Teste John

In the name of God Amen I John Stone of the County of Fayette and State of Kentucky remembering my mortality do now fulfil in the presence of a competent mind and sound in memory & judgement (I beseech be to God) make and ordain this my last will and testament in the manner and form following. (That is to say) first I give unto my beloved wife Jenny Stone the tract of land on which I now live with all its appertinances, and also a negro girl by the name of Hannah and forty pounds in property such as she shall choose during her natural life, and further my will and desire is that she shall also have and peacefully enjoy possess or enjoy all the rest of my estate both real and personal during her widowhood, but subject to the following legacies, whereas I have heretofore given to my eldest daughter (Sally Richey) about thirty five pounds in property, so my will and desire is that the rest of my children shall respectively have the same amount when they come of age or get married - beginning at my next daughter (Nancy) but my will in this case is that if in the judgement of my hereafter named Executors, these legacies cannot be spared at the aforesaid time without distressing the remaining part of the family that shall none of them have it in their power to claim the same until the youngest of them shall come of age - I also desire that my Nephew Francis Moore shall have of my estate when he comes of age a horse with twenty pounds and a new saddle provided he should live in the family until that time - and further my desire is that if in case my widow should see cause to marry again that William Stone and Henry Moore whom I hereby and appoint and ordain Executors of this my last will and testament shall pursue such measures as to them under the laws of this state shall appear best as to same and equally divide my estate amongst my children or their heirs. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty third day of August one thousand eight hundred and four John Stone (read)

Signed sealed and declared by the above named John Stone to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who both hereto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator James Richey
