

Having reexamined the settlement made by Ben. W. Cotton and Robert Coleman, commissioners appointed by the county court with me as administrators of James and Ethelred—Scaggins I have discovered the following mistakes 1st that instead of ninety six dollars and twenty five cents found by them as due me, there is only thirteen Dollars twenty seven cent 2nd I am entitled with the following sums to which I am not entitled being through mistake to wit 1st of Henry Morris twelve Dollars thirty seven and a half cents and six dollars for same also twenty Dollars paid Dr. to Dr. which sums amount to thirty eight Dollars thirty seven and a half cents deducting from which thirteen dollars twenty seven cents the correct balance as stated above, leaves me entitled to the estate twenty five Dollars ten and a half cents
