ITEM I: I direct that all my just debts, burial expenses, and costs of administration be paid as soon as practicable. I hereby set aside the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) for my funeral.

I further direct that all Kentucky inheritance taxes and all Federal estate taxes that may be assessed against my estate or the beneficiaries thereof, and whether assessed on account of property passing under this Will or otherwise, be paid out of that portion of my estate passing under Item VI hereof, and that no contribution toward the payment of said taxes be required of persons inheriting under Items II, III, IV and V hereof.

ITEM II: I hereby give to my husband, TIGE MCCOY, in fee simple, all household furniture, furnishings, clothing, jewelry, and other like personal or household articles. In the event my husband shall predecease me, then I give his Farm Bureau watch to his nephew, JAMES S. CONDER, and all other articles herein referred to shall go in fee simple and per stirpes to my heirs-at-law to be divided among them as they may agree.

I hereby give to my husband, TIGE MCCOY, in fee simple any automobile and all farm inventory, including but without being limited to all machinery, trucks, tractors, farm tools, equipment, cattle, live stock, feed and fodder owned by me or in which I had an interest.
Should my husband predecease me, then all such articles are to be sold and the proceeds added to my residuary estate and disposed of in the manner set forth in Items III, IV, V and VI hereof.

ITEM III: All of the rest and residuum of my estate, real and personal, I give and bequeath to CITIZENS FIDELITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, Louisville, Kentucky, in trust, same to be held, managed and disposed of as follows:

(a) The entire net income therefrom shall be paid to or used for the benefit of my husband, TIGE MCCOY, so long as he shall live.

(b) If at any time during the lifetime of my husband, the net income from this trust fund, when added to his net income from other sources and after his estate individually owned is substantially exhausted, is not sufficient to provide for his maintenance and health according to the station he enjoyed during my lifetime, then, in such event, the Trustees is directed to pay to or use for the benefit of my said husband such portion of the corpus of the trust fund as may be necessary to meet his requirements as above set forth.

ITEM IV: Upon the death of my said husband, or upon my death should he predecease me, or in the event the two of us shall die simultaneously, or as the result of a common disaster, then, in that event, the Trustees of the foregoing trust shall proceed to convert all of said trust assets into cash and said cash realized shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) To VERNIE LAMPTON, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash.

To BERNICE CONDER, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash.

To VINNIE MOORE, the sum of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00)
in cash.

To IRENE RAMSEY REYNOLDS, the sum of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars
($12,500.00) in cash.

Should any of the foregoing not be then living, the bequest to the one or ones so dying shall be paid in fee simple to her issue then living, per stirpes.

(b) To LATTA GANNAWAY, the sum of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500.00)
in cash.

Should he not be living this bequest shall lapse and the amount thereof pass as part of my residuary estate in the manner provided in Item VI hereof.

(c) I give and bequeath to CITIZENS FIDELITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY of Louisville, Kentucky, as Trustee, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) in trust for the following uses and purposes to wit:

(c-1) During the term of the trust, as hereinafter set forth, the Trustees shall pay the net income in equal shares to the Trustees of or shall use the net income in equal shares for the benefit of ANTIQUITY CEMETERY, COYLES CEMETERY, HANGING ROCK CEMETERY, FAIRVIEW CEMETERY, and IVY HILL CEMETERY, Hardinsburg, Kentucky. Should any of the foregoing five (5) cemeteries go out of existence or should there be no Board of Trustees of any cemetery to whom its share of the income can be paid and the income cannot be used for the benefit of the cemetery, then, in such event, the net income shall be divided and paid to the remaining cemeteries.

(c-2) This trust shall last for a period of fifty (50) years from the date of death of the last survivor of the two of us. Upon termination of the trust, the corpus of the trust fund shall be divided into as many portions as there are cemeteries then receiving the income therefrom and one portion thereof paid to each of said cemeteries.

(d) I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the FAIRVIEW CHURCH the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in cash. Said sum is to be invested by the Trustees and kept invested in good and safe securities, and the income therefrom is to be used for the spiritual life of said church, as follows: fifty percent (50%) for pastor's salary, thirty percent (30%) for benevolences, and twenty percent (20%) for upkeep of building. If, however, the church building should become damaged by the elements, such as fire, windstorm or hail, such parts of said Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) may be used for repair or construction of a new building, as said Trustees may deem necessary and proper. It is my desire and request that the Trustees of FAIRVIEW CHURCH be bonded.

ITEM V: If I survive my husband, TICE MCCOY, I give the three (3) lots in the town of Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, known as the A. R. Kinchale's property, located at Fourth and Main Streets, being the same property conveyed to Tice McCoy and/or Shellie McCoy, his wife, by deed dated the 15th day of January, 1949, and recorded in Deed Book 88, Page 155, Breckinridge County Clerk's Office, to the BRECKINRIDGE COUNTY FARM BUREAU DIRECTORS to be used for the purpose of erecting a permanent Farm Bureau office building and such other improvements as said Bureau and its Directors shall deem wise and proper.

Neither these lots nor the improvements thereon shall ever be used for any gambling, sporting, or drinking purposes and the use of said premises as a pool hall, club room, tavern or other place where alcoholic beverages are dispensed or where games of skill or chance are conducted, is forever prohibited.

ITEM VI: I give and bequeath all of the rest and remainder of my estate as follows:

ten percent (10%) thereof to the KOSAIR CHARITIES COMMITTEE, INCORPORATED for the benefit of the KOSAIR CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, Louisville, Kentucky.

forty percent (40%) thereof to ASBURY COLLEGE, Wilmore, Kentucky.

fifty percent (50%) thereof to the LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH to be prorated by the Conference Board as it may deem best.

ITEM VII: In the event, after my estate has been converted into cash, there should not be enough cash available to pay all cash bequests contained herein in full, then, in such event, I direct that the bequests to VERNIE LAMPTON, BERNICE CONDRE, VERNIE MCCRE, IRENE RAMSEY REYNOLDS, and LATTA GANNAWAY be first paid in full and all other bequests abate proportionately.

In the event the will of my husband written before my death, contains bequests to the same persons or organizations as are named beneficiaries in Item IV hereof, and his estate is not sufficient to pay said bequests in full, and there are sufficient assets remaining in my estate after all bequests and devises made in this Will except those made in Item VI hereof have been paid, then, in such event, I direct that the unpaid portions of the bequests contained in my husband's will be paid in full or to such extent as the assets in my estate will permit them to be paid.

ITEM VIII: In the administration of any trust created hereunder the Trustees shall have full power to (a) retain any real or personal property originally received from my estate, (b) sell, transfer and convey any real or personal property at any time held in any trust, (c) invest and reinvest in such real or personal property as is permitted for the investment of trust funds under the laws of Kentucky and (d) take such other action as, in the judgment of the Trustees, is necessary or proper for the protection of the trust estate, provided, however, during the lifetime of my husband the Trustees shall make no sales or purchases of trust property without the written approval of my said husband.

In the event the will of my husband creates a trust which will be effective after the death of both of us, for the cemeteries mentioned in Item IV (a) (c-1) and (c-2) hereof and the terms of the trust created by his will are identical with the terms of the trust created by this will, said trusts, in the discretion of the Trustees, may be combined and administered as one trust.

ITEM IX: In case any of the legatees or devises hereinabove named, shall institute or prosecute any action to contest or set aside this Will, or shall aid or assist another in so doing, the legacy or devise hereinbefore given to such person or persons, or institutions shall be thereby forfeited and annulled, and shall revert and inure to the residue of my estate and pass according to Item VI hereof.

ITEM X: I hereby nominate and appoint as Executor of this Will the CITIZENS FIDELITY BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, of Louisville, Kentucky.

During the respective administration of my estate the Executor shall have the same powers and authority with respect to the control, management and investment of said estate as are granted herein to the Trustees of the trust estate herein created and shall have full power and authority to compromise or otherwise settle or adjust any and all claims, charges, debts or demands against or in favor of said estates, as fully as I, individually, could do if living, and with full power, without order of court, to sell and convey any property for the purpose of administration, division or distribution in carrying out the terms of this Will.

I hereby request that Robert O. Trent of Hardinsburg, Kentucky be employed, if he is available at that time, to assist said Executor in all legal matters pertaining to the handling of my estate and of the trust herein created.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, this the 23rd day of October, 1965.

My brother, Mike H. Lyddan and I own and operate a partnership business known as J. D. and M. H. Lyddan, d/b/a J. D. Lyddan. The business owns both real and personal property, including stocks and other securities. Some of our securities and possibly other property are made in our joint names with right of survivorship, and some may be made in the name of one or the other of us individually. It is understood between us, however, that regardless of how title to such property is vested, each of us owns a one half interest therein, and upon the death of either of us, the other dissolution of the partnership, it shall be equally divided between us as joint owners. I advise my one half interest in said partnership property as heretofore provided for in my will. Should I predecease my brother, Mike H. Lyddan, he shall be consulted by my personal representative, and shall furnish a list of other information as to the partnership property which I may own, and his word shall not be questioned as I have perfect confidence in his honesty, fairness and integrity. I, HOWARD M. HOOK, a resident of Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this to be my last will, hereby revoking all wills or acts in the nature of such heretofore by me made.

FIRST: I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and inheritance and estate taxes be paid out of my general estate, including the taxes paid on any property although passing outside of my estate but still subject to estate and inheritance taxes.

SECOND: (1) I give to my grandson, HOWARD EARL TAYLOR, all of my personal jewelry. However, said jewelry is to be delivered to The Louisville Trust Company as Trustees of Trust B and held by them until my said grandson attains the age of twenty-five (25) years at which time said jewelry is to be delivered to him free of the trust and in fee. Should the said HOWARD EARL TAYLOR not live to reach the age of twenty-five (25) years, the said jewelry shall be added to and distributed in accordance with the terms of Trust "B 1."

(2) I give to my grandson, JOHN DAVID TAYLOR, the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars. However, said sum is to be delivered to The Louisville Trust Company as Trustees of Trust B and held by them until my said grandson attains the age of twenty-five (25) years at which time said five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars is to be delivered to him free of the trust and in fee together with all accumulated income thereon. Should the said JOHN DAVID TAYLOR not live to reach the age of twenty-five (25) years the said five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars shall be added to and distributed in accordance with the terms of Trust "B 3."

(3) My home place in Hardinsburg, Kentucky, my home place in Alabama, my home place in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and any other home places that I may own or possess at the time of my death, and all my household furniture and furnishings, books, pictures, objects of art, silverware, and other personal effects, and all automobiles that I may own at the time of my death, I give, bequeath and devise to my wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, if she is living. However, if said wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, should predecease me then this bequest shall be void and the property named in this paragraph shall become part of my residuary estate hereinafter disposed of.

THIRD: I devise to The Broward National Bank of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and MRS. GERTRUDIE ROGERS (MRS. W. E. ROGERS) of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, one-half of all the real property owned by me in the State of Florida, in trust, nevertheless, to be known as Florida Trust "A" and to be held by my Trustees for the use and benefit of my wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, for and during her natural life with the right in her at any time at her discretion to terminate the trust in whole or in part and to dispose of by her last will and testament so much of said trust property as she has not withdrawn during her life and further provided that if my wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, should fail to make a last will and testament or should fail to dispose of the trust fund by her last will and testament, then the fund shall be added to the corpus of Florida Trust "B" and held and disposed of in accordance with the terms thereof.

FOURTH: I devise to The Broward National Bank of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and MRS. GERTRUDIE ROGERS (MRS. W. E. ROGERS) of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, the other one-half of the real property owned by me in the State of Florida, in trust nevertheless, to be known as Florida Trust "B" under the same terms and uses and conditions as set out in this will under the paragraphs numbered Seventh (2), Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Seventeenth.

FIFTH: MRS. GERTRUDIE ROGERS shall receive in lieu of all compensation for her services as ancillary Administratrix and co-trustee the amount the trustees would charge for the use and occupancy of the warehouse and office located at 505 Northwest First Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, my purpose and desire being that she enjoy the use of this office and warehouse rent free so long as she is willing and able to act as ancillary Administratrix or Co-Trustee. If MRS. ROGERS should die or become incapacitated and be unable to carry out the above duties, the Broward National Bank of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, shall act as Administrator or Trustee alone. However, should the duties of MRS. GERTRUDIE ROGERS as co-trustee terminate due to the death of my wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, then it is my desire that MRS. GERTRUDIE ROGERS continue to use the above described property rent free so long as, she continues to operate the Broward Storage Company at that location but not longer than September 30, 1978.

SIXTH: If my wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, survives me, my Executor shall ascertain and set aside, as Trust A, for the benefit of my wife that fractional share of my residuary estate as follows:

A. The numerator shall be the maximum marital deduction allowable in determining the federal estate tax payable by reason of my death, minus the value of all other property interests included in my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes which pass or have passed to or for the benefit of my wife, either under any other provision of this will or in any manner outside of this will, in such manner as to qualify for and be allowed as a marital deduction.

B. The denominator shall be the value of my residuary estate. In making the computation necessary to determine such fractional share of my residuary estate, the final determination in the federal estate tax proceedings shall control, and such share shall not be reduced by any estate, inheritance, transfer, succession, or like taxes. Whenever used in this Article, the words "marital deduction," "gross estate," and "pass" shall have the same meaning as said words have under the provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code applicable to my estate.

Only assets which qualify for the marital deduction shall be allotted to such fractional share. To the extent, also, that other assets qualifying for the marital deduction are available, said share shall not be satisfied by the distribution of:

(a) Assets with respect to which a credit for foreign taxes paid is allowable under the Internal Revenue Code; or (b) Assets which may be subject to both income and estate taxes which may be eligible for a credit or deduction. However, my Executor is authorized to satisfy said share in money or in kind or partly in money and partly in kind; and if wholly or partly in kind, to select and allot to my wife's share, the specific asset or assets so selected; provided, however, that any assets transferred in kind to satisfy said share shall be valued for the purpose at their fair market values determined as of the dates of their respective transfer. Assets, including cash, allotted to this share for the benefit of my wife, shall in the aggregate, be fairly representative of all appreciation and depreciation in the value of all property which may occur while such property is held in my estate, and this share shall carry with it (as income and not as corpus), its proportionate share of all net income received during such administration. Subject to the foregoing, the decision of my Executor as to which assets shall be distributed in satisfaction of my wife's share; as to whether my estate shall be valued under the optional provisions of the federal estate tax law; as to what elections shall be exercised, and as to what proceedings are necessary to complete the ascertainment of the federal estate tax shall be conclusive and binding on all persons.

I direct my Executor to distribute my wife's share ascertained as aforesaid to The Louisville Trust Company, as Trustee, to be held and administered for the use and benefit of my said wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK. The Trustee shall pay the income to my said wife at least quarterly for and during her natural life, with the right in her at any time at her discretion to terminate the trust in whole or in part and to dispose of by last will and testament so much of said trust as she has not withdrawn during her life, and further, provided in my said wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, should fail to survive me or should fail to make a last will and testament or should fail to dispose of the trust fund by her last will and testament then the fund shall be added to the corpus of Trust "B" and disposed of in accordance with the terms thereof.

SEVENTH: I do give, bequeath and devise all of the rest of the property that I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my death, real, personal and mixed, wherever situated and of whatever nature and including any bequests which may lapse or fail for any reason to The Louisville Trust Company, Louisville, Kentucky, as Trustee to be known as Trust "B".

(1) Out of the income of Trust B the Trustee is directed to pay to DOT BEARD Fifty ($50.00) dollars per month so long as she shall live.

(2) The remainder of the income from Trust B or all of it if DOT BEARD fails to survive me or dies during the term of this trust shall be paid to or used for the benefit of my wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK for and during her natural life with remainder on her death in trust to The Louisville Trust Company, Louisville, Kentucky, as Trustee, for the uses and purposes hereinafter set out.

EIGHTH: Said Trustee shall hold, manage and control all of the aforesaid properties of Trust B as a trust estate with all the rights and powers and subject to the limitations hereinafter enumerated for the following uses and purposes: on the death of my wife, LILYAN BEARD HOOK, my Trustees shall first set aside a sufficient amount of assets which will in their discretion enable it to continue payment of Fifty ($50.00) dollars per month to DOT BEARD as outlined in paragraph SEVENTH hereof if she is still living. Said amount is to be determined in the sole discretion of the Trustees and their decision is not to be questioned by anyone. Upon the death of DOT BEARD any remainder shall be divided into three equal shares and distributed one share each to Trusts B1, B2 and B3 and administered in accordance with the terms thereof and as hereinafter set out.

The remainder of the trust properties of Trust B or all of the trust properties, as the case may be, shall be divided by my Trustees into three equal shares. Each share shall constitute a trust fund and be numbered consecutively.

NINTH: "Trust B1" shall be held by Trustee, The Louisville Trust Company, for the use and benefit of HOWARD EARL TAYLOR, son of my daughter, ANN HOOK TAYLOR, and the income therefrom (unless otherwise paid or used as hereinafter provided) invested and reinvested until he reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years, when the income thereafter received by the Trustee of said "Trust B1" shall be paid to him in quarterly or other current installments as agreed upon until he reaches the age of twenty-five (25) years when said Trustee shall pay and deliver to him fifty per cent (50%), as then constituted, of the securities, monies, or other properties in "Trust B1" to be his property absolutely; and hold the remainder of said "Trust B1", paying him the income therefrom as aforesaid until he reaches the age of thirty-five (35) years, when the balance of said "Trust B1" shall be paid and delivered to him to be his property absolutely and said "Trust B1" shall cease and determine. Should, however, the said HOWARD EARL TAYLOR die leaving a child or children, heirs of his body, and all or any part of "Trust B1" be then undistributed the Trustee shall hold all of said "Trust B1" so undistributed for the use and benefit of such child or children until they respectively reach the age of twenty-one (21) years, when the same shall be paid and delivered to them, share and share alike, to become their respective properties absolutely. Should however, one or more of said children die before reaching said age of twenty-one (21) years, leaving a child or children, heirs of their bodies, then the portion of the one so dying shall be paid to his or her said child or children, share and share alike; but should one or more said children of HOWARD EARL TAYLOR die before reaching said age of twenty-one (21) years, leaving no child or children as aforesaid, then the proportion of the one so dying shall be held and/or paid to his or her sisters and/or brothers as they respectively reach said age, or their child or children as aforesaid. Should, however, said HOWARD EARL TAYLOR die leaving no child or children as aforesaid, or said child or children die as aforesaid, and there remain any part of "Trust B1" undistributed, said trust shall cease and determine and the principal and/or income thereof paid and used as hereinafter provided.

TENTH: "Trust B2" shall be held by the Trustee, The Louisville Trust Company, for the use and benefit of ELIZABETH ANN TAYLOR, daughter of my daughter, ANN HOOK TAYLOR, and the income therefrom (unless otherwise paid or used as hereinafter provided) invested and reinvested until she reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years when the income thereafter received by the Trustee of said "Trust B2" shall be paid to her in quarterly or other current installments as agreed upon so long as she shall live. FOURTEENTH: In order to avoid any possible violation of the rule against perpetuities, unless sooner terminated by some other term or provision of this will, and anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, all trusts created herein shall terminate twenty-one (21) years after the death of the survivor of my said wife and my daughter's issue living at my death.

FIFTEENTH: During the time any beneficiary is under the age of twenty-one (21) the Trustee is authorized to use all or any part of the income for the support, maintenance, comfort and welfare or education of any of the beneficiaries thereof, should the same be necessary or desirous in the discretion of the Trustee. The Trustee shall not however, use any or all of the principal except as set out in this will for the beneficiary thereof.

SIXTEENTH: In the management, care and disposition of my estate and of every trust I confer upon the Executor and ancillary Administrators of this will and the Trustees of each and every trust created by this will, and its successors in office, the power to do and perform all things necessary or proper, all of which may be exercised without order or report to any Court. Included in such general authority are the following specific powers:

- (a) To compromise, settle or adjust any claim or demand by or against said estate or trust and to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement affecting such estate or trust.
- (b) To invest all funds in such stocks, bonds, securities, mortgages, notes, choses in action, real estate, improvements thereon, and other property as such Executor or Trustee may deem best without regard to any present or future applicable law restricting or limiting investment of executors, trustees or other fiduciaries.
- (c) I have confidence in the investments in which my estate will be found at the time of my death, and I direct that no change need be made by my Executor or Trustee in said investments solely for the purpose of creating a diversity of investments, but such changes shall be made, if at all, because it believes that it is desirable for some other reason than diversity to make such change; however, the shares of stock which I may own at the time of my death in The Farmers Bank, Hardinsburg, Kentucky, are to be held in the several Trusts aforementioned, the voting rights of these said shares to be given to PAUL L. PACE of Hardinsburg, Kentucky, the Executive Officer of said Farmers Bank, at each annual stockholder's meeting to vote as he sees fit until his retirement as Executive Officer of such institution.

- (d) If at the time of my death I am engaged in business undertakings, whether as co-partner or on my sole account, which it would be inexpedient in the opinion of my Executor or ancillary administrators to close at the time and in the manner usually adopted in the settlement of the estates of deceased persons, I empower them to continue my estate intact and to operate any business for such period as they may deem best for the interest of my estate; to use the credit of my estate, and to make any part thereof liable by mortgage, pledge or otherwise, for the performance of any engagements, and the payment of any debts, notes and obligations, which have been made or incurred by me, or by my partnership of which I am a member or which they may deem it necessary to make or incur, for the above purpose.
- (e) To sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any property at any time held or acquired under this will, at public or private sale, for cash or on terms, without advertisement, including the right to lease for any term notwithstanding the period of the Trust.
- (f) To vote in person or by proxy any corporate stock or other security at any corporate meeting; to agree to or take any action in regard to any recapitalization, reorganization, merger, consolidation, or any plan therefor, or in relation to bankruptcy or other proceeding affecting any stock, bond, note or other property, as may seem expedient or advisable.
- (g) To renew any indebtedness, as well as to borrow money for the estate and to secure the same by mortgage or pledge of any real or personal property of the estate, and to repay the same with funds of the estate.
- (h) To employ real estate brokers, attorneys, accountants and other agents as it may deem necessary and desirable, and to pay reasonable compensation for their services.
- (i) Dividends payable in stock, dividends in liquidation and "rights" issued on trust securities shall be considered and treated as principal and not disbursed to the beneficiaries as income. All other dividends shall be treated as income. Premiums on securities purchased at more than par and discounts on securities purchased at less than par shall be charged or credited to principal and not amortized out of income.

SEVENTEENTH: In the event my wife and I should die as a result of a common disaster or under circumstances wherein it is difficult to determine which of us survived the other, it shall be conclusively presumed for the purpose of this will and the distribution of the property hereunder that my wife survived me and this will shall be construed upon that assumption.

EIGHTEENTH: I hereby appoint The Louisville Trust Company of Louisville, Kentucky as Executor and Trustees of this my will.

NINETEENTH: I hereby appoint the Broward National Bank and MRS. GERTRUDE ROGERS, of Fort Lauderdale Florida, ancillary Administrators and Co-Trustees of my Florida property without bond.

In witness whereof I have signed the foregoing instrument consisting of 11 pages, and publish the same as my last will and testament this 27 day of October, 1970.
