

tract containing the whole of the land shown and which remains after the laying off the two tracts herein distributed for John Clarke and William Holmes their children to my son John Clarke to give the plantation he now lives on and which lays adjoining mine Beginning at a corral sugar tree at the upper end of my fields, thence running along the fence to the corner thence from thence a straight line to a large oak tree standing on the bank of the creek at the stone quarry from thence down the creek to a marked oak that stands at the upper end of the little cove on the bank of the creek thence a straight line to a large sycamore tree at the outer fork on the creek and my son in law William Holmes as to have the said land he now lives on during life and his wife Ann, the boundaries is as follows, beginning John Clarke and George Elliott plantation at the upper end of the little cove to an oak tree up the creek with the meanders of said creek, down the creek to a sycamore tree at the outer fork, thence up the creek with the meanders of said creek to the beginning to my son in law John Holmes to give my saddle clothes of full cloth to William Clarke, likewise another suit of cloth, and to my son in law William Holmes another suit of cloth, to my son John Clarke in the suit of cloth, and to Maria Henderson I give the large corner corner and adjoining Woods and Co. Mary Henderson the large chest, I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my wife Sarah and Clarke and son in law John Holmes and my nephew Thomas Love of Frankfort and George Elliott of Frank for to be the executors of this my last will and testament and desiring these present all other wills or testaments by me made or done, declaring this to be my last will and testament, I do sign whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty second day of October one thousand eight hundred and eight.

William Clarke
Sarah
George Elliott
Davis Rice
Betsey Allen
Jaysville County Decembar Court 1808

This last will and testament of William Clarke dec^d was produced in Court and proved by the oaths of George Elliott Davis Rice and Betsey Allen the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

Attest John D Young Clerk In the name of God amen I Charles W. Phil of the Town of Lexington and State of Kentucky considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, being sick and weary of this world and perfecting among and mourning to pass to a better life for the same do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following I give and bequeath unto my two beloved Daughters Sarah and Maria Wm Phil all my estate real and personal given and bequeathed unto me by my father John D Young