Thomas Hart of Lexington in the State of Kentucky do make ordain and publish this following as and for my last will and testament, I direct that all my just debts be paid, and support & appropriate, for the complete benefit of this object the following resources, to wit; acceptances which I have lately made for Harb Bartlett Esq. of New Orleans to the amount of about twenty thousand Dollars, and which they are to reimburse me, the proceeds of shipment of cargo, and some few other articles which I have made this Spring to New Orleans by Abbot Barton & Buckley and which ought to produce at least twenty one thousand Dollars, my stock of hemp on hand and which is to be furnished by those who have contracts to supply me all of which will be manufactured by October or November next, estimated at fifteen thousand Dollars, and my cash on hand amounting to about thirteen thousand Dollars, should these funds from any cause prove inadequate to the discharge of my debts, I direct that the deficit be made up out of my capital employed in trade either at this place in the form of Bart Barton (Hart) or at New Orleans in the form of Hart, Bartlett and Co. I do hereby authorize and empower my Executors to continue to carry on business under either or both of the forms of Harb Barton & Hart of Lexington and Harb Bartlett Esq. of New Orleans for the periods fixed for the duration of these forms respectively, in the same manner as I myself could do were I living but I desire, and accordingly direct that the continuance of the said forms or either of them be left to the option of the surviving partners thereof, and that if the surviving partners of either firm wish it to cease that such firm shall terminate accordingly, I desire and bequeath to my Sister Maryanna Price and to Sophia Lloy wife of Porter Lloy whatever portion of the estate of my Father real or personal, I may now or hereafter be entitled to receive to be equally divided between them, should and their heirs subject to a deduction notwithstanding of four hundred Dollars which I have agreed with Robert Lewis to purchase him a vessel for with the Executors of my Father for a negro I purchased of him. But the moiety of Sophia Lloy I do vest in my Executors in trust that they may apply the same to her support and maintenance and that of her children & that upon
