and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory do this 28th day of August 1807 make publish this my last will and Testament in manner following to wit I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth King, during her widowhood, all my estate both real and personal (for the support of her self & family who it is my desire) should be kept together, during her said term of widowhood, and finally I give bequeath to my two sons John & George the tract of land or plantation whereon I now live, after they come of age, provided my said wife Elizabeth shall have married or deceased, but if she shall live & continue single, she is to retain the same in full and complete possession as stated in the first article. And I will I give and bequeath to my daughters Rebecca Jane, Margaret, Elizabeth, Rebecca and Mary King, all my personal estate of every kind to be equally divided amongst them after the decease of my wife Elizabeth King or separation of her widowhood, and fourth I do ordain & establish that my son John King & George King whenever they shall come into complete possession of the afore mentioned land agreeably to the true intent and meaning of the first article of this my last will and Testament, shall give to each of my daughters a freehold, to wit, Rebecca Jane Margaret Elizabeth, Rebecca & Mary or so many of them as may be living at that time, on that or more and paid to be estimated at one thousand dollars. And I hereby make, and ordain my worthy friend Thomas Garvin and Joseph Franklin together with my wife Elizabeth King, Executors of this my last will and Testaments. On witness whereof I the said
