I Elijah McCreary of the County of Davies and State of Kentucky do constitute and affirm this to be my last will and testament.

I wish all my just debt paid. I have heretofore give to each of my daughters Cynthia Crim and Harriet Jackson a negro girl and to my son Robert Wilson a negro boy Harrihall and not considering Harrihall worth as much as either of the girls I gave to my daughter I allow Robert Wilson one hundred dollars out of the first said money after which I wish my estate as equally divided among my children as possible (that is) Cynthia Crim Harriet Jackson & Robt Wilson if my heirs cannot agree among themselves about the maintenance of my unfortunate wife, I wish the County Court to appoint disinterested men to lay off a sufficient portion for her maintenance and put in the hands of one of my heirs during her natural life all my personal estate I wish sold and the proceeds equally divided, my slaves also I wish equally divided among the above heirs, & the tract of land I live on I wish sold at one and two years credit it contains two hundred and thirteen acres, &

My son Robert Wilson owns three hundred acres of land adjoining mine which if he chooses is to be sold with mine I consider the two tracts of equal value, in case he would draw one half the purchase money and an equal portion of the other half so Robert Wilson also owns one third of the stock in the farm I appoint my son Robert Wilson and my son in law John M Crim my executors & in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this second day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight
