In the hands of God Amen. I Mary Harrison of the County of Christian and State of Tennessee being asked in Court out of sound mind and disposing memory for which I have sworn and calling to mind that it is appointed for me to appear and to die I recommend my soul to God who gave it and my body to the Earth to be interred in a decent manner at the discretion of my family.

64. I please God to his wife. I desired that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid. I have my female relatives above named here and her five children Abraham and Jane to be free at my death. I bequeath all the rest of my estate (of what nature or kind ever it may be not known before particularly disposed of) to be equally divided between my five daughters Rachel, the wife of Sept Harrison and Hannah the wife of William Priddy. I this lastly I do hereby constitute my son-in-law Sept Harrison and William Priddy executors of my last will and Testament, each, executing all other or former wills or Testaments by me heretofore made.

In writing whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and signed my name this tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty two signed, sealed, published as the last will of the above named Mary Harrison in the presence of us.

Wm. Porter

The foregoing report of the Commissioner appointed by a former order of this Court to review the estate of Frederick Cook has this day returned into Court examined, approved, and ordered to be recorded. In testimony whereof, and that the same is truly returned on my office of said County Court, I have hereunto set my hand.

Wm. Porter

Pursuant to an order of the Christian County Court to us directed at their November Term, 1876.

Being first duly sworn have proceeded to audit and lay off by proper maps and bounds to chimney, drive, widow and relief of Frederick Arnes Deceased her account of the real estate of said Deceased.

(First) Beginning at a stake standing twenty poles south of a shagbark and black oak, the beginning corner of a one hundred acre survey located in the name of David Young and patented in the name of Frederick Arnes running thence North 87° West 160 poles to the North East corner of a military survey known by the name of Lewis survey, thence North 80 poles to a stake thence East 90 poles to a stake in the line of the original survey thence South with said line 10 poles to the beginning to make 387 poles being in King said Arnes (Power of the real estate of her deceased husband).

But in consequence of some considered accounts we did not feel ourselves warranted to undertake to audit her, her power of the personal estate January 2nd 1877.

James Cook
Deputy Clerk
Querry Miller

Christian County Court

September Term 1877.

The foregoing report of the Commissioner appointed to audit the power of chimney, etc. in the estate of Frederick Arnes was this day returned into Court, examined, approved, and ordered to be recorded. In testimony whereof, and that the same together with this certificate are truly recorded in my office of said County Court, I have hereunto set my hand.

Wm. Porter

In the name of God, Amen.

I Richard Reed of the State of Kentucky and County of Christian, Farmer, finding myself sick and in a low state of health, feeble mind and memory, as of a free and voluntary choice make a disposition of my real and personal property as follows. In the first place I recommend my land to be sold and given to the poor of my County and to the poor of the State.

92. I have also written to my wife, Jane, to have a lot of land, known by the name of Jones, located between my land and the land of John S. Jones & daughter & my son Benjamin in Row more old V. my note. I have also bequeathed to my daughter Sarah one bed & furniture. I have also bequeathed all of my personal property, that is the property, that will not be of use in the family, shall be disposed to the highest bidder & the proceeds to be kept in a bank to be equally divided amongst the widow & orphans at the time of removal or death of my family. I have also bequeathed that my land shall be disposed of in the same way as the property in Row more. I bequeathed that all my property, that is left for the use of my family when said family is either deceased or removed shall be disposed to sale to the highest bidder & the proceeds to be kept in a bank to be equally divided when the said property is disposed of. I will that each legatee shall have his or her portion of it when he or she becomes of age or when married.

I do nominate & appoint my beloved wife Elizabeth my Executor and my much respected friend John Boyd my Executor to carry out my last will & testament.

Whereas I have a suit pending in the Court of equity wherein I am complainant & James Boyce is defendant, when said suit is decided if against me I will that all the costs shall be paid out of my estate but if I obtain said suit I will that the proceeds shall be equally divided between my widow & orphans, I will that all my just debts shall be discharged with the proceeds of my estate.

In testimony whereof I have set my hand and seal this day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & seven & in the forty first year of American independence in presence of

William Dixon
