In the room of good dinner. I thank him of Belitt's house and state of things. He made and deliver this my last Will and Testament in the following manner. First I sing my soul into the hands of almighty God, hoping and believing in the merits of my sin, by the merit and mediation of Jesus Christ - my body I commit to the earth, to be buried at the discretion of my executors. I then after prayer, and my worldly estate I give and devise as follows. First I give and devise to my beloved wife Catherine himmors one hundred acres of land, where he now lives. It being one half of Nelsons Run, and four Acres of Land, Midway Old and Young Creek and Williams, a hill and bottom. The Wagon and gear also a third of my stock such as cattle, sheep and hogs, together with two Hens two Aps, and one place during her natural life. Likewise I constitute make and ordain my son James himmors the sole Executor of his my last Will & Testament. The property I give to the above mentioned Executor James himmors is as follows. The tract of land bought of William Denton, containing one hundred and twenty acres, with the exception of fifteen acres; likewise a small tract of land, being a part of a hundred and thirty bought of Richard Pitt Rogers at William Dentons third house, a White Oak timbering two of his Aps, three small hogs, 10 lbs. Salt pork to a pepper stump, borne to said Denton, Williams and James.
