Whereas I do hereby do the following as a Codicil to my last will and testament and am induced to do so by reason of wife now being very much, if shall please God that the same be known that it is my will and desire that it have an equal half of the estate herebefore willed to my son William & Walter, they both to have share & there alike and it is my will that my Executors superintend its Education in the same way in every particular as directed in my son William's Education & I also wish my Executors or the survivor in case it should be thought best by them and a fair price can be had to sell and convey the one hundred acres of Land I claim in Crown's trail, and the money earned out at interest and in case of sale they may pay to my wife the interest for twelve years towards supporting my two children after that period for the use of my children towards educating them. With my hand the nineteenth day of June eighteen hundred & twenty one

In the name of God! I, Elisha Carpenter, of the County of Fleming and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory, calling to mind the mortality of man and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to make this my last will and testament. In the first place I resign my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the dust to be buried by my Executor herein after mentioned in a decent and Christian like manner, and as to what worldly estate it hath pleased God to bestow upon me which disposed of in the following manner I am first it is my will and desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid I am I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife the whole of my estate both real and personal to hold the same during her natural life, and at her death it is my will and desire that my real estate be divided in the following manner. I will and bequeath unto my son
