I, JAKE KENDALL, of Webster, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and good memory, and knowing the character and value of my property and duly and deliberately considering the natural objects of my bounty, that is my wife and two (2) children, and their relations to me, and revoking hereby a fixed purpose of my own and a well considered conclusion to so dispose of my property, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore by me made:

- 1: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.
- 2: All of the property, real and personal of every kind and description, wheresoever situated, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my death, I hereby give, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife, Hallie Kendall, during her natural life; and, after her death, I hereby give, bequeath and devise all of my said property, real, personal and mixed, to my son, A. L. Kendall of Chulavista, California, except the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, each, which I hereby give, devise, and bequeath at the death of my said wife, to my daughter, Jessie Kendall McLeish, of Irvington, Breckinridge County, Kentucky.

IN AS MUCH as there is an apparent discrimination in the devises and bequests herein made to my children, this sentence is meant to evidence the fact that I have reasons good and sufficient, in my opinion, to warrant such disposition of my property between my two children, herein deliberately made.

3: I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife, Hallie Kendall, to be executrix of this my last will, without bond; and, I further request that no inventory of my estate be made or taken in so far as the same may be lawfully admitted.

Dated at Webster, Kentucky, this 1st day of February, 1935,

WILL

-of-

GILBERT H. FILE

I, GILBERT H. FILE, do hereby make this my last will and testament, by it revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

FIRST: I desire that all my just debts, if any, be paid by my executor herein named as soon as may reasonably be done after my death, and that, unless I shall do so myself, said executor have a suitable monument erected at my cometery lot to be paid for out of my estate.

SECOND: My executor is directed to promptly pay to my wife, Emma File, the sum of Two Thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars in satisfaction of the amount agreed upon by us in our antenuptial contract as the amount she should receive out of my said estate, which shall be the full amount she shall receive from same, this being in accordance with a agreement made prior to our marriage.

THIRD: The remainder of my property of every kind, including both real and personal property, I divide into two portions: one portion being three-fifths thereof after the payment of the amounts heretofore set out, which three-fifths shall pass to my son, Raymond C. File, absolutely and without limitation; the other two-fifths shall pass as follows: an absolute estate in one-third of said two-fifths shall pass to my daughter, Mrs. Bettie Monarch, absolutely and in fee, the other two-thirds of said two-fifths of my estate after the payment of the sum provided in the first and second clauses herein shall pass to Raymond C.
File as trustee for said Mrs. Bettie Monarch to be held and invested by him in real property for her use and benefit, she to receive during her life the income therefrom or have the use of such lands so held in trust as may be agreed upon by them if they are able to agree, if not, then as may be determined by said trustee and he, said Raymond C. File, as trustee is hereby empowered to choose and select said investments of said funds in real property and have power to sell and dispose of such real property as such trustee as his judgment may dictate to him and to change such investments as he may deem advisable and he shall not be charged with any losses, if any, resulting from such investments. If I shall leave lands at the time of my death if my said daughter and my son named trustees herein are able to agree upon any portion thereof as an investment of the amount herein directed to be invested by him, same may be conveyed to him as trustee, she joining in the said conveyance to indicate her agreement thereto, to be held as herein provided. After her death said lands shall pass to her children in fee simple, or if any part of said trust fund is not then invested such fund shall pass to them absolutely. I make the difference herein between my said children because I believe this to be just by reason of the things heretofore done for and advancements made to my daughter.

FOURTH: I hereby appoint my son, Raymond C. File, as executor of this my last will and testament with power to him to sell and convey all of the real and personal property owned by me at the time of my death and request that he be permitted to qualify as such executor without the execution of bond and to so act as trustee without bond.
