19 I Stephen Hilton the old and impotent yet rational have directed my clerk to write this Instrument of writing to be Recorded in the Registes as a perpetual testimony of this my last will and testament which I now make in the presence of god and the subscribing witnesses. First I commit my spirit to my god who gave it, and I desire that this frail body when I die may be decently interred by my surviving friends and neighbors.

Second. I bequeath all I possess both real and personal to my beloved Wife Eliza and son William to be held by them in common, but on this condition that my Wife may at her death have the disposal of the personal Estate but the real Estate shall forever appertain to my son William.

to be held or disposed of by him after the death of his Mother as he shall think proper. But should my Wife survive my Son, in this case my Wife shall become the sole proprietor of the estate both real and personal. Unto this my last Will and Testament I have set my hand and affixed my seal this 29th day of December in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and nine
