I, William F. Burks, of Cloverport, County of Breckinridge and State of Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

ITEM I. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon as practical after the time of my decease.

ITEM II. I leave to my Executor the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars for investments, preferable in U.S. Savings interest bearing registered bond or bonds, the income therefrom to be used for the perpetual care of my burial lot and tomb in Calvary Cemetery. I desire that this care include not only its adornment and its upkeep in orderly condition, but also the protection and repair of the tombstones and monument in the lot. Also, the Executor of my estate is directed to arrange for the carving of the lettering of my gravestone and to pay for same out of the general funds of my estate.

I direct my Executor, hereinafter named, to use ($500.00) Five Hundred Dollars from my estate for stipends for Masses for the repose of the souls of myself and my wife, Josephine Burks. Also, Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars from my estate for stipends for Masses for the repose of the souls of my father, Jerry M. This bequest or gift of mine from my estate is made with the distinct understanding that if it cannot be accepted for the use and benefit of the congregation known as St. Rose Church of Cloverport, Kentucky, then, in that event, the said $4,000.00 is to be placed in an insured trust for five years, at the end of which time the said $4,000.00 bequest shall be null, void and forfeited and distributed to my heirs at law. The Bishop of the Owensboro Diocese shall decide the best use for which this bequest can be spent for the church or school of St. Rose.

ITEM V. The first grave site of St. Rose Church was known as the McGaughan Graveyard lying about two miles southwest of Cloverport, on the Balltown road. The plot of ground was donated by members of the McGaughan family prior to 1900. Many of my people are buried there. The present cemetery known as Calvary Cemetery was purchased and developed by the late Father John S. Henry, a much beloved priest. I hereby will and bequeath the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars for investments, preferable in U.S. Savings interest bearing registered bond or bonds, the income therefrom to be used for the care of the McGaughan Graveyard site for a limited time of twenty years from the date of my decease, at which time and event the said $1,000.00 shall be given to St. Rose Church of Cloverport, Kentucky.

ITEM IX. I make, nominate and appoint Paul Lewis, Lamar Ryan and Carl Hagan, all of Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, joint Executors of this my last will and testament, with full power and authority in order to pay all debts and all the legacies heretofore given, and in order to carry and to execute all the provisions and purposes of this will, to sell and dispose of any or all of my estate, real or personal, or both, for such prices, and upon such terms of credit or otherwise, and in such manner as my Executors may deem best, and to execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers, all necessary or proper deeds and other instruments of conveyance and transfer thereof. I, TICE MCCOY, of West View, Breckenridge County, Kentucky, being of full age and of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills heretofore made.

ITEM I I direct that all my just debts, burial expenses, and costs of administration be paid as soon as practicable. I hereby set aside the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) for my funeral.

I further direct that all Kentucky inheritance taxes and all federal estate taxes that may be assessed against my estate or the beneficiaries thereof, and whether assessed on account of property passing under this Will or otherwise, be paid out of that portion of my estate passing under Item VI hereof, and that no contribution toward the payment of said taxes be required of persons inheriting under Items II, III, IV and V, hereof.

ITEM II I hereby give to my wife, SHELLIE MCCOY, in fee simple, all household furniture, furnishings, clothing, jewelry and other like personal or household articles. In the event my wife shall predecease me, then I give my Farm Bureau watch to my nephew, JAMES S.
CONDER, and all other articles herein referred to shall go in fee simple and per stirpes to the heirs of SHELLIE MCCOY, same to be determined as of the time of death of the last survivor of my wife and myself, and to be divided among them as they may agree.

I hereby give to my wife, SHELLIE MCCOY, in fee simple any automobile and all farm inventory, including but without being limited to all machinery, trucks, tractors, farm tools, equipment, cattle, live stock, feed and fodder owned by me or in which I had an interest. Should my wife predecease me, then all such articles are to be sold and the proceeds added to my residuary estate and disposed of in the manner set forth in Items III, IV, V and VI.

ITEM III All of the rest and residue of my estate, real and personal, I give and bequeath to CITIZENS FIDELITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY of Louisville, Kentucky, in trust, same to be held, managed and disposed of as follows:

(a) The entire net income therefrom shall be paid to or used for the benefit of my wife, SHELLIE MCCOY, so long as she shall live.

(b) If at any time during the lifetime of my wife the net income from this trust fund, when added to her net income from other sources and after her estate individually owned is substantially exhausted, is not sufficient to provide for her maintenance and health according to the station she enjoyed during my lifetime, then, in such event, the Trustee is directed to pay to or use for the benefit of my said wife such portion of the corpus of the trust fund as may be necessary to meet her requirements as above set forth.

ITEM IV Upon the death of my said wife, or upon my death, should she predecease me, or in the event the two of us shall die simultaneously, or as the result of a common disaster, then, in that event, the Trustee of the foregoing trust shall proceed to convert all of said trust assets into cash and said cash realized shall be disposed of
as follows:

(a) To VERNIE LAMPTON, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash.

To BERNICE CONDER, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash.

To VINNIE MOORE, the sum of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00) in cash.

To IRENE RAMSEY REYNOLDS, the sum of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00) in cash.

Should any of the foregoing not be then living, the bequest to the one or ones so dying shall be paid in fee simple to her issue then living, per stirpes.

(b) To LATTA GANNAWAY, the sum of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars
($7,500.00) in cash.

Should he not be living, this bequest shall lapse and the amount thereof pass as part of my residuary estate in the manner provided in Item VI hereof.

(c) I give and bequeath the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) to each of the following named farm helpers, or to their personal representative should any of them predecease the last survivor of my wife and myself, and who have been with me ten (10) years or more at the time of the death of said last survivor. In computing service, only service after January 1, 1952 shall count. Said farm helpers are RAYMOND TUCKER, LOYD WHITWORTH and JOHN KING. Also, I give to EVERETT MATTINGLY, or to his heirs-at-law should he predecease the last survivor of my wife and myself, the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) in cash.

(d) I give and bequeath to our former farm helper of 17 years, ROBERT TANNER, or his personal representative should he predecease the last survivor of my wife and myself, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash.

(e) I give and bequeath to CITIZENS FIDELITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY of Louisville, Kentucky, as Trustees, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) in trust for the following uses and purposes to wit:

(e-1) During the term of the trust, as hereinafter set forth, the Trustees shall pay the net income in equal shares to the Trustees of or shall use the net income for the benefit of ANTIQUITY CEMETERY, COYLE CEMETERY, HANGING ROCK CEMETERY, FAIRVIEW CEMETERY and IVY HILL CEMETERY, Hardinsburg, Kentucky. Should any of the foregoing five (5) cemeteries go out of existence or should there be no Board of Trustees of any cemetery to whom its share of the income can be paid and the income cannot be used for the benefit of the cemetery, then, in such event, the net income shall be divided and paid to the remaining cemeteries.

(e-2) This trust shall last for a period of fifty (50) years from the date of death of the last survivor of the two of us. Upon termination of the trust, the corpus of the trust fund shall be divided into as many portions as there are cemeteries then receiving the income therefrom and one portion thereof paid to each of said cemeteries.

(f) I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the FAIRVIEW CHURCH the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash. Said sum is to be invested by the Trustees and kept invested in good and safe securities, and the income therefrom is to be used for the spiritual life of said church, as follows: fifty percent (50%) for pastor's salary, thirty percent (30%) for benevolences, and twenty percent (20%) for upkeep of building. If, however, the church building should become damaged by the elements, such as fire, windstorm or hail, such parts of said Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) may be used for repair or construction for a new building, as said Trustees may deem necessary and proper. It is my desire and request that the Trustees of FAIRVIEW CHURCH be bonded.

(g) I now own forty-two (42) and a fraction shares of stock of The Farmers Bank, Hardinsburg, Kentucky. I direct that my Trustees to retain as a permanent investment during my wife's lifetime, if she survives me, whatever shares of the Farmers Bank, Hardinsburg, Kentucky, stock I may own at my death and at the death of the last survivor of my wife and myself to deliver said shares as follows:

eight (8) shares to MARY HAZEL MATTINGLY eight (8) shares to CATHERINE ASKINS eight (8) shares to MIRIAM SMITH eight (8) shares to LOWELL MACY ten (10) shares plus any fractional shares to PAUL L. PACE

Should the number of shares owned by me at my death, or by my Trustee at the time of the death of my wife, be less than forty-two (42) and a fraction shares, the bequest to each of the above named persons shall abate proportionately.

Should the number of shares owned by me at my death, or by my Trustee at the time of the death of my wife, be more than forty-two (42) and a fraction shares, the bequest to each of the above named persons shall be increased in the proportion that the shares bequeathed to him or to her bears to the total number of shares bequeathed.

Should any of the foregoing persons predecease the last survivor of my wife and myself, the shares bequeathed to the person so dying shall be divided among the surviving members of the group, each surviving member to receive the same proportionate part of the shares bequeathed to a deceased member as the number of shares bequeathed to him or her bears to the total number of shares bequeathed to all of the surviving members.

During such period as my wife shall survive me, she shall have full power to vote any shares of stock in The Farmers Bank, Hardinsburg, Kentucky owned by my estate or by any trust created by this Will and if it meets with the approval of other stockholders, and she so desires, I request that she be elected a director of said Bank.

ITEM V If I survive my wife, SHELLIE MCCOY, I give the three (3) lots in the town of Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, known as the A. R. Kincheloe property, located at Fourth and Main Streets, being the same property conveyed to Tice and/or Shellie McCoy, his wife, by deed dated the 15th day of January, 1949, and recorded in Deed Book 88, Page 155, Breckinridge County Clerk's Office, to the Breckinridge County Farm Bureau Directors to be used for the purpose of erecting a permanent Farm Bureau office building and such other improvements as said Bureau and its Directors shall deem wise and proper.

Neither these lots nor the improvements thereon shall ever be used for any gambling, sporting, or drinking purposes and the use of said premises as a pool hall, club room, tavern or other place where alcoholic beverages are dispensed or where games of skill or chance are conducted, is forever prohibited.

ITEM VI I give and bequeath all of the rest and remainder of my estate as follows:

ten percent (10%) thereof to the KOSAIR CHARITIES COMMITTEE, INCORPORATED for the benefit of the KOSAIR CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, Louisville, Kentucky.

forty percent (40%) thereof to ASBURY COLLEGE, Wilmore, Kentucky.

fifty percent (50%) thereof to the LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH to be prorated by the Conference Board as it may deem best.

ITEM VII In the event, after my estate has been converted into cash, there should be enough cash available to pay all cash bequests contained herein in full, then, in such event, I direct that the bequests to VERNIE LANPTON, BERNICE CONDER, VINNIE MOORE, IRENE RAMSEY REYNOLDS, and LATTA GANNAWAY be first paid in full and all other bequests abate proportionately.

orth, the Trustees use the net income CEMETERY, FAIRVIEW of the foregoing five trustees of any cannot be used for all be divided and

ITEM VIII In the administration of any trust created hereunder the Trustee shall have full power to (a) retain all real or personal property originally received from my estate, (b) sell, transfer and convey any real or personal property at any time held in any trust, (c) invest and reinvest in such real or personal property as is permitted for the investment of trust funds under the laws of Kentucky and (d) take such other action as, in the judgment of the Trustee, is necessary or proper for the protection of the trust estate, provided, however, during the lifetime of my wife the Trustee shall make no sales or purchases of trust property without the written approval of my said wife.

In the event the will of my wife creates a trust which will be effective after the death of both of us, for the cemeteries mentioned in Item IV (e) (e-1) and (e-2) hereof and the terms of the trust created by her will are identical with the terms of the trust created by this Will, said trusts, in the discretion of the Trustee, may be combined and administered as one trust.

ITEM IX In case any of the legatees or devisees hereinabove named, shall institute or prosecute any action to contest or set aside this will, or shall aid or assist another in so doing, the legacy or devise hereinbefore given to such person or persons, or institutions shall be thereby forfeited and annulled, and shall revert and inure to the residue of my estate and pass according to Item VI hereof.

ITEM X I hereby nominate and appoint as Executor of this Will the CITIZENS FIDELITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY of Louisville, Kentucky. During the respective administration of my estate the Executor shall have the same powers and authority with respect to the control, management and investment of said estate as are granted herein to the Trustees of the trust estate herein created and shall have full power and authority to compromise or otherwise settle or adjust any and all claims, charges, debts or demands against or in favor of said estates, as fully as we, individually, could do if living, and with full power, without order of court, to sell and convey any property for the purpose of administration, division or distribution in carrying out the terms of this Will.

I hereby request that Robert O. Trent of Hardinsburg, Kentucky be employed, if he is available at that time, to assist said Executor in all legal matters pertaining to the handling of my estate and of the trust herein created.

Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills by me heretofore made,

ITEM I: I direct that all of my just debts, funeral expenses, and costs of administration, be first paid out of my estate by my Executor hereinafter named and as soon as practicable after the time of my decease.

ITEM II: The land owned by me, consisting of about 200 acres, situated on the West side of Highway #259, about 6 miles north of Hardinsburg, in Breckinridge County, Kentucky, which was owned by my father Add Armes, at the time of his death many years ago, he having died intestate, was inherited by me, subject to the dower interest of my mother, Nettie Armes, therein which dower interest is a one-third (1/3) interest for her life, I give, devise and bequeath to Wendell Armes, subject to the right of Alvin Basham and Evelyn Basham, his sister, to occupy and use the tenant house thereon and one (1) acre of ground surrounding the same, for the remainder of their respective lives, until both are dead, which right I hereby give to them in appreciation of their faithful services. Upon their deaths, or should they move away and vacate the same, then said house and acre of land reverts immediately to the remainder of said original tract and passes to the said Wendell Armes, absolutely, except, however, he shall not have the right or privilege of selling the same for a period of twenty (20) years after my death.
And all of this is subject to the dower interest of my mother, provided she survives me, until she dies or releases said dower interest.

ITEM III: All of the land inherited by me from my said father and lying and being at the same location, but on the East side of said Highway #259, in said County and State, which is where the main residence and buildings are located, together with the livestock, farm machinery and implements, I direct my Executor hereinafter appointed to sell as soon as conveniently possible, a private sale being desired, but said Executor shall use his discretion as to private sale or public sale, and he is given full right, power and authority to execute, acknowledge and deliver all proper instruments to convey title to the purchaser or purchasers. However, if my mother is living at said time, it will, of course, be necessary to secure a release of her dower interest and have her join in the execution of the deed to the purchaser of the land. Also, I direct my Executor to sell all the furniture owned by me and located in or about the residence on the above mentioned land, at private or public sale, as deemed best by him, except the following items which I give and bequeath to Mary K. Seaton, to-wit: Hanging Lamp in Kitchen, Blond Cedar Chest, and White Bedroom Suite. And, after the payment of any unpaid indebtedness, funeral expenses and costs of administration, said proceeds of sale shall pass with the remainder of my estate as set out in Item IV. or Item V. of this Will.

ITEM IV: All of the residue and remainder of my estate, real, and personal, of every nature and description, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath to my said mother, Nettie Armes, to have and to hold to her use and benefit, during the remainder of her natural life, with full and complete power to use and control said property in such manner as she may deem best, and, if and whenever in her opinion, it shall become necessary or advisable to do so, she shall have the right, privilege and authority to sell such of the real estate and/or personal property, at public or private sale, at such prices and upon such terms, as she may deem best, and to execute, acknowledge and deliver deeds or other proper instruments to transfer title to the purchaser or purchasers.

ITEM V: After the death of my said mother, and provided she has not disposed of the same as is permitted under Item IV. above, or in the event she shall predecease me, I give, devise and bequeath the remainder of my estate, at that time, as follows:

1. I give, devise and bequeath my residence in Hardinsburg, Kentucky, and the furnishings not otherwise disposed of herein, together with the land used in connection therewith, to William Lewis Seaton, absolutely.

2. My diamond cluster ring, to Judy Armes.

3. The following items of furniture, etc, located in and about my residence,
as follows:

- (a) Walnut Corner Cupboard, to William Lewis Seaton.
- (b) Cherry corner cupboard, to Robert (Bob) Moorman.
- (c) Cherry Hutch and Dresser, which came from the Kincheloe sale, to Lowell Macy.
- (d) Two (2) pos. of cut glass and Large China Pitcher, which came from California, to Robert Moorman.
- (e) Dishes in Large China Cabinet, to Wendell Armes.
- (f) Balance of Dishes to Mary K. Seaton, except six (6) plates to Eugene Hinton.
- (g) My collection of Gold Coins, to Kimberly Armes, but the same is not to be disposed of or sold until she becomes 21 years of age.

5. Out of the proceeds of sale of real estate and personal property directed to be sold under Item III. above, I give and bequeath the following sums and amounts,
