whereas I Charles Baker of the town of Huntingburg in County of Harrison State of Indiana I am a dispossessed man and do make and am desirous that my last will testament it is my wish to be buried in a Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors executor hereafter named it is then my wish that all my last will be paid and shall remain belonging to me with and personal I give I bequeath the same to my beloved wife to hold the same to her her heirs assigns forever with the following reservation exception in that whereas some time since I purchased of William Henry Shawder a house with in the town of Huntingburg situated upon main street being the same where I have been living having paid part thereof I have been concerned and therefore now it is my wish that my executor executor hereafter named procure a release of the contract with said Shawder if they can if they cannot it is my wish they be my friend that they be willing to have the said house that be under taking to pay to said Shawder any balance we have at my death to repay to my beloved wife any amount wherein I may have paid to wards the purchase money to my death, whereas it is my wish that my executor executor in case my said wife should rather prefer himself the part of said house to be paid any sum which in their discretion they may suppose can be spared from paying of debts the support of my wife for a week of years and years at six per cent the said house have at a able price all my last will be paid and
