In obedience to an order of the Cumberland County Court at their January Term 1822. We Phillip Smith, Zephaniah Woodruff and Jesse Smith after being duly sworn have Current with John Inuin and Jesse Stockton Administrators of the estate of John Stockton deceased. And find the state of their accounts to stand thus, Agreeable to the Inventory of Sale, which agreeable to the Inventory of appraisement includes all the articles therein mentioned, except the negro woman Stacey and her child and the balance of the two bonds on Jesse Stockton, which were not sold. We find the said John Inuin & Jesse Stockton to stand charged with.

And agreeable to receipts and vouchers to us produced we find they have paid out for expenses and fees, to the legatees including their own parts of said estate, the sum of $1770-14-3 each. . . $6875-15-7 legatees having 100-75.

And the balance which remains in their hands amounting to $75-10-7 of the said John Inuin and Jesse Stockton claims for their troubles as Admins of said Estate, and to cover an expense that will be, to be paid on the close of this business of the said estate.
