In the name of God Amen I Adam Shoemaker of Daviess County and State of Kentucky being of sound mind but suffering great bodily afflictions do make and publish this as my last will and testament. That is to say I will and bequeath to my daughter Mary Hinton and her heirs the tract of land whereon I now reside in Daviess County containing four hundred acres it being the same tract that I purchased of William Worthington, also I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Hinton one other tract of land lying in Muldenburgh County on Green River opposite my ferry containing one hundred acres which was patented to myself. I will and desire that my negro man Mingo shall have his liberty and go free immediately after my death. I will and desire that my negr woman Vina have her liberty and go free on the twenty fifth day of December one thousand Eight hundred and thirty. I will and desire that my negr boy Benjamin son of the aforesaid Vina have his liberty and go free on the first day of August one thousand Eight hundred and forty nine. I will and desire that my negr boy Charles have his liberty and go free on the 23rd day of August one thousand Eight hundred and fifty three. I will and desire that my negr boy Porter have his liberty and go free the 7th day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty five. It is also my will and desire that all the children which my woman Vina may have before the time appointed for her to be free, should all go free on their arriving to the age of thirty years and should any of them be females that their descendants should go free on their arriving to the age of thirty years. I will and bequeath to my son and daughter John and Mary Hinton, all the remainder of my real and personal estate of every kind whatever, and I do constitute and appoint my son John Hinton and my nephew John Johnson Executors of this my will. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this fifteenth day of March in the year of our Lord and thousand Eight hundred and twenty seven in presence of Kentucky Daviess County Ct.

 County Court June Term 1867
 This day the within instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Adam Shoemaker dead was produced in Court and read by the oath of Robert Mosley a subscribing witness thereto and laid over for further proof and at a County Court begun and held for Daviess County on Monday the 12th day of November 1867. The within writing was fully proved by the oaths of Anthony Thompson and Anthony Fidelity Thompson subscribing witnesses thereto to be the act and deed of the said Adam Shoemaker dead that at the time of signing the same he was of sound mind and disposing himself and that they signed their names as witnesses thereto in his presence and at his request, and therefore the said writing was ordered to be recorded

In the name of God Amen I Bassett Purton of Daviess County being of sound mind & health but failing to recollection the greater uncertainty of life and not wishing my estate to be sold & scattered during the life time of my wife have ordained and constituted this my last will and testament. I will and desire that all my just debts be punctually paid out of my personal estate & will and desire that James Purton shall have 100 ³/₄ acres of land where he now live by him paying to my heirs sixty six dollars with lawful interest from the date of the deed that my father made me the money to be paid so soon as my brother can conveniently spare it and the residue I wish and constitute and appoint thereof to be made by me Executors & Executors. I returned to Court. I desire that there shall be no sale of my personal estate but that the same remain in the hands of my possession of my wife to aid her in the gentle ~~education~~ and education of our children traveling that she will manage & dispose of it to the best advantage to keep the family together in credit and should any of our children marry or commence business for themselves in the life time of wife she is requested to aid them in such property
