Sweet
will

In the morning of Good Friday I Thomas, Sheriff of the County of Fleming & Commonwealth of Kentucky, being in good health but of perfect state of mind do make to publish this my last will & testament, thereby reaching all other or other by ~~me~~ ^{me} that my body after my death be interred beneath the surface of the earth and my soul be left as a faithful executor & a true friend & faithful gently give and bequeath all my property both real & personal to my ~~wife~~ beloved companion Mary Sweet so long as she may live and at her death to be divided equally among my children in the following manner:

I give some Benjamin Simons, John Long, John and John H. Sweet & give and bequeath an equal share of gold or silver, as their just and full share of my estate both real and personal.

I will after all my just debts are paid according to the law, in such cases made out and provided I give & bequeath to my son-in-law, & daughter-in-law, & Mary Ann his wife, the residue of my property, be it more or less both real personal to have & to hold the same in exclusiveness of any person whatever, and do hereby constitute and appoint my friend & companion R. C. Coker my executor of this my last will and testament, to see that these my bequest be faithfully carried out & executed as soon as my decease, and any other duty which may oc-cure upon him as an executor.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 1st day of July 1828
