WILL OF C. T. JARBOE

I, C. T. Jarboe, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, and hereby revoking all other wills made by me, as follows:

FIRST: I hereby direct that my burial expenses and any just debts that I may owe at the time of my death shall first be paid out of my estate after debts have been proven as required by law.

SECOND: I hereby give, bequeath and devise to my wife, Clara Alice Jarboe, all of the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and character, for her use and enjoyment and support and she may consume for her needs and comforts, all or any part of said property, and if she should decide that it is best to sell any of said property, she shall have the right in her discretion to do so, it being my desire and purpose that she shall be fully and reasonably provided for and supported.

THIRD: At the death of my said wife, and after the expenses of a suitable burial have been paid, and any just debts that she may owe at the time of her death have been paid, and after they have been legally proven as required by law, all of my property and estate that shall then remain shall pass to my three children Leroy Jarboe, Verble Thompson and Louise Braden, in equal portions share and share alike.

FOURTH: I hereby nominate and appoint the said Louise Braden as executrix of this will, and in the event she is not in a position to serve, I nominate and appoint my other two children aforesaid to serve as such jointly, and none of them shall be required to execute any bond as such.

In witness whereof I hereunto sign my name in the presence of two witnesses this June 27, 1962.

C. T. Jarboe

The foregoing instrument of writing was this day signed by C. T. Jarboe in our presence, sight and hearing, and declared by him to be his will, and we at his request hereto sign our names as witnesses in his presence, sight and hearing and in the presence of each other.
