Teste Levi Todd Clerk

32 In the name of God Amen I Charles ~~Clark~~ ^{Clark} county and state of Kentucky, being in a reasonable state of health ^{at the} at present and of perfect mind and memory, but calling to mind the certainty of death, when it shall please God to call, do make ordain constitute and declare this to be my last will and testament disannulling all and every testament or testaments will or wills heretofore made by me, and declaring this only to be my last will and testament, in manner and form following. My will and desires that all my just debts, if any be due, and financial expenses shall be first paid; and that my slaves shall be under the authority of my wife Catherine Clark, the term of six months after my decease and that at which time said slaves shall be free: and that on or about which time said slaves shall be apprais'd to their real value; and that all my estate, real and personal, shall be sold at publick vendue, on twelve months credit.

Item I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Catherine Clark, so much money as will amount to one half, that I shall leave, and the remainder arising from the sales of my estate, and the value of the slaves added together: Item I give and bequeath to David and his wife Lydia, none my slaves, the balance of the money, after my wife has received her bequest as above mentioned. And whereas after the death of my first wife, by whom I had only one child, a daughter living, and when she was about five years old, I contracted a sea faring life, and was gone from home a number of years, that on my return said daughter had removed to where I could not hear of her again, altho' I had made the strictest inquiry; therefore concluded that she had certainly departed this life; but a man who called himself John Whittington, and a woman who called herself Sarah Whittington, and said she was wife of said John, came to me and the said Sarah declared that she was my daughter, which much trouble and expense I made clear proof that she was not my daughter, but a notorious impostor; therefore do declare
