I, William Edward Carrell, of Louisville, Kentucky, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other and former Wills and Codicils herebefore made by me.

ITEM I

I direct that all my just and lawful debts, funeral expenses, including cost of a suitable monument, and testamentary expenses be paid as soon after my death as may be practical and convenient to my Executor.

ITEM II

I direct that any transfer, estate or inheritance taxes that may be payable on any property taxable to my estate, whether passing under the terms of this my Last Will and Testament or otherwise, shall nevertheless be paid out of the residuary of my estate.

ITEM III

I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mabel Virginia Carrell, if she survives me, all of the right, title and interest that I may have at the time of my death in our house and the land on which it is located known as #5 Hilltop Court, Louisville, Kentucky, or if we have moved to another home subsequent to the execution of this Will, in house and land. The same shall be hers absolutely and in fee simple. If, however, she should predecease me or die within thirty (30) days of my death, then and in that event, the same shall become the absolute property in fee simple of my son, William Edward Carrell, II.

ITEM IV

I give, devise and bequeath, IN TRUST, to my friend, Edward L. Ornstein of Louisville, Kentucky, if he survives me, any interest that I may have at the time of my death in the real estate and improvements thereon known as the Rio Theater, Cloverport, Kentucky. This trust shall be for the sole benefit of my two grandchildren, William Edward Carrell III, and Christopher Gaines Carrell, the children of my son William. My said Trustee, Edward L. Ornstein, shall manage, operate and control said theater property and after the payment of all expenses and cost of administration, he shall pay the portion of the net income that would otherwise be mine, annually or oftener in his discretion, to the legal guardian or parents of my two said grandchildren, equally, or if one of said grandchildren should predecease me or die before attaining the age of twenty-one, to the survivor thereof. Upon the youngest of said two grandchildren attaining the age of twenty-one, the trust shall terminate and the corpus and any undistributed accumulations shall be divided equally by my said Trustee among my said two grandchildren or the survivor thereof. If at the time of my death, both of my grandchildren have attained age twenty-one or if one has predeceased me and the survivor is of the age of twenty-one, then and only in that event this trust shall not come into being and my undivided interest in said theater property shall go to said grandchildren equally, or to the survivor thereof, free of trust.

During the pendency of the trust, it is my direction that Ed Ornstein shall have unrestricted power and authority to operate, manage, lease, or otherwise handle said theater property as in his judgment is to the best interest of all concerned and his actions or decisions with reference thereto shall not be subject to the control of either my grandchildren

or their parents or to judicial coercion. If at any time during the existence of said trust, it shall be the conclusion of my said Trustee that the theater property should be sold, then he shall have the authority to sell the same at the best price that he can obtain and upon such terms as he thinks proper and he is empowered and authorized to execute, without obtaining court authority the necessary deed and other title papers. Because of the confidence that I have reposed in Ed Ornstein and the fact that he is also a part owner of said theater property, I desire that he be given the preference in purchasing the theater property over anyone else and if during the pendency of the trust, he should conclude to purchase the trust interest in said theater property, then he may sell it to himself at a price agreed upon in writing between my son, William, and Mrs. Ornstein, and in the event they are unable to agree upon the value or terms of sale, then and only in that event, my son shall appoint an unbiased arbitrator, Ed Ornstein shall appoint an unbiased arbitrator and the two shall have the authority to determine the price and the terms upon which the undivided interest shall be sold to Ed Ornstein if he desires to buy. If the two cannot reach an agreement, they shall select a third arbitrator and if they fail to agree, then the Senior Judge of the Jefferson Circuit Court, Chancery Division, shall have the authority upon the application of one or both of the two arbitrators to make said appointment. I urge my son and my grandchildren to cooperate with Ed Ornstein, for I repose great faith and confidence in him.

ITEM V

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of every kind and character, both real, personal and mixed, (including lapsed legacies and devises), I devise and bequeath, IN TRUST.

to my son, WILLIAM EDWARD CARRELL II, to hold, manage, invest and reinvest and to collect the income thereof and to pay out of said net income, annually or oftener, in his discretion, Threes Hundred ($300.00) Dollars per month to my beloved wife, MABEL VIRGINIA CARRELL, if she survives me, so long as she may live. If the income is inadequate to meet said monthly payments then my son is directed to use such portion of corpus as may be necessary with which to make the aforesaid monthly payments to my wife. Upon the death of my wife, the trust herein created for her benefit shall terminate and all of the corpus of said trust and any and all undistributed accumulations shall go absolutely and in fee simple to my beloved son, WILLIAM EDWARD CARRELL II, if he is then living, otherwise, equally, share and share alike, to my two aforesaid grandchildren, WILLIAM EDWARD CARRELL III and CHRISTOPHER BAINES CARRELL, or the survivor thereof. If my beloved wife should predecease me, then the trust provided for herein shall not come into being and the estate that would have gone in trust for her shall go absolutely and in fee simple to my aforesaid son if he is then living, otherwise to his children, share and share alike, or the survivor thereof.

ITEM VI

In the management, care and disposition of my estate and of the trusts that I have created, I confer upon the Executor of this Will and the Trustees of each and every trust created by this will and the successors of the trustees, or executor, in addition to the powers and authorities conferred upon executors and trustees generally by the laws of Kentucky, the further power to do and perform all things deemed necessary or proper by said trustees or executor, all of which may be exercised without order of or report to court, including the investment, reinvestment, exchange, sale, pledging or mortgaging of real or personal property.

I further direct that my executor and trustees of the various trusts herein created shall be authorized to sell, transfer and dispose of any and all of my property without court order to the same extent as if I in person were transferring or disposing of same. ## WILLIAM L. LAMPTON, WILL

I, WILLIAM L. LAMPTON, of SeSree, Kentucky being of sound mind and memory but in feeble health and recognizing the fact that our lives are uncertain and wighting to reward those who have been kind to me during my declining days do hereby make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament; That is:

Item

It is my will that all my just debts be paid out of my estate as soon as the same may reasonably be done after my death.

Item

From my reading I am informed that a testator should be mentally able to make a rational survey of his estate and to dispose of the same by will according to a fixed purpose of his own. This I have done. I have for many months suffered from a broken hip which does not heal rendering me a helpless invalid and confining me to a wheel chair at such times as I am out of bed. I have been impressed by the indifference of my blood relations, very few of whom have even taken the trouble to visit me. I have no brothers or sisters and therefore no nephews or nieces by blood. All relatives of mine are distant and none have ever been in close contact with me. However, I have some friends, whom I have known for many years, residing near me. During my illness and invalidism they have cooked my food, done my washing and taken me into their home and in every way ministered to me rendering my life as comfortable as it could possibly be under the conditions. I therefore give devise and bequeath to William Goo tee and his wife Ethel Goo tee in equal portions and in fee simple all the residuum of my property both Real and Personal, without regard to its value or location without any exception of any sort.

Item

I hereby make nominate and appoint William Goo tee executor of this my last will and testament and I request that no bond be required of him as such in so far as the same may lawfully be omitted.

IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED by the Court that the said Last Will and Testament of said decedent be, and the same is hereby admitted to probate and the Clerk of this Court is directed to record said Will and the testimony of said witness in the proper record of Wills and to certify the same to be a complete record thereof.

/s/ Morris S. Merrill
Morris S. Merrill, Judge
Vanderburgh Probate Court

Said Will is as follows, to-wit:

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF
ANNETTE BRIGHTMAN CLEMENTS

I, ANNETTE BRIGHTMAN CLEMENTS, now residing in the city of Evansville, in Vanderburgh County, in the State of Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and well aware of the natural objects of my bounty, do hereby make, publish, ordain and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and cancelling all prior wills and codicils thereto by me heretofore made:

ITEM ONE: I direct my Executor to settle my estate as promptly as in his discretion may appear advisable in consonance with a maximum realization from the assets of my estate. In connection with such settlement I direct my executor to pay all of my just debts, including all funeral and burial costs and expenses of my last illness, the costs and expenses of administering and settling my estate, and the balance due upon any subscriptions made by me. I direct my Executor to pay all estate, inheritance and succession or other taxes, whether state or federal, which may be assessed as the result of my death, with respect to the value of any property, which term shall be construed as including insurance and all interests of any type in property, without regard to whether such property passes under this will or whether such taxes be payable by my estate or by the recipient of such property. All such taxes shall be paid out of my general estate as part of the expenses of the administration thereof and shall not be charged against the recipient of such property or any beneficiary or beneficiaries under this will, other than the beneficiaries of the residue of my general estate.

ITEM TWO: I give unto my Executor full power to complete any and all contracts made by me during my life with respect to any property of whatsoever nature, real, personal, or mixed, and wheresoever situated; to sell, at private sale, and lease, mortgage, exchange or otherwise dispose of, all or any part of the property in my estate, real or personal, upon such terms as my Executor deems advisable, including the power to execute deeds, assignments and other instruments in writing of whatsoever nature, and to acknowledge and deliver the same, when necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers herein granted; or to retain any such property, in her sole discretion, for ultimate distribution or later disposition pursuant thereto, and to compromise, settle or abandon any claims in favor of or against my estate, and in general to do all things which my Executor deems necessary, or advisable, in the property and efficient administration of my estate; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the powers and authority herein granted and conveyed to my Executor shall not be construed as any limitation upon the powers of my Executor but shall be in addition to the powers conferred upon him by law. Anything to the contrary here in notwithstanding, I direct, if it shall prove necessary or expedient in the opinion of my Executor to sell any property of my estate for any purpose, that, before such property is offered for sale to others, my said husband shall have the opportunity to purchase said property at its appraised value as shown by the inventory of my estate filed in connection with the administration thereof. All such powers bestowed on my Executor may be exercised without first obtaining the approval of any court in the premises. However, it is not intended by this subsection to deny the jurisdiction of any court in respect to any controversy involving my estate. All powers bestowed on my Executor hereunder shall be applicable to any executrix, successor executrix or administratrix with the will annexed of this will to the same extent as they are made expressly applicable to my Executor.

ITEM THREE: In the event that, at the time of my death, I am the owner, of, or joint owner or co-owner of any real estate, of a bank account, or a government bond, or any security or instrument of indebtedness, whether issued by a private corporation, by a government or governmental agency, or by an individual, which is registered or issued in my name and that of another person or persons as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with the right of survivorship, or which is shown in writing to be payable to either the co-owner or named survivor, or which in any way appears to be payable to either the co-owner or named survivor on my death, I give, devise and bequeath, absolutely and forever, all my right, title and interest in any such real estate, bank account, government bond, security, or instrument of indebtedness to the surviving joint owner or co-owner thereof, or to the one apparently entitled thereto upon my death. It is my understanding that my right, title or interest in any such real estate, bank account, government bond, security, or instrument of indebtedness will, by operation of law upon my death, vest in or pass to such surviving joint owner or co-owner thereof or other survivor apparently entitled thereto. Nevertheless, I make these provisions in this item in order to eliminate any doubt or question as to the right of any such surviving joint owner or co-owner to succeed to the full possession and ownership of such real estate, bank account, government bond, security or instrument of indebtedness upon my death, and to provide for the possible contingency of an ineffective attempt to create a joint tenancy or estate by the entirety.

ITEM FOUR: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved husband, RAYMOND PROTES CLEMENTS, absolutely, if he survives me by the period of thirty (30) days. Should he not survive me by such period of thirty (30) days, then I give, devise and bequeath the said property to my beloved step-daughter, MARGARET PATRICIA CRADDOCK, usually known as PEGGY CRADDOCK, or to her issue should she predecease me.

ITEM FIVE: I nominate, constitute and appoint my said husband, RAYMOND PROTES CLEMENTS, as Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament. In case of the death, resignation, refusal or inability of my said husband to act as such Executor, I then name and appoint my Step-daughter's husband, MELVILLE CRADDOCK, as Executor, and request that my said Executor employ James M. Buthod, of Evansville, Indiana, as attorney for my said estate. Having been fully advised with respect to the provisions of our present law regarding bonds required of executors, I request, nevertheless, that the persons named herein be permitted to serve without bond, whenever and whenever the applicable law so permits, and if this is not possible, that such bond be fixed at the lowest possible amount under the practice of the court having jurisdiction of my estate, and I hereby bind my heirs and legatees to the approval of any bond so authorized.

EVELYN BEARD SKILLMAN,
LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

March 21, 1958.

I made this out first in 1952, but since then more grandchildren have been born so I've decided to leave each of the 4 families the things, then they can divide them with their children, there are a few exceptions.

Since Bob was given more acres in his farm in the first place than the rest of no had, and John Edwards has sold his part, I am leaving my part to Allen and Charlie. The home is to be on Allen's part. I have a paid up Insurance policy in the lock box, that I kept to pay my funeral expenses, I hope it will be enough, and if I have any money or bonds left, divide it equally with you 4 boys - regardless whose name might be on the bond.

Mary Evelyn is the only grandchild named for me, so I want her to have my diamond ring, to be given to her to wear when she is 21, I want her to be old enough to take care of it.

Joan to have Mrs. Skillman's diamond ring. Barbara to have Mrs. Skillman's ring with the old fashioned setting.

Nancy to have my bar pin, I promised it to her when she was little. Betty Sue to have Mrs. Skillman's pearl brooch (Mrs. S. Jewelry is in the top buffet drawer) John to have John's little watch & tie clasp & pin. Lillian to have GrandMother Mercer's picture. Lillian gave me my television, so ask her what to do with it.

Give Mama's picture to Lillian, if she wants it, also Oaks stand with stem in the china closet - it was Grandma Beard's.

John Edwards and family-

Corner Book shelves and Black floor lamp Walnut dresser, wash stand, table, oak chair and rocker that goes with it, 2 big figurines, 2 walnut picture frames, round dining table buffet, large Samsonite bag, blue wool electric blanket, 8 compotes, large hand painted oak plate, silver syrup stand, cut glass relish dish, green flowered tea set, glass plates I etched, light blue coverlet, silk comforter, 1 Doz salad forks, cut glass vase with stem, 1/2 doz. cups & saucers, divided dish with handle, silver fruit bowl, black stool, Samsonite train case, 6 salad plates, cut glass celery dish - silver cream & sugar-silver oyster forks, mahogany clock, electric skillet, small plate with violets on it, knives and forks.

Charlie and family.

Mrs. Skillman's dinner set, glass fruit bowl with stem, Vaseline glass water set, large cut glass vase, 1 doz. tea spoons marked "Evelyn" antique glasses, cedar chest, big floor lamp, mahogany rocker that was done over, automatic gun, 2 walnut picture frames, bookcase, you already have, toaster, mirror matic, iron and all the things Chas. sent me from over seas- red needle point stool, antique cedar stand - child's wash set, (its an antique)- John's desk - little radio (for boys room)-white bed spread - crystal vase, sweater - electric heater, dark blue coverlet large oak plate with grapes - small plates with grapes - the Mexican plate Mamie gave me, 2 small dark Olson rugs..- large punch ladle, 6 chin pie plates.

Bob and family -

Mahogany set and the two chairs that match, hutch, rose color needle point stool - 1/2 doz. cut glass glasses, 1/2 doz. salad plates - cut glass relish dish, 8 compotes, aluminum pitchers & glasses, Round table that was done over, 6 china cups & saucers (with leaves) 12 odd sterling silver spoons 6 pie plates, silver berry ladle, little table with drawer, it was done over, 1 doz. tea spoons, marked "S" (for Joan) cut glass bowl and water bottle, maple chair, ice tea glasses that change color, table lamp that's in the guest room - dishes with red flowers. Milk glass fruit bowl, silver chest - peach color candle with bed spread - large black plate that has colored flowers on it, 6 soup spoons marked "S", Blue wool blanket, straight chair with cane seat.

Allen and family.

Mahogany bed room furniture, large Olson rug, 2 oval Olson rugs - cut glass pitcher- (the rest of you have yours) 1/2 doz cut glass glasses, pressure canner, cake plate with swan on it, needle point pictures, coffee maker, blue bed spread Allen gave me, 2 picture frames, walnut table with a drawer - needle point chair (rocker) copper baltong skillet - lace table cloth - china closet tall slender glass pitcher - small floor lamp - John's picture that was painted over seas, Ky. plate - small plat on wall, has two girls on it - 2 lace edge plates - 1/2 doz. compotes - antique boney dish and spoon holder, electric mixer, - walnut chairs with plastic seats.

I know there are dishes and silver that I haven't mentioned, and anything any of you have given me, jewelry, or other things, you take it - and divide the bed cloths and table linens. I didn't mention the freezer, refrigerator, apartment size cook stove or the davenport - they are big articles and I didn't know who needed them, so please decide on this yourselves, and please settle it all in a way that any of you can use, and anything you don't want, SELL or give to some one who needs them. I have so many towels and sheets a lot of things I can't even think of, divide them, give Lula something to remember me by. The clothes that no one wants I imagine the circles could give them to some one, and the cloths of John's that are in a box.

I can't think of anything else, please get along well together, it worries me that you don't.

With worlds of love for each,

Mother
