Howard, George H. Howard, Richard H. Howard, Cornelia S. Howard, Julia Anne Howard and William J. Howard. Should my wife have any more children by me, they are to share an equal proportion of my estate, with the rest of her children, and in the same manner. It is my desire that the suits now pending against James Bannette and others, may be duly & lawfully attended to. Make the privilege to nominate, with my beloved wife Anne Howard, Oliver Garnette, Anthy Garnette, James Baker jr, Francis Murphy and my son James W. Howard to this my last will and testament, this fourth day of April 1825

In the name of God amen I Susannah Spearman being now in my perfect senses, but ill in health, having the fear of God before my eyes, knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of ^{life}; I am induced to make this my last will and testament, which is as follows to wit, first I give and bequeath to my oldest son, John the sum of one dollar and to my four daughters by name, Hannah late Hannah Kilborn, Polly, late Polly Petty, Susannah late Susannah Lloyd and Nancy late Nancy Lloyd and to my son William Spearman I give the like sum. I give and to my son James Spearman I give and bequeath one bay mare by the name of Fly. And the balance of my property which I have acquired by my own exertions, since the death of my husband, to wit consisting of horses, Kettle, sheep and hogs and household furniture, together with what was left to me by my son Thomas Spearman deceased, consisting of the like stock, together with his landed effects which I have sold, and the balance is in my possession all which I wish to go to my youngest son Quintus C. Spearman. The reason why I have made these distinctions, is not because my affections have ceased for any of my children, but because my son James drew a bad lot in his fathers estate, I have been induced to make him the donation of the mare before mentioned -

And the reason which induced me to bequeath to my son Quintus the balance; was on account of his infant situation, for to raise and provide for him;

And I do hereby appoint Vincent Taylor Esq^r and my son William Spearman, executors to this my last will and testament - and I am induced to place confidence in them, that they will manage it Circumspectly, on account of the infancy of my son Quintus, that there may be a fair inventory of all the effects made out after my death - and such property as is perishable to be sold, and the money applyed to his use to the best advantage - and such as he can make convenient to keep, he can do so by the advice of the administrators: In witness whereof I have hereunto fixed my seal and signed my name this 1st day of April 1725

This Codicil or Supplement to my last will and testament, is occasioned by a disinclination which happened in the first part, in omitting to mention any thing about Tines, the old negro woman, which I bought of my son James Spearman; for which I now express it as my wish and desire that she should go to Quintus C. Spearman at my death. In witness as before, I do hereby sign my name and fix my seal to this my Codicil to my last will and testament this 5th April 1725
