I John Cameron of Bullitt County and State of Kentucky being of sound and disposing mind and memory but of advanced age and under the consideration that my dearest children Archibald and Anne according to the Established Course of Nature be very remote do make and Ordain this to be my last Will and Testament. That it is my Will that whatever lands I shall be possessed of or entitled to shall be sold in and belong to my Beloved Brother The Reverend Archibald Cameron of Shelby County and State of said to him and his heirs forever. 2^d It is my Will that whatever Slaves I shall possess or be entitled to at my death shall vest in my said Beloved Brother Archibald Cameron to be held by him his heirs &c in Trust for my two Nephews Archibald Brown and John Brown to be given to them by my said Brother when and in such parcels as he shall in his discretion think most prudent during his life. But at his death the said Slaves are to be sold in and belong to my said Nephews Archibald Brown and John Brown or the Survivors of them. If either of them shall have departed this life without lawful issue living at the death of my said Brother then the other is to have the whole of my Slaves and if both of them shall have departed this life without lawful issue before the death of my said Brother then the said Slaves are to be sold in and belong to my said Brother at his discretion and in failure of Cash ^{issue} ~~issue~~ are to be sold to his heirs as the law may direct. My Slaves now in children families I am unwilling that the family chain among them should be broken and therefore recommend it my Brother to be respectful of the Family ties and sympathy which exist among them in any disposition he may make among them. I ^{also} ~~also~~ the like recommendation to my Nephews in ^{relation} ~~relation~~ to the said Slaves when they shall have come into their possession.
 3^d All the balance of my personal Estate whatever kind or description is hereby given to my said Brother Archibald Cameron charged with the payment of whatever debts I may owe at my decease. I Call my Nephew and appoint my said Brother Archibald Cameron the Sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament and having unfeignedly confessed in him the duty of that he said shall be required of him by the County Court when he takes upon himself the Executive duties herein enjoined. The Court is required to record him as my Executor without inquiring of him any bond or security whatever for the performance of his duty or any oath for the true performance thereof given under my hand and seal this 7th day of
