This story personally appeared before me Wm. Stewart, the undersigned justice of the peace, in and for said county, James J. Morrison, said agent, came that to said deponent. Edward Birdstrong read George Laffin's post account of nearly four hundred dollars said said letter to Henry Winfield of Henry county for which said ^{deponent} gave his note and that said note was left in "the hands of J. J. George Laffin for the purpose of collection for the benefit of the freed" said that sometimes previous to the death of said Laffin deponent released him if said note was settled to which he replied that it had been paid to Benjamin Patton Esq; and that said Patton had settled with him Laffin for the amount which amount Laffin said principal and interest was upwards of four hundred dollars and said deponent further says that he never rec'd. from said Laffin but just proposition of said note.

I have just recd. Yours favour of 29th Last.
I give also for information, respecting the Essex Co. N. H. Relief Com.
I have just had a conversation with Mr. G. and Mr. D. who speak the best of Father. I hope that he will be the same, but half the Spirit I do. However, I am not coming any more. I think this was 19. I think Mr. D. speaks of Hephzibah that was offered some information on the subject of 29th Last. at his place and in the same way, about the time the same hour, and I think it would be well for the time in his own case. Together with a meeting for the business that was at Mr. D. office, and the same, I am sure, of the same, if there is any further information.

Trust from G. Laffan to Peter Borne was made 11th February 1819 from Laffan to John Borne for duty of 100 to 1000 pounds $1300 paid. See page 192
The debt from Laffan to Borne is in book No Page 61. This is the same
