In the name of God Amen I James Huston of Spencer County and state of Kentucky being weak in body but of sound mind do make and conclude this as my last will and testament. I do hereby declare my wish and desire that my living wife Mary Huston keep the whole of my property as long as she remain my widow or until my two children John Boyd Huston and Mary Jane Huston come of lawful age that she have the entire management of the farm and slaves with power of sale to dispose of any or more of the same as she may see fit.

Item 2nd It is my wish and desire that when distribution is made of my property that it be equally divided between my two children John Boyd Huston & Mary Jane Huston (neither of whom shall be charged for their education) and my living wife Mary Huston should be living when distribution is made and at her death she may make such distribution between the two children above named as she thinks proper at her part. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 10th day of August 1831.

James Huston (dead)
John B. Huston James Tichenor John Carr.
At a County Court held for Spencer County on Monday the 2nd day of January 1843 the writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James Huston dead was proved according to law by the oath of John Carr and James Tichenor witnesses thereto and is ordered to be recorded. And their being no executor named in the said will, in the motion of Joseph McClarky Senr. who made oath thereto and together with John Carr his security, appeared into an acknowledged bond in the penalty of $3000 conditioned as the law directs.
