LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

JEAN A. CHISM

I, Jean A. Chism, now residing in Hardinsburg, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and do hereby revoke and any Wills heretofore made by me.

I

I direct that all of my just debts (except such mortgage, lien, and unmatured obligations, the deferment of payment of which may seem advisable to my Executor in order to protect my estate) and all inheritance, estate and other taxes due as a result of my death, be paid out of my gross estate as soon as practical after my death, and not charged to the share of individual beneficiaries.

II

If he survive me, I devise all of my estate of every kind and nature, absolutely and in fee simple, to my husband, Harold R. Chism.

III

If my husband, Harold R. Chism, shall fail to survive me, I devise one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of all my property by value to the persons other than myself named as legatees and devisees in the Last Will and Testament of my husband, Harold R. Chism, and in the event he dies intestate, to his heirs at law according to the Kentucky Statute of Descent and Distribution. I devise and bequeath the other one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) interest in all of my property to the legatees and devisees as set forth in Paragraph IV of this will, each to be absolutely and in fee simple.

IV

In the event that my husband, Harold R. Chism, shall fail to survive me, I bequeath the following sums of money, to be paid from the remaining one-half interest in all of my said property mentioned in Paragraph III herein, to the following persons:

(A) To employees and business associates, and each of whom I consider to be my personal friends, I bequeath the following sums:

(1) To Gloria Shavel, who now has an office at 225 Fifth Avenue, New York City, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars.

(2) To employees of our business or of myself, who have worked a minimum of ten (10) months within the last year, the following:

(a) Employees with twenty-four (24) months employment out of the preceding thirty-six (36) months, the sum of Two Thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars, each.

(b) Employees with twelve (12) months service out of the preceding twenty-four (24) months, and not qualifying for the larger sum, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars each.

All the dates shall be computed from the date of my death,

(3) To Rick Pezdirtz, the Apparel Mart, in Dallas, Texas, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars.

(4) To George Pezdirtz, the Apparel Mart, in Dallas, Texas, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars.

Should any of the aboved-named legatees die before the date of my death, I direct that said legacy to such deceased legatee shall become a part of my residuary estate, unless otherwise herein specifically provided. In the event of the death of such legatee after the date of my death, but before the date of payment herein specified, such sums shall be paid to the estate of said deceased legatee in accordance with their Will or the laws of descent and distribution. If there be doubt or confusion as to the qualification of any person named or described above, the determination of my Executor shall be final and conclusive, and should any legatee hereinabove named institute legal action to construe this Will or enforce the provision herein made, this legacy shall be null and void as to such person or persons.

(B) To my relatives, I bequeath the following sums:

(1) To my sister, Pauline Gibson, Evansville, Indiana, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars.

(2) To my sister, Gretchen Fulton, Ft. Branch, Indiana, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars.

(3) To my sister, Mary Butsch, Evansville, Indiana, the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars.

In the event that either my sister, Pauline Gibson, or my sister, Gretchen Fulton, should fail to survive me, then the sum bequeathed to each of them shall be paid to their direct descendants per stirpes, i.e. the children to divide equally the share of the deceased parent. If either should fail to survive me, leaving no direct descendant, then the legacy to such person shall become a part of my residuary estate, unless otherwise herein specifically provided.

If my sister, Mary Butsch, should fail to survive me, then the sum bequeathed to her shall be divided equally between my sisters, Pauline Gibson and Gretchen Fulton, or to their respective direct descendants as hereinabove provided. If Mary Butsch should fail to be survived by either Pauline Gibson or Gretchen Fulton, or any of their direct descendants, the legacy herein provided shall become a part of my residuary estate.

(C) To St. Romuald's Catholic Church, Hardinsburg, Kentucky, I bequeath the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, to be expended for Masses for the repose of my soul.

V

Further, in the event that my husband, Harold R. Chism, should fail to survive me, I devise and bequeath all of the rest and residue of the said one-half of my property, absolutely and in fee simple, to my friend, Gloria Shavel. If Gloria Shavel fails to survive me, then all sums devised to her shall be paid to my sisters Pauline Gibson and Gretchen Fulton, as herein provided.

VI

The major part of my estate has been accumulated from the Galante Studio, Inc. and I have devoted myself to it. For this reason, I make particular provision as to the management and disposition of the Galante Studio by my executor, in the event that I shall survive my husband, Harold R. Chism. If she survive me, Gloria Shavel shall have an option, to expire ninety (90) days from the date of my death, to purchase all of my interest in the Galante Studio, Inc. at its book value as of the date of my death. If she should not exercise this option, my Executor shall have an additional ninety (90) days to effect a sale of this interest in the Galante Studio, Inc. Should a sale not be effected within this time, then my Executor should liquidate the Galante Studio, Inc. as soon as practical, as it does require constant personal attention. The sale shall be upon such terms and conditions as may seem reasonable to my Executor, and the Executor shall have a reasonable time after the dates herein provided for the closing of a sale within the dates set forth.

VII

In the event that my husband, Harold R. Chism, has survived me, he shall have the full power and authority to use, consume and dispose either in life or by testamentary instrument, all of the property which passes to him under this Will. I expressly disavow any agreement with my husband as to a joint plan for the disposition of our property, which would bind any use, consumption, or disposition of his property or my property in the event he should survive me. Should my estate for an unforeseen reason be inadequate to satisfy in full all of the specific bequests provided for herein, then said bequests should be satisfied upon a pro rata basis, before payment of the residuary bequest.

VIII

I nominate and appoint my husband, Harold R. Chism, to be the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. If he should fail to survive me, then I nominate and appoint Central Bank & Trust Company, Owensboro, Kentucky, as my Executor. I direct that Harold R. Chism be permitted to serve without bond, and that Central Bank & Trust Company provide bond as required by law. Except as limited herein, my Executor shall have full power and authority to sell or dispose of any or all of my property upon such terms and conditions as they may think best without the necessity of Court approval. The Executor shall have the power to designate a personal representative in any jurisdiction in which he cannot qualify, and to perform such other acts as he may think best in the settlement of my estate, without restriction or the necessity of Court approval.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my signature at Owensboro, Kentucky, this 3 day of March, 1971.

ITEM I

I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and the costs of administration be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable after the time of my death.

ITEM II

I give to my son, Richard L. Taylor, my Gorham Sterling Flatware, my mother's (Mrs. Marie D. Snyder) china, and my Johann Haviland china. I give to my son, James H. Taylor, my Theodore Haviland china and my Holmes and Howard Flatware.

ITEM III

I give all the property, both real and personal, tangible and intangible that I may inherit from my mother's estate, Mrs. Marie D. Snyder, said amount to include the amount equal to any monies which may be deducted from my share of said inheritance as a result of any debts I and my husband may owe my mother's estate, to my husband, A. M. Taylor, Jr., in trust, for the following uses and purposes, to wit:

A. The Trustee shall collect the income from the property comprising the trust estate, and shall remit such portions from the net income at his discretion to my sons, Richard L. Taylor and James H. Taylor, or apply the same for their benefit and shall reinvest the remaining portion of the net income, if any, so that the said remaining portion of the net income shall become part of this trust.

B. As each child of mine, James H. Taylor and Richard L. Taylor attains the age of twenty-five (25) years, the Trustee shall distribute to such child the principal of the trust estate held for his benefit.

C. I authorize and empower the Trustee in his sole and absolute discretion at any time to time, to disburse from the principal of the trust estate created herein, such amounts as he may deem advisable to provide adequately and properly for the support and maintenance of the beneficiaries thereof, their spouses and their issue, including, but not by way of limitation, expenses incurred by reason of illness, disability and education. In determining the amounts of principal to be so distributed, the trustee shall take into consideration any other income which such beneficiaries or other persons may have from any other sources known to Trustee; and the Trustee's discretion shall be conclusive as to the advisability of any such discretion and the same shall not be subject to judicial review. All such disbursements from principal shall be charged against the trust fund as a whole and shall not be charged against any individual share of the principal subsequently distributed to any beneficiary upon the termination of the trust, unless in the discretion of the Trustee, the disbursements from principal should be charged against the individual's share of the principal subsequently distributed.

D. If any child of mine shall die after this trust has been set apart for his benefit under this Item and before the entire principal of his portion of this trust has been distributed to him in fee, then in such event the Trustee shall distribute his portions of the Trust Fund to his living issue, if any, and if none, then to any living child of mine when said child reaches the age of twenty-five (25) years. If my children predecease me or in the case of our simultaneous deaths, then, in that event, this trust shall lapse and shall be distributed under Item IV.
