Believing that my mortal life is about to come a close and being in my natural and proper mind I feel it a duty to dispose of my little estate in that way that doth seem to just and right Accordingly I make and consent unto the following will. I cheerfully resign and commend my spirit unto the Lord who gave it I will and desire that my body decently entred and that after all my just debts are paid the remaining portion of my property including the tract of land on which I reside be held and possessed by my wife Pally during her natural life and at her death I will desire that my son Henry Austin be Allowed to keep the said tract of land by paying to each of my children or legal heirs fifty one dollars amounting in all to two hundred and Eighty two dollars Except my daughter Sarah Revells unto her he is only to pay five dollars which is the full amount I desire her to have out of my estate. I also will and desire that my son Henry live with and support my wife during her life on said land and that he keep and support my son Marion and Daughter Lucy and Grand Daughter Sicidions Austin until they get enough to act and provide for themselves but if he fails to support my wife and children during the time hereafter named he shall lose the privilege of holding said land on the above named terms and shall come in only for his proportional part of the amount that said land may sell for at my wife's death. Such is my will and Testament. In testimony whereof I hereunto subscribe my name in the presence of A. S. Haws and Barlett Austin, this 9th day of May 1850
