LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
M.A. RHODES, SR.

* * * * *

I, M. A. Rhodes, Sr., of Route #2, Hardinsburg, Kentucky, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

It is my will and I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon after my death as is practical.

ITEM II

I give and bequeath to my wife, Wills Jean Rhodes, absolutely and without reservation any furniture, silverware, china, books, pictures and any household effects which shall be in and about my residence and owned by me at the time of my decease.

ITEM III

I will, devise and bequeath to my wife, Wills Jean Rhodes, any and all interest which I may have in my farm upon which I now make my residence, said farm being located in Breckenridge County, Kentucky. This real estate to be owned by her in fee simple and clear of any claim by any person or persons. This devise is made because of the help she has given me over the years in acquiring this and other property.

Will and Testament of M.A. Rhodes,
Sr. M.A. Rhodes Sr. /s/

ITEM IV

I have heretofore conveyed to my wife, Wills Jean Rhodes, that business known as M. A. Rhodes & Company doing business as Tots & Toys located in Owensboro, Kentucky. In the event that my wife should owe any money to me at the time of my death on account of this sale, then any amount due on the purchase price is to be forgiven in accordance with the terms of the contract of sale and said amount is not to be considered as being a part of my estate.

ITEM V

I hereby make, nominate and appoint my wife, Wills Jean Rhodes, of Hardinsburg, Kentucky, and the Citizens State Bank of Owensboro, Kentucky, to be co-trustees of my estate, and I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, whether real, personal or mixed and wheresoever situated which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my decease to my said co-trustees, and said trustees are to have the following powers and duties:

(a) My said co-trustees are to liquidate my estate as soon as practical after the time of my decease. I desire my said co-trustees to convert my said trust estate to cash unless because of the peculiar circumstances which may exist at that time, it should not appear to be expedient in the discretion of my co-trustees to convert any particular asset or all of my assets to cash. In any event on or before five years from the date of my death, my said co-trustees are to liquidate my said trust estate insofar as it is deemed proper to do so in the discretion of my said co-trustees, and my co-trustees are to pay in cash or said co-trustees are to convey or assign such interest in the property or assets not liquidated to the beneficiaries of my trust estate in the same share as each of the beneficiaries of my trust estate as named herein are entitled to receive. It is further directed that my co-trustees shall pay to the beneficiaries of my trust estate in the proportionate share to which the beneficiaries share in my trust estate cash which is available for distribution at the end of each six month period prior to the end of the five year period when all of the trust estate will be distributed. In the event any of the beneficiaries of my trust estate have not reached twenty-one years of age, my co-trustees will retain such share of the trust estate until the beneficiary has attained this age when the share will be distributed.

Will and Testament of M.A. Rhodes, Sr.

(b) My said co-trustees shall divide the estate which is herein devised to my said co-trustees into two equal shares, with one share to be paid to my wife, Wills Jean Rhodes, and the other share i.e. one-half of my trust estate is to be paid to my children as is hereinafter provided for. It is my intent that such interest which my wife, Wills Jean Rhodes, receives under this instrument is to qualify for the marital deduction insofar as such is legally possible under the terms of this instrument.

will and Testament of M.A. Rhodes, Sr.
/s/ M.A. Rhodes Sr.

(c) My co-trustees shall divide the one-half of the trust estate payable to my children into five equal shares i.e. one-tenth (1/10) of said trust estate for the benefit of each of my five children, namely: Melvin A. Rhodes, Jr., Jerry Lane Rhodes, Marilyn Sue Hawkins, James Tilford Rhodes and Ora Andrew Rhodes. Each such share for all purposes shall be held and constitute a separate and distinct trust. My co-trustees, however, shall not be required, prior to distribution, to make physical segregation of the assets, but my co-trustees may in their discretion hold the same as an undivided fund for the purpose of management and for the carrying out of the trust purposes.

(d) My co-trustees may in their sole and absolute discretion distribute to or apply to the benefit of a beneficiary all or any part of the net income and/or corpus until the beneficiary attains twenty-one years of age accumulating and adding to the corpus such income as is not so used. Upon the beneficiary attaining twenty-one years of age, a separate trust for his benefit shall terminate and all of the accumulated income and corpus of said trust shall be paid over to the beneficiary. If any of my children shall predecease me, it is my desire that their share of the property which they would have inherited if they had outlived me is to be disposed of by the co-trustees in the following manner:

(1) Melvin A. Rhodes, Jr. - Any share in the trust property which said Melvin A. Rhodes, Jr. would have inherited had he survived the testator is to go to the other four interests which are provided for by this instrument, share and share alike.

and Testament of M. A. Rhodes, Sr.
/s/ M.A. Rhodes Sr.

(2) Jerry Lane Rhodes - If Jerry Lane Rhodes should predecease me, then any interest which he would otherwise have inherited is to go to his wife, Helen Rhodes, the same way that Jerry Lane Rhodes would have taken had he survived the testator.

(3) Marilyn Sue Hawkins - If Marilyn Sue Hawkins should predecease me, then the interest which she would otherwise have inherited under this instrument is to go to her surviving children per stirpes.

(4) James Tilford Rhodes - If James Tilford Rhodes should predecease me, then any interest which he would otherwise have inherited is to go to his wife, Julia Rhodes, the same way that James Tilford Rhodes would have taken had he survived the testator.

(5) Ora Andrew Rhodes - Ora Andrew Rhodes is unmarried at the present time, but if he should predecease me unmarried, then any interest which he would have inherited had he survived the testator is to go to the other four interests which are provided for by this instrument, share and share alike. However, should the said Ora Andrew Rhodes predecease me and be survived by a wife, then any interest which he would otherwise have inherited is to go to his wife the same way that Ora Andrew Rhodes would have taken had he survived the testator.

(e) My co-trustees in making any division or distribution in kind may allocate any specific security or property or any undivided interest therein to any one or more of such shares as are to receive the division or distribution, and the co-trustees' judgement as to the propriety of such allotment and the relative value for purpose of distribution of the security or securities so allotted shall be final and conclusive upon all persons interested in this trust estate.

and Testament of M. A. Rhodes, Sr.

(f) My co-trustees are to have the right and power to sell at public or private sale for cash or upon credit or partly for cash and partly upon credit or mortgages, lease, pledge or grant options on any or all of the trust assets, real or personal, in such manner as my co-trustees may deem advisable.

(g) My co-trustees are to have the power to purchase, sell, mortgage, rent or lease any property of any description which may be part of the trust estate without securing court approval or the approval of the beneficiaries of the estate.

(h) My co-trustees may in their sole and absolute discretion distribute to or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary all or any part of the net income and/or corpus of the share of any beneficiary who has not yet attained the age of twenty-one years until the beneficiary attains twenty-one years of age. Upon the beneficiary attaining twenty-one years of age the separate trust for his benefit shall terminate and all of the accumulated income and corpus of said trust shall be paid over to the beneficiary.

ITEM VI

If my wife, Willa Jean Rhodes, fails to survive me as is hereinbefore provided for, I then give, devise and bequeath

Page six of the Eight page Last Will
and Testament of M. A. Rhodes, Sr.

the portion of my estate which I have heretofore devised and bequeathed to my wife, Willa Jean Rhodes, or to my co-trustees for her benefit, to the Citizens State Bank its successors and assigns with said trustee to hold, manage and control all of said property for the use and benefit of my children in the same manner as the portion of

of my estate would have been administered if said children were only receiving one-half of the trust estate as I have heretofore provided for. In the event my wife, Willa Jean Rhodes, fails to survive me, then Item V and Item VI are amended so that Citizens State Bank is then to act as the Executor and Trustee of my Estate.

ITEM VII

I have heretofore loaned money to certain of my children from time to time and in addition I have provided money to certain of my children for the purpose of assisting these children in furthering their education. It is my desire that upon my death the amount of money which I have loaned or advanced to my children be charged as an advance of inheritance to the child or children as the case may be. As to such monies as I have loaned to any of my children, it is my intention to maintain records which will show the amount of money loaned or the advancement made, which I desire to be covered by this provision, and my co-executors and co-trustees are charged to carry out this provision in the settlement of my affairs.

ITEM VIII

Beard, one of the subscribing witnesses to said Will, and the Court being sufficiently advised, it is ordered and adjudged that the Will was established to be the Last Will and Testament of the testator and ordered to be recorded, and that Willa Jean Rhodes and Citizens State Bank by Don B. KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, ROBERT MORTON MONARCH, a legal resident of Hardinsburg, Kentucky, hereby revoke all previous Wills and Codicils made by me, and hereby make, declare, and publish this my last Will.

ITEM I

A. I nominate and appoint JOANN TRENT MONARCH of Hardinsburg, Kentucky, as Executrix of this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. If she should fail or cease to serve as Executrix for any reason, then I nominate and appoint as alternative Executor, ROBERT A. RHODES, of Hardinsburg, Kentucky; and I direct that said Executrix and alternate Executor shall serve without bond or compensation.

B. I direct my said Executrix to pay out of my estate, as soon as conveniently may be done after my decease, all of my just debts, funeral and testamentary expenses.

C. I direct my said Executrix to distribute my estate as soon as possible after my death and my said Executrix is authorized to make such distribution in cash or in kind or partly in cash and partly in kind, and my said Executrix is further authorized to distribute my estate subject to any and all indebtedness incurred by me or by my said Executrix which in the opinion of my said Executrix need not first be paid, and subject to any and all mortgages, deeds of trust, or other liens created by me or my said Executrix is authorized to begin distribution of income or Principal from my estate exactly as if any trust created by Item III.C. of this will had been established at the time of my death.

D. I direct that no other action by or intervention of any court shall be necessary except for meeting the minimum requirements relating to the settlement of estates without administration under the laws of the State of Kentucky or any other state in which this Will may be presented for probate.

ITEM II

A. I appoint JOANN TRENT MONARCH, of Hardinsburg, Kentucky as guardian of the person and estate of my surviving minor child or children, if my said wife should fail or cease to serve as guardian for any reason, then I appoint ROBERT A. RHODES, of Hardinsburg, Kentucky, as substitute guardian of the person and estate of my surviving minor child or children, both to serve without bond, security, or surety.

B. I direct that the said guardian or substitute guardian of my said child or children pay all sums reasonably necessary for the proper education, support, maintenance and welfare of said child or children.

ITEM III

A. I give, devise, and bequeath my entire estate, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, to my wife JOANN TRENT MONARCH, to be hers absolutely if she shall survive me by a period of thirty (30) days.

B. I declare that should my said wife, JOANN TRENT MONARCH survive me by thirty (30) days, then I make no provision for my child or children now born unto me or child or children hereafter adopted by me, knowing that my said wife, JOANN, will adequately provide for them out of my estate.

C. If my said wife shall not survive me by at least thirty (30) days, in that event, I give, devise and bequeath in trust to ROBERT A. RHODES, my entire estate, to be held by him for the sole benefit of my children, ROBERT M. MONARCH, JR., SUE ELLEN MONARCH, and any child or children hereafter born to me or adopted by me, if said child or children or issue shall survive me by at least thirty (30) days, to apply the proceeds of my estate in accordance with his sound judgement, for the support and education of said child or children, until such time as said child or children shall or would have attained the age of twenty-one (21), whereupon his or her share of the trust shall then terminate and his or her share shall then be given to such child free of the trust or divided in equal shares among his or her issue by right of representation.

D. In the event the said ROBERT A. RHODES shall fail or refuse for any reason to qualify as trustee of this my Will, then I nominate and appoint as alternate trustee, JOSEPH H. TRENT, of Hardinsburg, Kentucky, with the same powers and authority given to ROBERT A. RHODES.

E. If my said wife and my child or children hereafter born to me or hereafter adopted by me shall not survive me by a period of thirty (30) days, then and only in that event, I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, to ROBERT A. RHODES, of Hardinsburg, Kentucky.

F. In case any person interested in my estate shall contest this Will, in part or in whole, and attempt to prevent the proof thereof, then I declare that such contest and such attempt shall cancel and terminate all provisions for or in favor of the person or persons making or inciting such contest, without regard to whether such contest shall succeed or not; and I hereby declare all and any provisions or provision herein in favor of the person or persons so making such contest, or attempting or inciting the same, to be revoked and of no force and effect.

ITEM IV

A. By the word "issue" wherever used in this Will is meant all of my Legitimate descendants of whatever degree including descendants both by blood and by adoption, providing such adoption is by court proceedings, the finality of which has not been questioned by me. The words "child" or "children" shall also include persons adopted under the same conditions.

B. My wife, JOANN, and I are approximately the same time executing similar wills in which each of us is the recipient of the other's county to a greater or lesser extent; however these wills are not the result of any contract or agreement between us and either will may be revoked at any time at the sole discretion of the maker thereof.

C. If any legatee or devisee of my estate should die simultaneously with me or under such circumstances as to render it difficult or impossible to determine who predeceased the other, I declare that I shall be deemed to have survived such legatee or devisee and that this Will and all of its provisions shall be construed upon that assumption and basis.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, this 10th day of May, 1973, A.D., set my hand and seal to this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, consisting of three (3) typewritten pages, and I have signed my name for the purpose of identification on the margin of Page 1 and 2.

OF
HARVEY LE SIEUR MILLER

I, Harvey Le Sieur Miller, of said State and County, do make and publish this as my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

ITEM I. (a) I wish my body be buried in a suitable manner and a suitable memorial erected at the cost thereof paid out of my estate.

(b) All of my just debts and any unpaid charitable pledges, whether such pledges are legally enforceable or not, shall be paid out of my estate as soon as practicable.

ITEM II. All my household furniture and furnishings, books, pictures, objects of art, silverware, jewelry, clothing and other such personal effects and any automobiles I may own at the time of my death, I give and bequeath to my wife, Isabelle Mattingly Miller, if she is living at the time of my death, and if she is not then living, then to my Trustee hereinafter named for the uses and purposes hereinafter set out.

ITEM III. I give and bequeath any interest that I may have in our home at 1308 Dean Drive, Waycross, Georgia, to my wife, Isabelle Mattingly Miller, to be hers absolutely and in fee simple.

ITEM IV. (a) If my wife, Isabelle Mattingly Miller, survives me (and if we die under such circumstances that it cannot be determined which died first, it shall be presumed that she survives and this bequest shall be effective), I give, devise and bequeath to First National Bank in Waycross as Trustee a part of my estate, selected by my Executor, having a value determined as follows: (1) determine the value of my entire estate passing under this Will, (2) add thereto the value of any and all insurance and other property passing outside of this Will but includable in my estate for federal estate tax purposes, (3) deduct therefrom all debts and expenses of administration allowed as a deduction for federal estate tax purposes but not any estate of inheritance tax, (4) ascertain one-half of the remainder, (5) deduct from such one-half the value of any and all insurance and other property passing to my wife either outside this Will or under any other Item of this Will in such manner as to qualify as a part of the marital deduction under the federal estate tax law, and (6) the remainder of such one-half shall be the value of the part of my estate bequeathed in this Item.

(b) The determination of this bequest and the division of my estate shall be on the basis of values existing on the date of division in the case of property then divided, or on the date of distribution in the case of any property previously distributed, or on such estate tax value as finally determined in the case of any property passing outside of this Will, and this bequest shall carry with it its proportionate part of the income of my estate from the date of my death.

(c) My Executor shall not use to satisfy the bequest in this Item or any part thereof any asset in respect of which no marital deduction would be allowed if such asset passed to my said wife or any asset in respect of which a credit is allowed against United States estate tax for any estate, inheritance, legacy or succession tax imposed by any foreign country or political subdivision thereof, if and to the extent there are other assets sufficient to satisfy this bequest.

(d) Said Trustee shall hold and manage and distribute the property as hereinafter provided.

(e) Said Trustee shall pay over to my said wife all income from said property, in semi-annual or more frequent installments, from the time of my death until her death.

(f) Said Trustee shall be authorized to encroach on the principal of this trust at any time and from time to time in such amounts as the Trustee may deem necessary, taking into consideration any other means of support my said wife may have to the knowledge of the Trustee, to provide for the support in reasonable comfort of my said wife.

(g) My said wife shall have the power at any time and from time to time by instrument in writing signed by her and delivered to the Trustee, to direct the Trustee to turn over any part of the property in this trust to or among such of my descendants, or spouses of such descendants, her descendants or spouses of her descendants, and in such manner, in trust or otherwise, as my said wife may in such instrument direct or appoint, provided that she shall have no power to appoint said property to herself, to her estate, to her creditors or to the creditors of her estate.

(h) On the death of my said wife the property remain in this trust shall be distributed by the Trustee, free of the trust, to such persons and in such manner as my said wife may by her last will and testament direct or appoint, making express reference to this power, including the right in my said wife to appoint said property to her estate. Should my wife fail so to direct or appoint, then said property in this trust shall go over to and become a part of the residue of my estate and be held and distributed in all respects as if it had originally been a part of said residue.

(i) On the death of my said wife said Trustee shall be authorized to withhold distribution of an amount of property sufficient, in its judgment, to cover any liability that may be imposed on said Trustee for estate taxes or other taxes until such liability is finally satisfied.

(c) The Trustee shall also be authorized to encroach on the principal of this trust in such amounts as it may deem necessary in its judgment to provide for the support and reasonable comfort of my said wife, taking into account any other means of support she may have to the knowledge of the Trustee. To the extent practicable, however, I desire my Trustee in making encroachment for the benefit of my wife to encroach first on the trust created for my wife in Item Four hereof before encroaching on this trust; but this request shall not apply to the extent it would be necessary to sell property which in the opinion of the Trustee should not be sold in order to encroach first on such trust.

(d) My said wife shall have the power at any time and from time to time by instrument in writing signed by her and delivered to the Trustee, to direct the Trustee to turn over any part of the property in this trust to or among such of my descendants, or spouses of such descendants, her descendants or spouses of her descendants, and in such manner, in trust or otherwise, as my said wife shall in such instrument direct or appoint, provided that she shall have no power to appoint said property to herself, to her estate, to her creditors or to the creditors of her estate.

ITEM VI. After the death of my wife (or if we die under such circumstances that it cannot be determined who died first, in such case it shall be presumed that she survives me), the property then remaining in the trust established by Item Five, together with any property which passes to this trust from the trust established in Item Four as a result of my wife's failing to exercise the power appointment granted to her in Item Four, will be divided equally into two shares and distributed as follows:

(a) As to the first share, it will be divided into five equal shares and one share will be paid over and distributed to each of the following persons:

Nancy Marshall, 116 Arrowhead Road, Louisville, Kentucky;
 Nell Edwards, 1336 Parkins Mill Road, Greenville, South Carolina;
 Mary Frances Jarboe, 2005 Eastern Parkway, Louisville, Kentucky; Thies Miller, Irvington, Kentucky; and Patricia Mattingly, Hardinsburg, Kentucky.

In the event that one or more of the above named persons are deceased at the time of distribution, then the share of the deceased would have received will then be distributed to the descendants of the deceased per stirpes, if said deceased has such descendants at the date of distribution. If there are no such descendants of the deceased, then this share will be equally divided among the remaining persons noted above, with a per stirpes distribution for any deceased persons' descendants who are not in being at the date of distribution. If at the time of distribution all the above-noted persons are deceased, leaving no descendants in being, then this entire share shall be distributed to the Harvey Le Sieur Miller Charitable Trust hereinafter created.

(b) As to the second share, it will be held in trust by my said Trustee in perpetuity, and will be known as the Harvey Le Sieur Miller Charitable Trust, under the powers hereinafter set out, and the net income from this trust will be paid over annually, or more frequently should said Trustee so decide, to the following charitable institutions or their successors as follows:

St. Joseph Catholic Church, Waycross, Georgia, forty per cent;
 St. John Vianney Seminary, Savannah, Georgia, twenty per cent; and Aidmore Crippled Children's Home, Atlanta, Georgia, forty per cent.

In the event one or more of the above noted charitable institutions ceases to exist and leaves no successor, then the share of income it would have will be equally distributed among the remaining charitable institutions, and in the event all of the above noted charitable institutions cease to exist and leave no successors, the Trustee will thereupon select two new charitable institutions located in the State of Georgia and divide equally the income between them, and if at all possible one such institution should be operated by the Roman Catholic Church or its successors, and the other such institution should be operated for the care, health and benefit of children.

ITEM VII. The provisions made in the Will for my wife and children are in lieu of dower and year's support.

ITEM VIII. All of the bonds, bank accounts, savings accounts, building and loan accounts and other similar property which I may own at the time of my death in the name of myself and/or my said wife shall be the sole property of my said wife and my Executor shall make no claim against her on account thereof.

ITEM IX. My Executor shall make no claim against any person receiving the proceeds of any insurance policy or any money or property transferred by me during my lifetime for any part of the estate taxes assessed against my estate because of such insurance proceeds or such money or property; but shall make claim, if and to the extent permitted by law, for such estate taxes assessed against my estate because of any power or appointment which I may have/

ITEM X. I hereby constitute and appoint as Executor of this Will, First National Bank in Waycross. Wherever First National Bank in Waycross is named herein, it shall be deemed to include any bank or trust company into which First National Bank in Waycross may hereafter be merged or consolidated.

ITEM XI. I hereby constitute and appoint as Trustee of this Will, First National Bank in Waycross. Wherever First National Bank in Waycross is named herein, it shall be deemed to include any bank or trust company into which First National Bank in Waycross may hereafter be merged or consolidated.

ITEM XII. (a) In the management, care and disposition of my estate and of every trust I confer upon the Executor of this Will and the Trustee of every trust created by this Will, and the successors in office, the power to do all things and execute such instruments as may be deemed necessary or proper, including the following powers, all of which may be exercised without order of or report to any court:

(1) To sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any property at any time held or acquired under this Will, at public or private sale, for cash or on terms, without advertisement, including the right to lease for any term notwithstanding the period of the trust, and to grant options to buy for any period including a period beyond the duration of the trust;

(2) To invest all monies in such stocks, bonds, securities, investment company or trust shares, mortgages, notes, choses in action, real estate, improvements thereon, and other property as such Executor or Trustee may deem best without regard to any law now or hereafter in force limiting investments of fiduciaries;

(3) To retain for investment any property or choses in action owned by me at the time of my death, including any stock in such corporate Executor or Trustee;

(4) To vote in person or by proxy any corporate stock or other security and to agree to or take any other action in regard to any reorganization, merger, consolidation, liquidation, bankruptcy or other procedure or proceeding affecting any stock, bond, note or other property;

(6) To compromise, settle and/or adjust any claim or demand by or against said estate or trust and to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement affecting such estate or trust;

(7) To renew any indebtedness, as well as to borrow money, and to secure the same by mortgaging, pledging and/or conveying any property of such estate or trust, including the power to borrow from such Executor or Trustee at a reasonable rate of interest;

(8) To retain and carry on any business in which I may own an interest at the time of my death, to acquire additional interest in any such business, to agree to the liquidation in kind of any corporation in which my estate or trust may have any interest and to carry on the business thereof, to join with other owners in adopting any form of management for any business or property in which my estate or trust may have an interest, to become or remain a partner, general or limited, in regard to any such business or property, to incorporate any such business or property and hold the stock or other securities as an investment, and to employ agents and confer on them authority to manage and operate such business, property or corporation, without liability for the acts of any such agent or for any loss, liability, or indebtedness of such business if the management is selected or retained with reasonable care; in the event of the liquidation of my business, it is my desire that my employees be given an opportunity to purchase said business providing their offer to purchase said business equals or exceeds any other offer made to my said Executor and/or Trustee.

(9) To register any stock, bond, or other security in the name of a nominee, without the addition of words indicating that such security is held in a fiduciary capacity; but accurate records shall be maintained showing that such security is a trust asset and the Executor or Trustee shall be responsible for the acts of such nominee.

(b) Whenever the Executor or Trustee is directed to pay any money to or on behalf of any minor, the Executor or Trustee shall not require the appointment of a guardian, but shall be authorized to pay or deliver the same over to the person having custody of such minor, to pay or deliver the same to such minor without the intervention of a guardian, to pay or deliver the same to a legal guardian of such minor if one has already been appointed, or to use the same for the benefit of such minor.

(c) Whenever the Executor or Trustee is directed to distribute any money or property in fee simple to a person who is then a minor, my Trustee shall be authorized to hold the share of such minor in trust for such minor until he or she becomes twenty-one years of age, and in the meantime shall use such part of the income and/or corpus of the share of such minor as such Trustee may deem necessary to provide for the proper support and education of such minor.

(d) Whenever the Trustee is authorized or directed to make payment to a beneficiary, the Executor may, during the period of administration, make such payment directly to the beneficiary.

(e) No Executor or Trustee shall be required to file any inventory or appraisal or any annual or other returns or reports to any court or to give bond, but shall furnish a statement of receipts to any court or to give bond, but shall furnish a statement of receipts and disbursements at least annually to each person then entitled to income from my estate or any trust.

(f) My Executor or Trustee shall have discretion to determine whether items should be charged or credited to income or principal or allocated between income and principal as the Executor or Trustee in its discretion may deem equitable and fair under all the circumstances, including the power to amortize or fail to amortize any part or all of the profit resulting from the maturity or sale of any asset, whether purchased at a premium or at a discount, as income or principal or apportion the same between income and principal, to prevent any income or principal or apportion the same between income and principal or principal or apportion the same between income and principal, to charge any expense against income or principal or apportion the same, and to provide or fail to provide a reasonable reserve against depreciation or obsolescence in any asset subject to to depreciation or obsolescence, all as the Executor or Trustee may reasonably deem equitable and just under all the circumstances.

(g) The income on the part of my estate used to pay debts, taxes, expenses, general legacies and other such corpus charges, shall go to the income beneficiaries of the residuum of my estate and shall not be added to the principal thereof.

(h) My Executor or Trustee shall be authorized to make any election permitted by any tax law, including the filing of joint returns, and the consenting to have gifts made by my spouse treated as if made partially by me, if in the opinion of the Executor or Trustee such election is for the combined best interest of my estate and the beneficiaries thereof, and shall be authorized to make, or fail to make, such adjustment between the parties or the several bequest or accounts as such Executor or Trustee may deem equitable and just under all the circumstances.

(i) My Executor and the Trustee of any trust created by this Will shall be authorized to sell any property to or to purchase any property from any other trust created by this Will or created by me during life, or from the estate of my spouse or from any trust created by my spouse by will or during life, at the fair market value thereof as determined by the Executor or Trustee, even though the same person or corporation may be acting as Trustee of any of such other trusts or as Executor of my spouse's estate and as my Executor or Trustee of the trusts hereunder.

ITEM XIII. I have confidence in the investments which will be found in my estate at the time of my death and I direct that no change need be made by my Executor or Trustee in these investments solely for the purpose of creating a diversity of investment, but my Executor or Trustee shall be authorized to sell or otherwise dispose of such investments if and to the extent my Executor or Trustee deems to the best interest of my estate or each trust, without being constrained to do so.

ITEM XIV. Knowing that during the administration of my estate matters will necessarily arise requiring the services of an attorney, I request my Executor to employ John G. Kopp as counsel not only to probate my Will but also to represent my estate in any and all other matters of a legal nature.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal to this my Will, this the 24th day of February, 1967.

(b) If, at any time or times during the continuance of Trust A for the benefit of said MARY L. HOOK, she should need funds in addition to those provided by the aggregate of the net income from Trust A, and the net income from her separate estate or coming to her from other sources, in order to provide for her welfare, or health or her support and maintenance in the same standard of living as she enjoyed at my death, or to provide for unforeseen emergencies, then in any such event the Trustee may, upon the request of my said wife, encroach upon the corpus of Trust A and pay to her or apply for her benefit such amounts as may be necessary to satisfy the needs of my wife as hereinabove set forth. No person shall question any encroachment so made.

(c) Upon the death of the said MARY L. HOOK, Trust A shall terminate and the remainder of the corpus of Trust A then in the Trustee's hands shall pass to such persons and in such portions as the said MARY L. HOOK, by her Last Will and Testament, may appoint, and she may appoint the entire corpus of Trust A free of trust, in favor of herself or her estate, or in favor of either or both, or in favor of anyone else.

(4) Only assets which, for the purposes of calculating Federal estate tax, qualify for the marital deduction shall be allotted to the fractional share passing in trust for the benefit of my said wife as hereinabove provided. However, my personal representative may make said allotment in kind, or partly in kind and partly in money; and if it makes said allotment wholly or partly in kind, then (a) it may select and allot to that portion of the residue passing for the benefit of my wife in trust hereunder, the specific asset or assets so selected, (b) said allotment shall carry with it (as income and not as corpus) its proportionate share of the income of my estate from the date of my death and (c) said income may be distributed to my said Trustee before distribution of any portion of the residue to my said Trustee. (c) The shares set apart for the children of James P. Kunau shall be held in trust as herein provided until the youngest child, Carolyn Kunau, shall attain her 25th birthday. A share shall then be held, administered and controlled by the Trustee for the use and benefit of each such child upon the same terms and conditions as the shares of the trust estate are held, administered and controlled for the use and benefit of the children of my deceased son, James P.
