PEARL BURTON, WILL

I, Pearl Burton, of Mystic, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made.

ITEM I. I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and costs of administration be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

ITEM II. To my son, John Burton, I hereby give and bequeath all of the residue and remainder of my personal estate, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease, absolutely, to do with as he pleases.

ITEM III. I hereby give and devise unto my three (3) children, namely, John Burton, Mary Jo Hirsch, and Georgia Roberts, individually, and to the said Mary Jo Hirsch as Trustee for my two (2) grand-children, namely, Jo Ann Burton and Richard Paul Burton, children of my deceased son, Byrd Burton, all of my title, interest and claim in and to the farm known as the "John Beauchamp Farm", located near Mystic, Kentucky, and now owned by my brother, W.H. Beauchamp, and my that is, a one-fourth (1/4) undivided interest to each of my said three children, individually, and a one-fourth (1/4) undivided interest to Trustee for said two grand-children, jointly.

ITEM IV. I request that no bond be required of the said Mary Jo Hirsch as such Trustee aforesaid. Further, said Trustee is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to join with the other devisees, as such trustee, whenever in her opinion it is necessary or proper and advisable to do so, in selling at public or private sale and for cash or upon such terms of credit or otherwise, as to her may seem best, the farm mentioned in Item III above, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver such deeds or instruments of conveyance, or instruments of lease, as may be deemed necessary or proper, as such trustee. The proceeds of any such sale or lease to be held by her as such trustee and invested and reinvested by her from time to time, as she may deem best, and the income therefrom, together with such part of the principal, if any, as she may think proper, may be used for the support and education of said two grand-children. When said children (grand-children) shall reach the age of twenty-one (21) years, said trustee shall pay over and distribute to each of them, out of the remainder then in her hands, the sum or amount so due each of them; and, if either of said two wards shall be deceased at that time, without leaving bodily heirs, his or her interest shall be paid over to the survivor.

ITEM V. I hereby nominate and appoint my said son, John Burton, to be the Executor of this my last will and testament, and I request that no bond be required of him as such.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, this the 31 day of July, 1965.

WILL OF J. ESTES HART

I, J. Estes Hart, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, as follows:

First: - I hereby direct that my funeral expenses including the cost of a double monument for my wife and me, and the payment of all just debts which I may owe at the time of my death, after debts have been proven in the manner provided by law, to be first paid out of my estate.

Second: - I give, bequeath and devise to my wife, Fula Hart, the two houses and lots which I own in Grayson County, Kentucky, between Leitchfield and Clarkson, and all furniture and furnishings, and the family automobile.

Third: - I give, bequeath and devise to my son John Wilson Hart my farm in Breckinridge County, Kentucky, known as the Dan Hicks Farm.

Fourth: - I give, bequeath and devise to my daughter, Virginia Seammon, the undivided one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) interest which I own in the farm known as the John Moore farm in Breckinridge County, Kentucky, the other undivided one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of which is owned by my son John Wilson Hart.

Fifth: - All of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate of every kind, including a paid-up insurance policy payable to my estate, shall be reduced to cash by my executor of this will, and be deposited in the Bank of Clarkson, and after all debts against me and my estate, including funeral expenses, have been fully paid, the amount then remaining if any, shall pass absolutely to my said wife, Fula Hart.

Sixth: - I hereby nominate and appoint my son, John Wilson Hart, as executor of my estate according to this will, and no bond shall be required of him as such, and I further direct that my long-time friend, Allen P. Cubbage, shall serve as attorney for said executor in the settlement of my estate, and as legal advisor in the administration of my estate.

In testimony whereof I hereunto sign my name this January 13, 1962.
