

FRANCES ETHERTON, WILL

I, Frances Etherton, of Cloverport, Breckinridge County, Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, and wishing to make just disposition of all of my worldly effects, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former or other Wills or Testamentary writings, of whatsoever nature, heretofore made or signed by me.

FIRST: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executor as soon after my death as possible.

SECOND: I give and bequeath to my sons, Paul Kinney, Raymond Board and my daughter, Alean Uselton, all of the remainder of my estate, both real and personal, of every kind and whatsoever and wheresoever situated, share and share alike. In the event my son Raymond Board does not pay his proportionate part of the taxes and necessary upkeep on my property, whatever such proportionate part may be shall be deducted from the part due him under the conditions of this Will.

THIRD: I nominate and appoint my daughter, Alean Uselton, executrix of this my last Will and direct that she carry out the provisions of same, and request that she be permitted to qualify as such without having to execute any bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this the 24th day of April 1946.

Frances Etherton

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

ALLEN COVINGTON PUMPHREY

I, Allen Covington Pumphrey, a resident of Westview, Kentucky do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I, direct that all of my just debts, my funeral expenses, and the cost of administration of my estate be paid as soon as practicable after my death.

ARTICLE II

I direct that my Executor pay out of my residuary estate, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance, succession and other taxes (together with any interest or penalty thereon), assessed by reason of my death, imposed by the Government of the United States, or any State or territory thereof, or by a foreign Government or political subdivision thereof, in respect of all property required to be included in my gross estate for estate or like tax purposes by any such governments, whether the property passes under this will or otherwise, including property over which I have a power of appointment, without contribution by an recipient of any such property.

ARTICLE III

I devise to my wife, Margaret Elizabeth Pumphrey, if she shall survive me, my residence and the lot on which the said residence is located (the said lot not to exceed one (1) acre) located on the West side of Kentucky Highway 259, five (5) miles South of Harned, Kentucky. If, at the time of my death, I shall no longer be using said property as my residence, then this devise shall be void and of no effect, provided, however, that if at the time of my death I shall own and be using any other house and lot as my residence, then in such event I devise such other house and lot to my said wife, Margaret Elizabeth Pumphrey, if she shall survive me.

ARTICLE IV

I, bequeath to my wife, Margaret Elizabeth Pumphrey, in fee, all my household goods, personal effects and her choice of any automobile owned by me at the time of my death. If my said wife shall not survive me then the aforesaid property shall be made part of my residuary estate and distributed in accordance therewith.

ARTICLE V

I bequeath ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000.00) to the Harned Cemetery located in Harned, Kentucky to be used by the said cemetery for the upkeep of the cemetery.

ARTICLE VI

I direct that, after satisfying all the bequests and devises hereinabove made and after the payment of all administration expenses and death taxes as hereinabove provided, my Executor shall deliver and convey all the remainder of my residuary estate, both real and personal, and wheresoever situated, including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this Will, including all lapsed legacies and devises to THE LOUISVILLE TRUST COMPANY of Louisville, Kentucky as Trustees. Said LOUISVILLE TRUST COMPANY shall hold, manage and control all of the aforesaid property as a Trust Estate, with all of the rights and powers and subject to the limitations hereinafter enumerated for the following uses and purposes:

A. The Trustees shall collect the income from the property comprising the Trust Estate, pay all taxes and incidental expenses of the Trust, and shall disburse from income and/or principal an amount up to FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($500.00) per month in monthly or other convenient installments, to my wife, Margaret Elizabeth Pumphrey, until her death or remarriage whichever of such events shall first occur.

B. I hereby authorize and empower the Trustees in its sole and absolute discretion at any time and from time to time, to disburse from the principal of the Trust Estate created under this Article (even to the point of completely exhausting the same), such additional amounts over and above the FIVE HUNDRED ($500.00) per month distribution authorized in Paragraph A. of this Article as it may deem advisable to provide for her maintenance and support in accordance with the standard of living to which she became accustomed during my life, or if by reason of illness, emergency or any extraordinary or unusual circumstances.

See back of original and back of will of Allen Covington Pumphrey in file at page 100

In determining the amounts of principal to be so disbursed, the Trustee shall take into consideration any other income or property which my wife may have from any other source; and the Trustee's discretion shall be conclusive as to the advisability of any such disbursement and the same shall not be questioned by anyone. For all sums so disbursed, the Trustee shall have full acquittance.

C. Upon the death or remarriage of my wife (or upon my death if she shall not survive me), the Trustee shall divide the corpus of the Trust Estate into six (6) equal shares.

Two (2) of said equal shares shall be distributed to the following named institutions.

1. Old Masons Home, of Shelbyville, Kentucky

2. Masonic Widows and Orphans Home, of St. Matthews, Kentucky

ARTICLE VII

I hereby appoint the LOUISVILLE TRUST COMPANY of Louisville, Kentucky, to be the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. I direct that no surety be required on the bond of THE LOUISVILLE TRUST COMPANY as Executor hereunder.

ARTICLE VIII

I hereby grant to my Executor and also to the Trustees of each Trust established hereunder (including any substitute or successor, personal representative of Trustees) the continuing, absolute, discretionary power to deal with any property, real or personal, held in my estate or in any Trust, as freely as I might in handling of my own affairs. Such power may be exercised independently and without the prior or subsequent approval of any Court or judicial authority, and no person dealing with the Executor or Trustees shall be required to inquire into the propriety of any of their actions. Without in any way limiting the generalities of the foregoing, I hereby grant to my Executor and also to any Trustees hereunder, the following specific powers and authority in addition to and not in substitution of powers conferred by law:

A. To sell, exchange, assign, transfer and convey any security or property, real or personal, held in my estate or in any Trust Fund, at public or private sale, at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as it may determine.

B. To invest and reinvest in such stocks, bonds and other securities and properties as it may deem advisable including stocks and unsecured obligations, undivided interest, interest in investment trusts, mutual funds, legal and discretionary common trust funds, leases, and property which is outside of my domicile, all without diversification as to kind or amount without being restricted in any way by any statute or Court decision (now or hereafter existing) regulating or limiting investments by fiduciaries.

C. To borrow money (from itself individually or from others) upon such terms and conditions as it may determine and to mortgage and pledge estate and trust assets as security for the repayment thereof.

D. To lease any real estate for such term, or terms and upon such conditions and rentals and in such manner as it may deem advisable, and any lease so made shall be valid and binding for the full term thereof even though same shall extend beyond the duration of the Trust. To make
