In the name of God Amen. I Thomas Summers being of sound mind and memory but calling to mind the mortality of my body and the immortality of my soul and that it is appointed for men once to die and after death to come to Judgment I resign my soul to God who gave it and my body to the earth till the glorious morning of the resurrection where I hope through the merits of Christ to be placed at the right hand of God. And do for my body my will and desire is that it may be buried in a decent and Christian like manner and all my just debts paid by Basil Summers and his mother Maryann Summers and as for my worldly goods God has been pleased to bless me with I give and bequeath in the following manner to wit, I give unto my loving wife Maryann Summers and Basil Summers my one my plantation whereon I now live and all my land with its appurtenances that belongs to it and in a word all I possess in the world to be theirs for ever except the following legacies I give to my children out of the above estate or to be made up and paid to them in one or two years as is as follows. I give unto my son Richard Summers One Dollar and no more. I give unto Charles Summers One Dollar of my estate and no more. I give unto Polly Mackley One Dollar of my estate and no more. I give unto Matilda Summers One dollar of my estate and no more. I give unto John Summers One dollar of my estate and no more. I give unto Rachael May One dollar of my estate and no more. I give unto Thomas Summers my son one dollar and no more. I give unto Penny Summers Fifty Dollars and no more of my estate the above estate as is my

Will to have in the hand of my loving wife and my son Basil for the use of wife and the said Basil Summers is not to sell or waste any of my estate without the consent of his Mother my wife nor the Mother is not to sell or give away any part of the estate without the consent of her son Basil Summers and also there is a Note in my hands which calls for ten hundred Dollars on William Hume that Note if ever collected it is my will that fifty dollars of that Note shall be Bannys Summers and other fifty dollars to be paid and his Mother and my loving wife is to hold the above estate as long as she remain my widow or until death, then the whole estate belongs to my son Basil Summers for ever as declaring this only to be my last will and Testament as written by my hand and seal this 3<sup>d</sup> of March 1826.

Signed sealed and delivered by him, of their ability to do and perform this request the said Wilson and have me to be the sole Judge each in his own case. I give to my little grand daughter Elizabeth Brown my set of silver Table spoons. I also do hereby release manuscript and set free my old servant Alice and should she live to become helpless I leave my son Basil to see that she does not suffer for food and cloth.

 I give to my son Samuel my house Bible. I give to my negro woman age 40 my kaiser which I bought of her some time ago. I give to my grand daughter Lydia Ann Elizabeth Michlipf May Bess and furniture which I have at this time at her father's I give to my grand son Robert Michlipf my cott which I have heretofore given to him. I give to Ann Milson my daughter my riding Mare. Some time ago assigned to my daughter Margaret Michlipf the claim which I have against the H. Melcombs in controversy in Bullitt to wit the benefit of a Judge court assigned me by the Order of my late Husband Samuel Brown this gift is also confirm. Whatev other property I may have I desire to be equally divided between my four affectionate children Margaret Bess Ann and Samuel. In testimony of this done and published as aforesaid Will and Testament I have in this 19th August 1825 signed the same and caused it to be witnessed in my presence and at my request.
