advisable for the purpose of Discharging the whole of my Debt. It is my most earnest wish and desire that my Mill and Distillery may be placed under the direction of some good managing Managin and be conducted to the best advantage for the Benefit of the Estate And that my Negroes may be all kept together as they now are for the mutual benefit of my Wife and Children, of the practicability of these Measures my aforementioned Exor can hereafter better Judge and my Act Accordingly at the discretion of the Court from experience or by other means that the Mill & Distillery Farm & Negroes cannot be kept together and Managed as best for them my Exor may see or Act both the Mill & Distillery
