In the name of God Amen, I Sarah Beards do make my last will and testament in manner of and following words. I give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Nancy McGowan five hundred dollars to her and her heirs forever. I also give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Sally Beard daughter of my son William Beard five hundred dollars to her and her heirs forever. I also give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Sally Beard daughter of my son Joseph Beard five hundred dollars to her and her heirs forever.

It is my will and desire that my executors hereafter named pay the above legacies to each of the legatee out of my estate as soon as the debts concerning my land are adjusted as described in an agreement this day entered into between Fortunatus Corby myself. It is my will and desire that all the rest and residue of my estate be equally divided amongst all my children. Lastly I nominate and constitute and appoint my sons William Mores & Joseph Mores executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 3rd day of September 1805. At New York
