A true copy of the County Liberty Court 1778
This instrument of writing was produced in court as a true copy of the last will and testament of James Parker deceased and was proved to be such by the oath of John Calhoun junr who wrote the same, examined it with the original, to which he was a witness, whereupon the same is recorded with his proof as such
Jesse Lewis Trade Clerk

In the name of God amen I Thomas Graves of Fayette County and State of Kentucky being infirm in body but perfect in mind and memory thanks to God, I have being sensible of the decay of nature and certainty of death, in order therefore to dispose of my temporal estate after my decease, according to my present mind, have thought it expedient to make this my last will and testament in manner and form following, to wit, I leave my will and desire is that first my just debts to be paid, then I leave and bequeath to my son Thomas Graves five hundred acres of land situate on Licking in the County of Campbell, the title to be made by Lewis Craig Esq; also the money he has collected from my father's estate by virtue of a power of attorney from me to him, and I will leave for that purpose
I leave I leave and bequeath to my son Bartlett Graves a negro man named Charles also the one half of seven hundred acres of land on Gray river, a part one thousand acres I purchased of Hubbard Ogles to him and his heirs forever, I leave and bequeath to my son John Graves the tract of land whereon I now live after the death of my wife Sarah Graves, also all my lands in the south side of Kentucky, saving except three hundred acres to James Randolph and Annand his wife
