In this my last will and testament I dispose as follows. That after my death Samuel Harris, Benjamin Harris, William Harris who I appoint my Executors. Shall have of the money which I may leave one thousand dollars, the interest of which annually shall be appropriated to the support of my Brother Hugh Walker and his wife Maria Walker or to the survivor of them during their natural life at the death of the survivor the money to be divided equally between Martha and Matilda Walker and Elary Roberts. I also bequeath to Elary Roberts during her life the Negro Girl Sarah who is now living with her and to her children after her death now or hereafter to be born. The son which said Hugh Walker lives is to remain for the use of him & his wife & the negro woman Betty who is now with him or to the survivor of them and at their death to be disposed of as part of the Estate of R. Harris dec'd. Any of the heirs of R. Harris dec'd who may obstruct or oppose the Executors of this will, shall take two hundred dollars out of the money which I have made since the death of my late husband and which shall be paid to my Executors who shall use the interest of it for the support of said Hugh Walker & wife and divide it amongst their heirs after their deaths. I will further that one hundred dollars be given to each of my Daughters and Daughters in laws to buy plate for their tables. It is my will that in the division of the negroes who remain with me at my death there shall not be a separation of husbands from their wives or of young children from their mothers. The Girl Sarah divided to Elary Roberts is as to title to be vested in my said Executors or those who may act for the use of said Elary & free from his debts or control of his husband. Any or more of my Executors who may act are vested with full power under this will, in testimony of which I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 7th day of December 1847.
