property out of any of the houses which I own, but all is to remain in the houses as it is now situated.

(c) I direct that none of the furnishings or property in the house where I reside be sold, but all of the household and kitchen furniture now situated in this house is to remain and go with the house; except a bookcase which belongs to my grandson, George M. Hazel.

Sixth: Dr. F. M. Clements gave to me at his death a gold-headed cane which had been presented to him when he was elected Mayor of Salisbury, Missouri many years ago. My grandson, George M. Hazel, has said cane in his possession, and I now will and devise this cane to LaVega Clements of Owensboro, Kentucky as a keep-sake and in remembrance of his uncle, Dr. F. M. Clements, and I direct my grandson, George M. Hazel, to deliver same to him.

reby revoking

I, HARLAN PARK, of Daviess County, Owensboro, Kentucky, do hereby make, publish and declare this as my last will and testament, revoking any other will executed by me.

ITEM I: I direct that all of my debts, taxes, funeral expenses and the cost of administration of my estate be paid by my executor from such assets as the executor selects.

ITEM II: All inheritance and estate taxes shall be paid out of the residue of my estate and my executor shall make no claim against any person receiving any money or property, including the proceeds of insurance policies, which are included in my gross estate for estate or inheritance tax purposes.

ITEM 3: If my beloved wife, Minnie Lou Park, survives me, I bequeath to her all of my personal effects, household furnishings and jewelry, together with any automobile or automobiles which I own and which my family and I are then using for family purposes. I also devise and bequeath to my wife in fee simple any home in which we are residing at the date of my death, our present home being held under a deed with rights of survivorship.

In the event my wife should not survive me, or if we should die under such circumstances as make it doubtful which of us died first, then I direct that the property devised and bequeathed in this Item 3 be distributed under Item 5 of this will.

ITEM 4: If my wife survives me, I devise and bequeath to her in fee simple absolute one-half (1/2) of my entire estate, as selected and valued by my executor, after deducting debts and expenses of administration, but before deducting any estate or inheritance tax and before deducting any other legacy or devise contained in this will. For the purpose of determining such one-half of my entire estate, all insurance on my life which is included in my estate for federal estate tax purposes shall be treated as if it were a part of my estate, although payable to other beneficiaries, and any such insurance on my life which is payable to my wife in such manner as to qualify as a part of the marital deduction shall be deducted from said one-half of my estate devised to her. There shall also be deducted from the one-half of my estate devised to her in this item the value of the property devised and bequeathed to her in Item No. 3 of this will.

The amount of the devise and bequest to my wife under this Item No. 4 of my will shall be determined by my Executor on the basis of values existing on the date of such division and payment to my wife of any portion of my estate to which she is entitled under this will, and this bequest shall carry with it its proportionate part of the income of my estate from the date of my death.

My Executor shall not use to satisfy the bequest in this Item or any part thereof, any asset in respect of which no marital deduction would be allowed if such asset passed to my said wife.

ITEM 5: All of the rest, residue and remainder of my real and personal property of whatever kind and description and wheresoever situate, and whosoever acquired, including any lapsed or void legacy or devise and any property over which I may have the power of disposition or appointment, I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustee, The Owensboro National Bank, of Owensboro, Kentucky, in trust, to hold, manage, control, invest and reinvest as follows:

(i) To divide the trust estate into as many shares as there are children of mine living at the date of my death, and deceased children leaving descendants surviving at the date of my death.

(ii) One of the shares set apart under subsection (i) hereof shall be held for the benefit of each child of mine then living, until such child shall reach twenty-one (21) years of age. The Trustee shall pay to such child or expend for his or her benefit, so much of the net income derived from his or her trust estate as the Trustee shall deem advisable to provide for the maintenance, education, support, comfort and general welfare of such child; and the Trustee may add to the principal of the trust estate any income not so distributed. After such child reaches twenty-one (21) years of age, the Trustee shall pay to such child one-half of his or her trust fund in fee, and shall retain the remainder of such fund in trust, paying to such child the entire net income derived therefrom until such child attains the age of twenty-five (25) years, at which time the remaining one-half of said trust fund shall be paid over and delivered to such child in fee. If any child shall die before receiving in fee all of his or her trust estate, then the undistributed portion shall pass per stirpes unto his or her then living descendants, if any, and if none, then in like manner unto my then living descendants, provided however, that if at the time of such distribution any beneficiary thereof is then receiving the income from any trust estate established hereunder, the share of such beneficiary shall be added to the principal for such trust estate, as an integral part thereof, to be held, administered and distributed in accordance with all the terms, conditions and limitations applying thereto.

Page 3 -Will of Harlan Park

(iii) One of the shares set apart under Item 5 subsection (ii) shall be divided and held for the benefit of the descendants of any deceased children of mine, who are living at the date of my death, such descendants to take share and share alike. Until such descendant attains the age of twenty-one (21) Years, the Trustee shall pay to such descendant or expend for his or her behalf, so much of the net income derived from his or her particular fund as the Trustee may deem advisable to provide for the maintenance, education, comfort and general

If any such descendant should die before reaching twenty-one (21) years of age, his or her share shall pass to his or her heirs at law under the Statute of Descent and Distribution in the state of domicile of such descendant.

ITEM 6: This will is planned entirely for the protection of my wife and my children and descendants of deceased children and my wife and I have considered it jointly. However, if my wife should subsequently conclude to renounce my will, then I desire that with respect to the balance of my estate, all of the provisions of this will shall be construed and enforced, insofar as possible, the same as if my wife had predeceased me.

ITEM 7: My Trustee shall have full and unrestricted power and authority to hold, manage, improve, grant, sell, convey, deliver, assign, transfer, lease (any lease of such real estate or contract with regard thereto made by the Trustee shall be binding for the full period of the lease or contract although said period shall extend beyond the period of the trust), option, mortgage, (including mortgages to the Trustee in its individual capacity), pledge, borrow upon the credit of, contract with respect to, or otherwise deal with or dispose of, without application to, or order of any court, the property of my trust estates without any duty upon any person dealing with it to see to the application of any money or property directed to it, it being my expressed intention to confer upon my Trustee every power of management which might be conferred upon it by an expressed enumeration of separate powers, including, but without limiting the generality of the above powers and authority to:

(i) Make allocation to funds or distribution to beneficiaries in kind or in cash, or partly in kind and partly in cash, at valuations determined by the Trustee.

(ii) During the minority of any beneficiary to whom income is herein to be paid, my Trustee may pay such income in any one or more of the following ways: (a) directly to said minor; (b) to the legal guardian of said minor; (c) to a relative of said minor to be expended by such relative for the education and maintenance of such child; (d) by expending same directly for the education and maintenance of said minor.

(iii) Except when a division is necessary for purposes of distribution, hold separate funds in one consolidated fund in which the separate funds shall have undivided interest.

(iv) Hold any property which I may own at the time of my death for such time as it deems wise (not inconsistent with the provisions hereof regarding distribution), even though such property is not of a kind usually selected by Trustee as a trust investment, and even though such retention may result in inadequate diversification.

(v) Invest and reinvest all or part of the principal of the trust estate in real or personal property, including corporate bonds, debentures, stock (common or preferred), real estate mortgage bonds or notes or participations therein, and other investments, including common trust funds and investment trusts, in its discretion, without limiting such investments to the classes of securities or property which are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law as those in which trust funds shall be invested.

(vi) To settle or adjust any and all claims, charges, debts, or demands against or in favor of my trust estate or estates, without securing an order of court or the consent of any person.

(vii) Stock dividends, dividends in liquidation and rights to buy shall be treated as principal and not be distributed as income, and premiums on securities purchased at more than par and discounts on securities purchased at less than par shall be charged or credited, as the case may be, to principal and not be amortized out of income.

(viii) To vote in person or by proxy any corporate stock or other security at any corporate meeting; to agree to or take any action in regard to any dissolution, recapitalization, reorganization, merger, consolidation, or any plan therefor, or in relation to bankruptcy or other proceedings affecting any stock bond, note or other property, as may seem expedient or advisable.

(ix) To engage in any business undertaking, whether as an individual undertaking, joint ownership, co-partner, shareholder or otherwise, which I may be engaged in at the time of my death, and which my Trustee or my Executor deems inadvisable to liquidate within the time or manner which would ordinarily be followed by a Trustee or Executor.

(x) The powers enumerated herein shall be continuing and shall not be exhausted by the exercise or repeated exercise thereof, and are to include the full power to sell for reinvestment, or other purposes, at public or private sale, on such terms and conditions as it may designate, all or any part of the principal of my trust estate or estates.

ITEM 8: I nominate, constitute and appoint The Owensboro National Bank, of Owensboro, Kentucky, as Executor of this will, and I give to such Executor all of the powers which I have heretofore invested in my Trustee, such powers to be exercised by my Executor during the period of administration of my estate as to any and all assets in the Executor's hands.

ITEM 9: If a vacancy should occur in the offices of Executor or of Trustee, or if the Executor and Trustee herein named should fail to qualify in either capacity, then I nominate and appoint the Central Trust Company of Owensboro, Kentucky, as Executor and as Trustee hereunder with all the powers and duties heretofore vested in said The Owensboro National Bank.

MARVIN D. BEARD, SR., COPY OF WILL

I, MARVIN D. BEARD, SR., OF Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

My just debts and funeral expenses shall first be paid from my estate. All inheritance or estate taxes on any bequest or devise herein made shall be paid from my estate as though such were a direct charge against same.

ITEM II

After payment or allowance for payment of debts, inheritance and estate taxes, costs of administration, and other charges against my estate, I direct my Executor to evaluate the residue of my estate. He shall then apportion my estate three ways. One portion will be designated herein as the Miller portion; one portion designated herein as the Beard portion; and one portion designated herein as the Beard Trust. The portion allotted to Miller and the portion allotted to Beard shall each be Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) greater than that portion allotted to the Beard Trust. The reason for making the Beard portion and the Miller portion greater than the Beard Trust portion is that during the lifetime of my son, Marvin D. Beard, Jr., now deceased, I advanced him the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). I have lent to my son, Ralph M. Beard, certificates evidencing 300 shares of the common stock of Kentucky Utilities Company, and if certificates evidencing such shares are not returned to me prior to my death, then such shares, valued as of the date of my death, shall be considered as a part of the Beard portion of my estate above referred to in order that my said son may be charged with the value of such shares as an advance.

I give, bequeath and devise the Miller portion of my estate to my daughter, Barbara B. Miller, absolutely and in fee simple. I give, bequeath and devise the Beard portion of my estate to my son, Ralph M. Beard, absolutely and in fee simple. The portion of my estate designated herein as the Beard Trust, I give, bequeath and devise to The Louisville Trust Company, Louisville, Kentucky, in trust; provided, however, in the event my grandson, Marvin D. (Marney) Beard III, is over twenty-one (21) years of age and married or is over the age of thirty-two (32) years, married or unmarried, then this bequest and devise to The Louisville Trust Company of the portion of my estate designated as the Beard Trust shall be void, and Item IV of this will shall be void and of no effect, and that portion of my estate designated herein as the Beard Trust shall be paid to Marvin D. Beard III absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM III

In the event that either my son, Ralph M. Beard, or my daughter, Barbara B. Miller, predeceases me, then the share of such deceased child shall go to its children, natural or adopted, per stirpes. In the event my grandson, Marvin D. Beard III, predeceases me unmarried and without issue, then his share of my estate, designated herein as the Beard Trust, shall be equally divided between my son, Ralph M. Beard, or his children, natural or adopted, per stirpes, and my daughter, Barbara B. Miller, or her children, natural or adopted, per stirpes. In the event Marvin D. Beard III predeceases me survived by a child or children, then the portion of my estate designated herein as the Beard Trust shall be paid to The Louisville Trust Company in trust as provided in Item II above for the use and benefit of the child or children of Marvin D. Beard III, and the trust shall be administered as provided in Item IV below, except that the Trustee shall divide the trust estate into as many equal parts as there are children of Marvin D. Beard III surviving him, the income from each part to be paid to the child for whose benefit the part is set aside. As each such child shall reach the age of twenty-one (21) years, the corpus of the part held for his benefit shall be paid to him. In administering the trust for the benefit of the infant children of Marvin D. Beard III, I direct the Trustee to consider carefully the needs of such children, reminding the Trustee of his power to encroach upon the principal in Item IV(5) below. In the event Marvin D. Beard III predeceases me married but without children, then the portion of my estate designated herein as the Beard Trust shall be paid to his surviving widow, provided she be alive at the time of my death. If she also predeceases me, then the portion of my estate designated herein as the Beard Trust shall be equally divided between my son, Ralph M. Beard, and my daughter, Barbara B. Miller, or their children, as provided herein.

ITEM IV.

The Trustee, in holding, managing and controlling the trust herein created, shall be guided by the following directions:

(1) The trust herein created is for the use and benefit of my grandson, Marvin D. Beard III, the only child of my son, Marvin D. Beard, Jr., now deceased. Until such time as Marvin D. Beard III becomes twenty-one (21) years of age, the Trustee shall pay to him in reasonable installments not less often than quarterly the net income from the trust estate, and, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph (2), shall continue to pay such income to Marvin D. Beard III after he becomes twenty-one (21) years of age.

(2) This trust shall be terminated when Marvin D. Beard III marries or becomes thirty-two (32) years of age, whichever event is sooner, except that if Marvin D. Beard III marries prior to his twenty-first birthday, the trust is to continue until such time as he attains twenty-one (21) years of age. At the termination of this trust, the corpus shall be paid in fee to Marvin D. Beard III.

(3) In the event Marvin D. Beard III dies unmarried, without children surviving him, before this trust is terminated, the corpus of the trust, at his death, shall be equally divided by the Trustee, one-half (1/2) to be paid to Barbara B. Miller, or if she be then dead to be paid to her children, natural or adopted, per stirpes, and the other one-half (1/2) to be paid to Ralph M. Beard, or if he be then dead, to his children, natural or adopted, per stirpes. If Marvin D. Beard III dies married, without children surviving him, prior to his twenty-first birthday, then I direct the corpus of the trust to be paid to his surviving widow. If Marvin D. Beard III dies survived by a child or children before this trust is terminated, the trust shall be administered for the benefit of those children as provided in Item III herein.

(4) The Trustee, in holding, managing and controlling the trust estate, shall have full power and discretion as to investments, their terms and conditions, contracts and all other matters, the same as I might do if living and managing my own estate. The Trustee shall further have full discretion in determining the status of payments to the estate as between income and principal.

(5) The Trustee, in its sole discretion, may make payment from the principal in order to further the health, education or welfare of the beneficiary, Marvin D. Beard III, or any other beneficiary.

ITEM V.

I appoint The Louisville Trust Company to be Executor of this my last will and testament, giving unto it full power and authority to sell or dispose of any of my property, real, personal or mixed, at such time and on such terms and conditions as it may see fit, without the intervention of any court. Any purchaser from my Executor need not see to the application of the purchase price. In making the apportionment of the three bequests and devises, as herein provided, and in paying same to the legatees thereto entitled, my Executor is empowered to make the apportionment and payments either in kind or in money or partly in kind or partly in money.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my hand this 28th day of August, 1952.

Marvin D. Beard, Sr.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the foregoing instrument of writing was this day produced to us by Marvin D. Beard, Sr., and in our joint presence signed and acknowledged by him to be his last will and testament; and we do now, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, subscribe our names hereto as witnesses of said will.

MY WILL, DAVID C. MOORMAN

Being of sound and disposing mind, I wish to make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all previous wills by me made.

My executor shall, as soon as practicable after qualifying as such, pay all of my debts and any personal or estate taxes, chargeable to my estate. He shall then make distribution of all my estate under his control, as soon as his legal duties are fulfilled, according to my directions as hereinafter set out.

It is my will that my wife, Laura S. Moorman, shall have, absolutely and in her own right, all my property whether real, personal or mixed and wherever situate.

It is my desire that my son Richard E. Moorman, be appointed my executor, upon proper qualification, and that he be permitted to serve without bond. My executor shall have the power to manage my estate and to sell as much of it as is necessary to pay any debts or taxes owed by my estate.

Should my wife, Laura S. Moorman predecease me or should our deaths occur simultaneously, then it is my wish that my entire estate be held in trust for the benefit of my minor children until the youngest, Thomas, shall have reached his twenty first birthday. Except that if my son Thomas hasn't finished his College Course before termination of the above trust, he shall be advanced sufficient funds from the trust to complete four years of college. After this deduction, if necessary, the remaining estate should be distributed equally to my children or their lawful representatives, and said trust shall terminate.

I wish to appoint, Richard E. Moorman, my son, as my trustee, should the trust portion of this will take effect. My trustee shall have full power of sale of any portion of my trust estate, if such sale should appear in his discretion to be in the best interest of the beneficiaries of this trust, and he shall have broad powers of reinvestment of the proceeds of sale of any portion of the trust estate.

It is also my wish, that if any of my sons show an aptitude and desire to farm, that he be allowed to buy the farm at a very lenient price and be given a liberal schedule of payments to the other heirs. Price and payment schedule to be worked out by my executor, Richard E. Moorman, and my wife Laura S. Moorman.

In witness whereof I have hereby set my hand to this my last will and testament, this 13th day of November 1960.

3. I hereby appoint my husband, Fletcher Blanford, Executor of this my last will and testament and request that he be allowed to qualify as such without giving bond or surety, and that no inventory be made of my estate. It is my further desire that my will not be published in any news paper.
4. In the event that my husband, Fletcher Blanford should not live to receive the benefits stipulated in part 2 of my will set forth above, then it is my desire that the residue of my estate be divided into three (3) equal parts, disposed of as follows: One part to my son, Charles Davis Blanford; one part to my daughter, Blanche Blanford Robbins; one part to my son, William Bell Blanford.
5. In the event my husband does not live to qualify as Executor, then it is my desire that my daughter Blanche Blanford Robbins qualify as such without giving bond or surety, and that no inventory be made of my estate and that my will not be published in any news paper.

It is to be specifically understood that paragraphs four and five of this will are to be executed only in the event that my husband and I should die a coincidental death, or in the event that he does not live to receive the benefits stipulated in paragraph two.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand at Irvington, Kentucky, this 12th day of April 1956.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Last Will of S. J. O'Bryan, dated November 4th, 1955, be and is hereby admitted to probate.

ENTER Robert Jerome Dunne

DATE October 3rd, 1961

WILL

I, S.J. O'BRYAN, of Chicago, Illinois, make this my last will and revoke all of my former wills and codicils.

ARTICLE ONE

I give and devise:

1.1. All jewelry, silverware, pictures, books, house furniture and furnishings, clothing, automobiles and articles of household or personal use or ornament of all kinds owned by me at my death (including all farm machinery and equipment, live stock, consumable stores and provisions, growing and gathered crops and produce, and all other personal property used at my death in connection with any farm owned by me or in which I may have an interest) to my wife, MAE H. O'BRYAN, or if she predeceases me, to my children who are living at my death, to be divided equally among them as they determine, or if they fail to agree upon such division within six months after my death, then as the executors hereof shall determine, except that the trustee of the trusts created by Article Three shall represent any minor child in the division of such property and shall receipt for and hold such child's share for his or her benefit and deliver the same to him or her either before or when he or she reaches legal age, as the said trustee considers advisable, or, if the said trustee deems it for the best interests of such child the said trustee may sell any part of all of such property and may deliver the proceeds of sale to such child either before or when he or she reaches legal age. All as said trustee considers advisable.

1.2. All real estate and interests in real estate owned by me at my death, if any, to my wife, MAE H. O'BRYAN, or if she predeceases me, equally to such of my children as are living at my death.

ARTICLE TWO

If my wife, Mae H. O'Bryan, is living at my death, I give an amount equal to one-half of the value of my adjusted gross estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes less an amount equal to the value of property and interests in property passing or which have passed other than pursuant to this article and with respect to which a marital deduction is allowed for federal estate tax purposes (referred to in this article as the "trust property") to HARRIS TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK, of Chicago, Illinois, as trustee, subject to the trusts set forth below. The gift made by this article shall be limited to and satisfied out of cash, stocks or bonds owned by me at my death, or the proceeds thereof, as the executors may determine, any property distributed in kind shall be valued for purposes of distribution at its value as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes in my estate. The income and principal of the trust property shall be held and disposed of as follows:

2.1. Commencing at my death and during the life of my wife, Mae H. O'Bryan, the trustee shall pay to her the income from the trust property, and in addition to income the trustee from time to time may pay to my wife such amounts from the principal of the trust property as the trustee considers necessary or desirable for her comfortable maintenance, medical care and welfare including reasonable luxuries taking into consideration the standard of living to which she is accustomed at my death.

2.2. Upon the death of my wife, the principal of the trust property shall be distributed to or for the benefit of such appointee or appointees (including the estate of my wife) in such proportions and subject to such trusts, powers and conditions as my wife may provide and appoint by will.

2.3. Any interest in the trust property not effectively disposed of by the above provisions shall be a part of the residue of my estate.

ARTICLE THREE

All the rest of my estate, real and personal, wherever located (referred to below as the "trust property"), but expressly excluding any property over which I now or hereafter may have power of appointment, I give and devise to said HARRIS TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK, as trustee, subject to the following trust:

3.1. The trustee immediately shall divide the trust property into as many equal separate funds as there are children of mine either living at my death or who predecease me leaving one or more descendants living at my death, and such funds shall be designated by the respective names of such living or deceased children. I have five children now living, Mary Patricia, born March 25, 1924, Elizabeth Ann, born September 2, 1925, Catherine Sue, born August 22, 1926, Ada Frances, born February 16, 1931, and Margaret Louise, born February 3, 1936.

3.2. During each calendar year the trustee shall pay to my sister, Frances McVeigh, as long as she is living, the sum of twelve hundred dollars, or ten per cent of the income from the trust property for such year, whichever is smaller.

3.3. During the life of my wife, Mae M. O'Bryan, the trustee shall pay from time to time to her such amounts as the trustee considers reasonably necessary or desirable for her comfortable maintenance, medical care and welfare, including reasonable luxuries, taking into consideration the cash income and resources known to the trustee to be available to my wife from other sources, including the trust created by Article Two.

3.4. All payments pursuant to paragraph 3.2 shall be made equally from the income of each of the separate funds created by this article. All payments pursuant to paragraph 3.3 shall be made equally from the remaining income, and to the extent such income is insufficient from the principal, of each of the separate funds created by this article. The provisions of this instrument set forth below are subject to the foregoing provisions in favor of my wife and my said sister, and the trustee shall make no payments of income or principal of the several funds pursuant to the following provisions which in its opinion would jeopardize the payments to my wife contemplated above. The provisions of paragraph 3.2 in favor of my said sister shall not be construed as requiring the trustee to withhold distribution of principal of any fund contemplated by other provisions of this will.

3.5. Subject to the foregoing provisions and the provisions of paragraph 3.8, the trustee shall pay to each beneficiary for whom a fund held hereunder is named created pursuant to the foregoing or subsequent provisions of this article the income from such fund until the time fixed below for the complete distribution thereof or until the prior death of such beneficiary, except that if the trustee considers that the income otherwise payable to any beneficiary who has not reached the age of twenty-one years exceeds the amount reasonably necessary for his or her support, education and welfare, then the trustee shall pay to such beneficiary only so much of such income as the trustee deems advisable for such purposes, adding the balance of such income to the principal from which it was derived.

3.6. After the death of my wife, the trustee shall make the following distributions:

(a) When each child of mine for whom a fund held hereunder is named has reached the age of forty years, the trustee shall distribute to such child one-half in value of the then principal of such fund.

(b) When each beneficiary other than a child of mine for whom a fund held hereunder is named has reached the age of thirty-years, the trustee shall distribute to him or her one-half in value of the then principal of such fund, and when such beneficiary has reached the age of thirty-five years, the trustee shall distribute to him or her the remaining principal of such fund.

3.7. If at any time or times the trustee considers that the income and cash resources known to the trustee to be available to any beneficiary for whom a fund held hereunder is named are insufficient for the comfortable maintenance, medical care, education and welfare, including reasonable luxuries, of such beneficiary and his or her dependents, the trustee from time to time may make such payments to such beneficiary from the principal of such fund in such amounts as the trustee considers necessary or desirable for such purposes.

3.8. If a beneficiary living at or born after my death should die before the time fixed in this article for the complete distribution of the fund named for him or her, then upon the death of such beneficiary the principal of such fund shall be distributed as or for the benefit of such of his or her descendants (including adopted descendants) in such proportions and subject to such trusts, powers and conditions as such beneficiary shall provide and appoint by will, except that such beneficiary may appoint any part or all of the income from such fund to his or her surviving spouse, if any, until such surviving spouse's death or prior remarriage, or for such shorter period as such beneficiary may designate.

3.9. Any interest in any fund created by any of the provisions of this article not effectively disposed of by the above provisions shall be distributed upon the death of the beneficiary for whom such fund is named, or upon my death in the case of a fund created above named for a child of mine who predeceases me, per stirpes to the then living descendants of such beneficiary or child, if any, otherwise in equal shares to his or her then living brothers and sisters, the then living descendants of any deceased brother or sister taking per stirpes the share which such deceased brother or sister would have been entitled to take if then living, or if no descendant, no brother or sister and no descendant of a deceased brother or sister of such beneficiary or child shall then be living, then per stirpes to my then living descendants; except that each share otherwise distributable pursuant to this paragraph to a beneficiary for whom a fund then held hereunder is named shall be added to such fund and each share otherwise distributable pursuant to this paragraph to any other beneficiary who has not reached the age of thirty-five years shall be held in trust hereunder as a separate and independent trust fund designated by his or her name and disposed of as provided by this article.

3.10. Recognizing that conditions which I cannot foresee may arise in the future, I direct that if the trustee determines that one or more of the following:

- (a) A substantial change in the political, economic or social order of the United State of America;
- (b) A marked change in the needs or requirements of any beneficiary hereunder;
- (c) Legislation or court decisions detrimental to the trusts hereby created or to any beneficiary hereunder;
- (d) A lack of suitable trust investments for a period of more than a year;
- (e) Other events tending to impair the intent and purpose of this instrument, have occurred or impend, and the trustee otherwise is of the opinion that a distribution earlier than provided above of trust property is desirable, the trustee may distribute at any time or from time to time any part or all of any separate fund of the trust property created by this article to the person for whom such fund is named, except that if at the time of the proposed distribution the surviving spouse for whom such fund is named, except that if at the time of the proposed distribution the surviving spouse of any beneficiary then is entitled to receive income from any part of the property proposed to be distributed, the trustee first shall distribute to such surviving spouse out of such property an amount equal to the actuarial value of the income appointed to him or her as determined by the trustee based upon such mortality tables and interest rate as the trustee deems equitable. The trustee shall be fully protected against all liability and claims asserted by reason of its making, or failing to make, any distribution under this paragraph. The trustee may act under this paragraph at any time, but shall not be required to consider such action until a beneficiary has suggested that the trustee determine whether such action is desirable.

3.11. Regardless of any other provisions in this instrument, no portion of the trust property shall be retained in trust hereunder for more than twenty-one years after the death of the last to die of the beneficiaries herein designated who are living at my death; and each fund of the trust property if any still retained in trust at the end of such period shall be distributed immediately to the person for whom such fund is named.

ARTICLE FOUR

The following provisions shall apply to the trust property of each of the trusts created by Articles Two and Three (referred to in this article as the "trust property") as if set forth in full in each of said articles:

4.1. The trustee shall be fully protected in relying upon an instrument which has been admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the last will of a beneficiary, or if the trustee has no actual notice of the existence of a will of a beneficiary within three months after his or her death, the trustee may presume such beneficiary died without a will.

4.2. Except as otherwise provided, income payments shall be made in quarterly or monthly installments as may be convenient to the beneficiary entitled to them. While a beneficiary is under a legal disability or, in the trustee's opinion, in any way is incapacitated so as to be unable to manage his or her financial affairs, the trustee may make payments of income or discretionary payments of principal to the beneficiary by making them directly to him or her, or to a relative or friend of the beneficiary for his or her benefit, or in such other manner as the trustee deems best for the benefit of the beneficiary.

4.3. The interests of the beneficiaries in principal or income shall not be subject in any way to the claims of their creditors or others, and may not be voluntarily or involuntarily alienated or encumbered.

4.4. In reference to the trust property, including each of the separate funds withheld from distribution as provided above, the trustee, subject only to the limitations expressly provided in this instrument, shall have the following powers and rights in addition to those vested in it elsewhere in this instrument or by law:

(a) To manage, sell, contract to sell, grant options to purchase, convey, exchange, transfer, abandon, improve, repair, insure, lease for any term even though commencing in the future or extending beyond the term of the trusts and otherwise deal with all property, real or personal, in such manner, for such considerations, and on such terms and conditions as the trustee shall decide.

(b) To retain, invest and reinvest the trust property in stocks, bonds, mortgages, notes or other property of any kind, real or personal, and irrespective of rules of law, and any investment made or retained by the trustee in good faith shall be proper although not of a kind or constituting a diversification considered by law suitable for trust investments.

(c) To borrow money for any purpose on such terms as it considers proper, and to mortgage or pledge any trust property;

(d) To compromise, contest, arbitrate or abandon claims or demands, all in its discretion.

(e) To have with respect to trust property all the rights of an individual owner, including the power to give proxies, to participate in voting trusts, mergers, consolidations, reorganizations or liquidations, and to exercise or sell stock subscription or conversion rights.

(f) To hold securities or other property in the name of a nominee or in such other manner as the trustee deems best with or without disclosing the trust relationship.

(g) To employ agents and counsel and to delegate to them such of its powers as it considers desirable.

(h) To divide or distribute trust property in undivided interests or in kind or partly in money and partly in kind at such valuations as it considers fair, and to sell property for the purpose of making division or distribution.

(i) To pay all taxes and all reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred in the administration of the trusts hereby created, including compensation to the trustee and its agents and counsel.

(j) To purchase property from, sell property or make unsecured or secured loans to, or otherwise deal without restriction with the executor, trustee or other representative of any trust or estate in which any beneficiary has any interest, even though the trustee be such executor, trustee or representative, without liability for loss or depreciation resulting therefrom.

(k) To perform any and all other acts in its judgment necessary or appropriate for the proper and advantageous management, investment and distribution of the trust property.

4.5. The share of stock or other evidenced of interest in, or indebtedness of, O'Bryan Brothers, Inc., an Illinois corporation, and any other corporation or corporations succeeding to the business of said corporation by consolidation, merger, purchase of assets, or otherwise, are referred to below as "family securities," and I consider family securities as proper investments of the trust property, even though they may constitute a considerable portion or all of the trust property.

4.6. A committee hereby is established with respect to the trusts created by this instrument, of which I committed my brother, L.L. O'Bryan, initially shall be the sole member. If at any time my said brother fails or ceases to act as such sole committee member, then my wife, Mae H. O'Bryan, shall become and be the sole member of the Committee. If at any time both my said brother and my wife fail or cease to act as such sole committee member, then such of my children as from time to time are living, competent and willing to act shall become and be the members of the committee. Each person named or designated as a member of the committee shall become and remain such as long as he or she is living, competent and willing to act, and as long as any one or more of the persons named or designated above are so acting, the following provisions shall be applicable where the context admits:

(a) The trustee shall issue proxies to vote all family securities from time to time forming a part of the trust property to or upon the written order of the committee. In no event shall the trustee be liable for the manner in which family securities may be voted pursuant to any such proxies.

(b) The trustee shall make purchases, pledges, sales or other dispositions of family securities only as the committee may direct. The trustee shall follow all such direction by the committee, except the trustee first shall satisfy itself in the case of purchase that the purchase price is not more, and in the case of sale that the sale price is not less, than the fair market value of the family securities to be purchased or sold as determined by the trustee.

(c) The trustee shall entrust to the committee the management and control, including leasing and renting, of any real estate forming a part of the trust property and the trustee shall not be obliged to inquire into the upkeep, condition and protection of any such real estate. No person dealing with the committee shall be obliged to see to the application of any rental money paid to the committee or to see that the terms of the trust hereby created have been complied with.

(d) Except as provided in subparagraphs (b) and (c) of this paragraph 4.6, the trustee shall not have any responsibility in connection with the retention, purchase, pledge, sale or other disposition of family securities, or the management, control, renting and leasing of any real estate forming a part of the trust property.

(e) The rights and powers herein conferred upon the committee shall be exercisable by the committee only in a fiduciary capacity in the interests of the beneficiaries hereunder. Any action or decision of the majority of the members of the committee shall be

S.J. O'Bryan at the time of so signing to be of sound mind.
