and memory and that they subscribed their names as witnesses at his request James Hunt and George Hunt being examined on their Oaths concerning the said amended will the said William Collins the testator signed and sealed it with his own proper hands and published the same and they believed him to be in his proper senses and that they at his request signed their names as witnesses to the same given under my hand and seal in the County aforesaid this 18th day of August 1829

Christian County Court

The foregoing last will & testament of William Collins was made at January Court 1829 perused and proven by the Oath of J. G. Bell a subscribing witness thereto to be the act & deed of said testator and testament of said decedent and on this day again perused and proven by the said J. G. Bell as follows. In State that holding the signatures of James Hunt & George Hunt were made by them as witnesses to said will & that they told him so. It is therefore admitted to record.

John Black Clerk

I Josiah Harrison of the County of Williams & State of Kentucky do make this my last will & testament. Now it is my will that all my best debts shall be paid by my Executors who will be here for me when I die. Now it is my will that my wife Margaret Harrison shall have the whole of my Estate real & personal during her natural life. Now it is my will at the death of my wife my nephew Josiah Harrison son of my brother Newton Harrison shall have that part of my land lying & being north of Little River which I have promised for my son-in-law George Harrison's son-in-law Now it is my will at the death of my wife my nephew George shall be free & have the whole of my land lying 196 field & a small strip of unimproved land beginning at a point of view near the corner of said field and running with an old land in the direction of the river until it reaches a ditch on my line. The said land lies north of said old land and I purpose death the land given to him will pass to my nephew Josiah. Now it is my will that my nephew Josiah Harrison shall pay to Margaret & Matilda Burgett one thousand dollars when they shall arrive to the age of eighteen years provided the said Josiah Harrison be in the possession of that part of my estate given to him then or as soon thereafter as he gets the possession thereof he shall pay the aforesaid legacy. Now it is my will that my executors shall see that part of my land lying and being south of Little River with the whole of my personal estate not otherwise disposed of the proceeds of which when finally collected I devise to be equally divided between my children & to be hereafter named. My sons, Newton & Robert Harrison, my daughters, Maria Harrison, Martha Harrison & Margaret Harrison, my nephews, William & Peggy Harrison daughters of my brother, John Harrison, Legina, Mary, & Matilda and Caroline Miller and my nephews, William & Henry Miller. Should my wife Margaret be dead at the distribution of this part of my estate her proportion shall go to her daughter, Martha & Peggy. Now it is my will that my friend John & Mary of Buckingham & County Virginia after collecting a sum of money due me in Virginia & paying off what I owe on them the balance I wish him to appropriate to the purchasing of a female slave for the use of my wife Margaret during her natural life and at her death I give said female slave to my daughter Margaret & Matilda Burgett. The value of said slave to be deducted from the legacy of one thousand dollars to be paid to her by my nephew Josiah Harrison. Now it is my will that my wife Margaret Harrison may give any part or parcel of my household furniture to Margaret & Matilda Burgett, the value of which is to be deducted from her legacy to be paid by Josiah Harrison. I do appoint my brothers, Newton & Robert Harrison my Executors. Now 19th 1829 The instrument was made before signing this testament John

Josiah Harrison
