

In the name of God. Amen. I Robert Bagby of the County of Campbell and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following. 1st I give to my son William Bagby all the property I have heretofore possessed him with to him and his heirs forever. 2^d I give to Elizabeth Bagby all the property that I possessed her husband with during the term of her natural life and after her decease, I give the same to her children, to be equally divided among them, to them & their heirs forever. 3^d I give to my daughter Nancy Price all the property I have heretofore possessed her with, to her and her heirs forever. 4th I give to my son in law Thomas Lewis all the property I have heretofore possessed him with, and also the sum of One dollar to him and his heirs forever. 5th Whereas my daughter Judith Vickers is married to William Vickers, and he does not attend to the interest of his wife and family, in manner I could wish, and it is my wish and desire, that she and her children should have something to support them, separate and independent of her husband William Vickers, therefore give and devise two negroes (wint) Samueel and Abrahams, one horse and saddle, one cow and calf, one bed and furniture now in her possession, to my sons David Bagby and his heirs forever in trust that they and his heirs shall and will apply the said negroes, Samueel and Abrahams, horse and saddle, cow and calf, bed and furniture to the support and maintenance of my said daughter Judith, and her children, during the life of her husband William Vickers, and after his death, the said property above mentioned and all the increase that may arise thereon, to be applied to the sole use and benefit of my daughter Judith Vickers, and her heirs forever, and is to be considered as her absolute property, and not liable to satisfy any debts whatsoever of the said William Vickers. 6th I give to my daughter Sally Plann, all the property I have heretofore possessed her with to her and her heirs forever. 7th I give to my son Charles Bagby all the property I have heretofore possessed him with, to him and his heirs forever. 8th I give to my son David Bagby, all the property I have heretofore possessed him with, to him and his heirs forever. 9th I give and devise two Negroes, namely Morick & Phillis, also one horse, one cow and calf and one feather Bed and furniture to David Bagby, in trust, for the use and benefit of my daughter Theodosia Bagby, to be held by him for and during the term of her natural life to be applied by him the said David Bagby to the use benefit support and maintenance of her my said daughter Theodosia and her heirs and no other whatever And at her death, in case she should have no heirs, I give the above mentioned property with all its increase that may arise thereon to the Heir of my said daughter Theodosia, and be considered their absolute property and enjoyed by them forever. But be it known that in case my said daughter Theodosia should die without an Heir, that then and in that case, I give the above mentioned property with all its increase to Lucy Bagby, daughter of Charles Bagby, and in case my said grand child Lucy should die without an Heir, my will and desire is, that the above mentioned property be equally divided among all my children or their descendants—meaning and intending that the Wives of Robert Bagby shall have an equal part. — 10th I give to a brother Wang all the property I have heretofore possessed her with to her and her heirs forever. 11th I give to my son James Bagby all the property I have heretofore possessed him with, also one Bed and furniture and one cow and calf and the tract of land whereon snow lives containing two hundred and fifty acres—to him and his heirs forever. 12th It is my further will and desire, and I do order and direct that the whole of the residue of my estate both real and personal of every nature and kind whatever be by my Executor hereafter named sold—and out of the money arising from such sale all my just debts be first paid. And after such debts are paid, I give to my children the following legacies out of the money arising from such sale Viz. To William Bagby the sum of six hundred dollars and fifty cents to him and his heirs forever. To Elizabeth Bagby, widow of Robert Bagby the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to her and her heirs forever. To Nancy Price the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to her and her heirs forever. To Charles Bagby the sum of six hundred dollars to him and his heirs forever. To David Bagby the sum of six hundred dollars to him and his heirs forever. And should there remain a residue after my debts, and the above legacies are paid, my will and desire is, that it be equally divided among all my children or their descendants—meaning and intending that Elizabeth Bagby, widow of Robert Bagby shall have an equal part which I give to them and their heirs forever. Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my sons David Bagby, Executor of this my last will and Testament. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 23rd day of March, One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

Signed sealed and declared by the testator to be his last will and Testament in the presence of
