I Baster B. Davis of Daviess County State of Kentucky on this ninth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty four, make public my will to be as follows: "First" I commend my soul and body to Almighty God who gave them. "Secondly" I give to my dearly beloved Wife Francis M. Davis the whole of my Estate Real, personal, and mixed during her natural life subject to the following restrictions: "Thirdly" It is my will that all my just be paid and that this shall be done with as little delay as the nature of the case will admit, and I confer on my said Wife the power of selling any part, or the whole of my estate for that purpose if necessary, and to execute deed or deeds of conveyance for said land that may be sold by her and do all and everything in the premises that I can myself do. "Fourthly" I authorize and empower my said Wife Francis M. Davis to execute a deed of conveyance to William D. Owen for thirty three acres of land lying on the waters of horse fork in Daviess County State of Kentucky, so soon as a deed for said land can be obtained from George McNeister of whom I purchased said land. "Fifthly" I hereby appoint my said Wife Francis M. Davis, Administrator of this my last will, and pray the County Court dispense with the security in such case required by law. In testimony I Baster B. Davis have signed and publish the above as my will and testament the day and year above written
