Court of Christian at the November term to examine the account of William Armistrong John Wilson & also the account of the Estate of John Dyer deceased as trustees & administrators thereof and make Report, in pursuance whereof we have examined the said Armistrong's account concerning December 1814 with produce vouchers for disbursements to the amount of $96.96 cents, the Balance of 76 Account of John Dyer is not in writing susceptible of positive proof that they are such as the said Armistrong in his representation upon it was bound and ought to have performed and consequently is paid in this suit, the charge and reasonable and in our opinion to be allowed. This is and should be in account for commissions on money collected and disbursed by him to the amount ascertained in the said settlement with Samuel and John McLean of the State of Tennessee Washington Agt. before the present settlement we find he has disbursed $96.96 cents making in the whole in the whole of disbursed money under the peculiar circumstances of this administration we think two per cent on the money received and spent but a reasonable compensation
