The foregoing inventory and appraisement of the estate of John Brady, Dec^d has been examined and approved and ordered to be recorded. In testimony whereof, and after the same together with this certificate are duly recorded in my office of said County Court, I have hereunto set my hand.

In the name of God Amen.

I Joseph Gamble of this County of Cheshire and state of Kentucky being very weak as body but in perfect mind and memory thinketh he should, looking to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, I do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, first and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of him that giveth, and my Body to the Earth to be buried in a decent Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors, and as touching such worldly estate as it has pleased God to bestow upon me with in this life I give devise and bequeath of the same in the following manner and form Viz.

First, I give and bequeath to my wife Betty Gamble the plantation the plantation whereon we now live, to be at her disposal during life then to be sold, and equally divided among all my children. It is also my will that my other plantation shall be sold, when my daughter Mary Gamble comes to be of age, and the money to be equally divided among my children. I desire to receive her part thereof when and the other children's parts to be put out at interest so that they may receive it as they become of age. It is my will that the property arising from both plantations to the time of sale, shall be for the maintenance and benefit of my wife and children - It is also my will that my wife Betty Gamble should have all my personal property to be at her disposal (with the consent and advice of my Executors) for the use of maintaining and schooling my children. It is my will that my children should be well educated, in particular the boys. All notes and Bonds due to me or that may become due, I want immediately collected and all my just debts paid, the balance to be disposed of as my wife shall direct. I may think most beneficial for the family and for the use of my wife Betty, I want all the property that may then remain if any together with the above plantation that I now live on to be sold and the money equally divided among my children. I do make, constitute and appoint my Trust friends William Smith, and John my Executors, my sole and
