W^{ts} J Hallbert 6th Feb 1817.

In the name of god amen I John Brown of Bullets County and state of Kentucky being made of body but of sound mind and disposing mind and memory blessed be god for the same feeling to mind that it is desired that all men should die do concerning it necessary to prevent disputes hereafter and as an act of justice to my children, to dispose of what worldly goods the Lord has given me do make and declare this as my last will and testament revoking all others by me hereafter made.

In witness I give my soul to the Almighty hoping that he will receive it and bless and save it at the day of judgement.

Now It is my will and desire that after my death my executors hereafter named should care my body to be buried in a decent and Christian like manner.

Now It is my will and desire that in case my land lying in Bullets County Kentucky, should be paid my executors should sell the same for the best price that can be had and the money arising therefrom to be equally divided between all my children except my son Alexander. My son in law William Allen and if the land should be lost or taken away that the value of the improvement should be equally divided between all my children.

Now It is my will and desire that all my personal estate which I may die seized and possessed of should be sold and the proceeds appropriated towards the discharge of all my debts just debts and funeral expenses and if any money remains that the same shall be divided among all my children equally.

Now It is my will that the expenses attending the settlement of my estate about my land should be equally paid by all my children.

The devise which I have herein named to my children I give to them and their heirs forever.

Lastly I appoint Joseph Davis and my son Samuel Brown Executors of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have set my hand and affixed my seal this 6th day of February in the year four thousand eight hundred and seventeen

John A. Brown
