

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

EDWIN JACKSON

I, Edwin Jackson, a resident of Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me.

I

I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and the costs of administration be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my death.

II

The balance of my property, whether real, personal, or mixed, is to be converted to cash by my Personal Representative and after the payment of all claims, etc., the balance remaining is to be divided as follows: To Virginia Pate, 20%; to Louise Harris, 20%; to Eula Fendelton, 20%; to Mary Elizabeth Thompson, 20%; to Judy Jackson, 4%; to Larry Jackson, 4%; to Eddie Jackson 4%; to Joyce Ann Jackson, 4%, to Virgil Jackson, Jr., 4%; provided, however, that the issue of any of the heirs named hereinabove shall take per stirpes and in fee the share of their deceased ancestor.

III

I hereby designate and appoint Harry L. Dhonau of Cloverport, Kentucky, to be the executor of this my last will and testament, and I further request that no surety be required on his bond as such, and I further vest my said executor or his assigns, with full power and authority to sell, transfer and convey any property, real or personal, which I may own at the time of my death at such time and upon such price and terms as he may deem fit and proper, and to do every other thing and act necessary or appropriate to the complete administration of this my last will, including the signing of any deeds or instruments of conveyance.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto subscribed my name on this the 27 day of January, 1960.

/s/ Edwin Jackson

The foregoing instrument, consisting of this and one (1) preceding typewritten page, was signed, and declared by Edwin Jackson, the testator, to be his last will and testament in our presence, and we, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses, this the 27 day of January, 1960, at Cloverport, Kentucky.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, Earl Harned, and Bessie Harned, and Bessie Harned, husband and wife, of Custer, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, each being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be our joint and last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills heretofore made by either of us.

ITEM I: We direct that all the just debts and funeral expenses of the one predeceasing the other be paid as soon as practicable after the death of said decedent and out of said decedent's estate.

ITEM II: We hereby give, devise and bequeath to the one surviving the other all the residue and remainder of the property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description and wheresoever situate, of the other, to the survivor, to have and to hold the same to his or her use and benefit for and during his or her natural life, or until such time as said survivor remarries, with full and complete power, during said time, to use and control said property in such manner as he or she may deem best, and, whenever in the option of said survivor it is necessary or advisable to do so, to sell at public or private sale, at such prices and upon such terms of credit or otherwise, as he or she may deem best, the whole or any part of the real or personal property, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds or other proper instruments of conveyance thereof to the purchaser or purchasers, and such purchaser shall not be required to look to the application of the proceeds.

ITEM III: After the death of the survivor, provided said survivor has not remarried, we give, devise and bequeath the remainder and balance of said estate not used up by the survivor for his or her use and benefit, to our four children, namely: Harold E. Harned, Wilma H. Ganote, Victor L. Harned, and Odell H. Blair, jointly and equally, absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM IV: Provided, however, if said survivor shall re-marry, then, immediately upon the happening of that event, the interest hereinabove devised to said survivor in the real property shall cease and determine at once, the same as if said survivor were then deceased, and said survivor shall then receive one-half interest absolutely in the then remainder of said decedent's personal property, and said real estate and the other remaining one-half interest in said personal property shall pass to and vest immediately in our four children above named, share and share alike, absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM V: The one surviving the other is hereby appointed executor of executrix of the other, as the case may be, and it is requested that no bond be required of such executor or executrix.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands, this the 1st day of May, 1954.

WILL OF HUBERT CHAPPELL

I, Hubert Chappell, of Ouster, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking all others here-to-fore made.

ITEM ONE - I desire all of my just debts and funeral expenses paid.

ITEM TWO - To my son, Junior Edward Chappell, I will and bequeath my two farms known as the Henry Hoskinson farm and the Ova Morris farm.

ITEM THREE - To my daughter, Margaret Cecil, I will and bequeath my two farms known as the Frank Bruner farm and the Dock Oliver farm; Also Five Hundred Dollars in cash. I give this Five Hundred Dollars to Margaret because I believe the farms willed to my son are worth this much more than the ones willed to Margaret.

ITEM FOUR - To my wife, Nancy Chappell, I will and bequeath our home place of Twenty Acres - known as the Tom Cann farm - so long as she shall live, but she shall not sell this farm. At her death I direct that this farm, or the proceeds therefrom, be equally divided between my two above mentioned children. I also will and bequeath to my wife, Nancy Chappell, all of the balance of my property of whatever nature and kind and wherever situated - this to be hers to use absolutely at her own discretion.

ITEM FIVE - I herein direct that my son, Junior Edward Chappell, be appointed executor of my estate, and that he be allowed to serve without the execution of bond.

Witness my hand this June 30, 1961.

AUSTIN BEAVIN, SR., WILL

I, Austin Beavin Sr., a resident of Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me.

I

I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and the costs of administration of my estate be paid out of the said estate as soon as practicable after the time of my death.

II

I hereby give, devise and bequeath to Paul Beavin and Richard T. Carter, joint trustees, a one-seventh of my net estate, less any sums owned to me by Austin Beavin, Jr., in trust, for the use and benefit of the said Austin Beavin, Jr., to be used by the joint trustees as their sole discretion dictates.

III

All of the property which I may own, or have the right to dispose of, at the time of my death, whether real, personal, or mixed, tangible or intangible, and wheresoever situated, I hereby give, devise and bequeath in equal shares among my children: Patrick Albert Beavin, Clara Mae Kuhl, Paul Beavin, Dorothy A. Carter, Georgia Catherine Seales, and Doris Jean Lottes, who survive me; provided, however, that the issue of any deceased child shall take per stirpes and in fee, the share of their deceased ancestor, and provided further that the method of distribution of my estate by my executors named hereinafter, shall be in this fashion: After the appraisal of my estate, I direct that my executors shall distribute any portion of my personal property to any of the heirs upon the said heirs' written request, and the personal property so taken shall be valued at the appraisal price; I further direct that any indebtedness of any heir shall be cancelled as a portion of his share of the estate and then my executors shall convert the balance of my estate to cash and distribute among the heirs; the balance of their share as hereinabove provided for, less the value of the personal property taken in kind and the indebtedness to me so cancelled.

IV

I hereby designate and appoint my son, Paul Beavin of Cloverport, Kentucky and my son-in-law, Richard T. Carter, of Cloverport, Kentucky, to be the joint executors of this my last will and testament, and I further request that no surety be required on their bonds as such, and I further vest my executors or either of them so qualifying, with full power and authority to sell, transfer and convey any property, real or personal, which I may own at the time of my death at such time and upon such price and terms as he or they may deem fit and proper, and to do everything and act necessary or appropriate to the complete administration of this my last will. In the event that either of the said named executors should not qualify, it is my request that the other shall serve as sole executor.

I, Roscoe Hendry, of Route 2, Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me.

I

I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and the costs of administration be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my death.

II

I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Ida Theresa Dutsohke Hendry, all my interest in all of the real estate that I own or have any interest in which lies in Breckinridge County Kentucky, for and during the term of her natural life, granting unto her the right to convey, or otherwise to dispose of any of the property as devised to her in this item that she may deem necessary in order to either protect my estate or provide for her wants and needs during the term of her natural life, and upon her death the said property shall be divided equally among our children, Wickliff B. Hendry, Mildred E. Hendry Pile, Louise E. Hendry Doda, and Juanita M. Hendry Yates, who survive either myself or the life tenant whichever may live the longer, however, in the event any child or children should fail to survive either me or the life tenant, whichever lives the longer, the issue of said deceased child or children surviving myself or the life tenant shall take per stirpes and in fee the share of their deceased ancestor.

III

I hereby give and bequeath the sum of $5,000.00 to each of my children as named in Item II herein, said sum to be paid from the personal property of my estate and I direct my Executrix to distribute the said bequest either in cash or in kind at her sole discretion; and it being understood that this bequest is not subject to the conditions of the said children surviving me, but on the contrary is made to them absolutely and upon their failure to survive me shall go to the estate of any child not surviving me.

IV

The rest and residue of my estate, whether real, personal or mixed, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Ida Theresa Dutsohke Hendry, for and during the term of her natural life, granting unto her the right to dispose of any of the property so devised and bequeathed under this residuary clause to her that she may deem necessary in order to either protect my estate or provide for her wants and needs during the term of her natural life, and upon her death the said property shall be divided equally among our children, as identified in Item II of this will, who survive me either myself or the life tenant whichever may live the longer, however, in the event any child or children should fail to survive me or the life tenant, whichever lives the longer, the issue of said deceased children or child, surviving myself or the life tenant shall take per stirpes and in fee the share of their deceased ancestor.

V

I hereby request that my daughter, Mildred E. Hendry Pile, of Louisville, Kentucky, be appointed as the Executrix of this my last will and testament and I further request that no bond be required of her as such, and I further request that she be empowered with the authority to dispose of any of the property in the estate upon such prices and terms and conditions as she at her sole discretion may determine and to execute such instruments as are necessary to carry out the powers so granted.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name to this my last will and testament, consisting of this and three (3) additional typewritten pages, and for the purpose of identification, I have initialed each such page, all in the presence of the persons witnessing it at my request, on this the 14 day of August, 1962.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, Forest Carter and Gola Carter, husband and wife, of Custer, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, each being of full age and of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our joint and last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other Wills heretofore made by either of us.

ITEM I: We direct that all of the just debts and funeral expenses of the one predeceasing the other be paid as soon as practicable after the death of said decedent.

ITEM II. Thereafterwards, we give, devise, and bequeath to the one surviving the other, all of the residue and remainder of the property, real, personal, and mixed, of every kind whatsoever, and wheresoever, situate, of the other, to the survivor, absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM III. The one surviving the other is hereby appointed executor or executrix, as the case may be, of the other, and it is requested that no bond be required of said executor or executrix, nor that any inventory or appraisement be made of said estate, in so far as the same may be lawfully omitted.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands, this the 22nd day of July 1957.

Forest Carter
Gola Carter

Signed and acknowledged by Forest Carter and Gola Carter, husband and wife, as and for the Joint and Last Will and Testament, in our presence, and by us subscribed as attesting witnesses thereto, at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other.

ERNEST W. THOMPSON, WILL

I, Ernest W. Thompson, of McDaniels, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other Wills heretofore made by me.

ITEM I: I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate after the time of my decease.

ITEM II: I desire to leave to my daughter, Jane Thompson, a home, consequently, I give, devise and bequeath to Jane Thompson, all of that part of my farm which lies on the East side of the Coppera Lick Hollow, except a tenant house and lot of ground which it occupies located on the highway, which I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Elizabeth Rader. The above described property devised to Jane Thompson, includes the farm buildings and approximately 25 or 30 acres of land, except the tenant house which occupies approximately 1 acre of land that is now enclosed by a fence.

ITEM III: All of the balance of my real estate, I give, devise and bequeath to my children, share and share alike, except my daughter, Jane Thompson, who shall not share in the balance of the farm.

ITEM IV: I give, devise and bequeath all of the remainder of my property, both real and personal, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease, to my children, share and share alike.

ITEM V: In the event any of my children, all of whom are now living, should pre-decease me, I give, devise, and bequeath that child's portion of my estate, to the then children of that deceased child, and in the event any of my children should pre-decease me, and leaving no children, I direct that that child's portion of my estate be equally divided among my remaining children.

I make, nominate and appoint my son, William A. Thompson, to be the executor of this my last Will and Testament, without bond and without inventory or appraisement of my estate in so far as the same may be omitted by law.

Witness my hand this the 1st day of May, 1961.

/s/ Ernest W. Thompson

Signed and acknowledged by Ernest W. Thompson, as his last Will and Testament, in our presence, who at his request, have signed our names as attesting witnesses thereto, in his presence and in the presence of each other.
