 as well as by letter between me (Bott) & myself to enter into partnership in the mercantile business in Danville Ky by which agreement the said Tilford was to furnish a capital of three thousand dollars and apply his personal attention to the business and I was to furnish four thousand dollars (and a part of which $4000 I have taken the steps necessary to place in said Tilford hands) and at the expiration of said partnership (my son George Ann) to be an assistant without any stipulation upon what terms) after each withdrawing the sum by him advanced the profits to be equally divided between us now it is my will & desire that my Executor hereafter named go on to complete said contract for the partnership if said Tilford requires it to continue till my youngest son (George Ann) arrives to the age of twenty one years then my will & desire is that the partnership now existing between William Bott & myself under the firm of George M. William Bott be continued, as it has heretofore been till my son
