In the name of God, Amen, I James K. Ewing of Christian County State of Kentucky, being weak in body but of sound mind and memory, do make and assign this my last will & testament, and manner & form as follows: That is to say, I will that my body be buried in a decent & Christian manner at the discretion of my Executors & they and to God who gave it, as it respects the property I am now possessed of I bequeath as follows. I will that all my just and lawful debts be paid. I leave my wife Sarah all her wearing apparel with all my household & kitchen furniture, bed & bedclothes, also one silver man's colden chair with her own saddle & bridle with necessary as I have here after named.

I will that the slaves I am now possessed of as follows. Allen to be equally divided between my wife Sarah & my daughter Rachel Mc Ewing when my daughter arrives to the age of twenty one, if she be then living she should not so long to be equally divided between my wife Sarah & my son Nathaniel & Ewing & until my daughter arrives to twenty one, I allow my wife Sarah to be hired out except when the family may want her at home, & the money be put to the use of the family. I also allow my daughter Rachel McEwing one of the cows, & the other for it out of the above named bed & cloth, also one third of all the household & kitchen furniture as soon as she may need it. I further allow my daughter Rachel McEwing one horse, bridle & saddle, when she arrives to the age of twenty one, I give & bequeath to my son Nathaniel McEwing one negro boy named Milton when he shall arrive to the age of twenty one, until that time come, I will that he be in the family, for use thereof, during the widowhood of my wife, & when she should need again I give Milton to be hired out for the use of my wife & Ewing. I will that such of the farming utensils as may be wanted necessary for the use of the family remain in it, during the widowhood of my wife, & when she should want them to be used to my son Nathaniel McEwing.

I will that the whole of my stock of cattle & sheep, as soon as the family for the use thereof, during the widowhood of my wife
