

In the name of God. Amen

I Charles Carnall of the County of Fleming & commonwealth of Kentucky being weak in body but sound mind and disposing memory for which I thank Almighty God do make ~~constitute~~ and appoint this my last will and testament, in manner and form following (that is) First I will and direct that so much of my personal estate be sold on a credit, of twelve months as will pay all my just debts and funeral expences, second I devise to my beloved wife Martha Carnall all the ballance of my Real and personal estate during her life if she remains unmarried, for her maintainance and the maintainance of my children until they get married or become of age, and if any of my children marry, it is my wish, that my beloved wife give to each of them that marry one hundred and fifty dollars worth of property at its value and in such property as she can spare and necessary for them to receive, or as much as will suit her convenience, if she is so circumstanced, as not to be able to give that amount, then the amount she does give to be valued, by three disinterested persons of the neighborhood. And in case my beloved marry it is my will and desire, that she is to have an equal share with each of my children, except that I bequeath to her my nego girl Gincy, to her during her her life as so much over and above an equal childs part, and the ballance of my personal estate I direct to be appraised and an equal part to be given her, and my lands and the ballance of my negro, to be put together and my beloved wife to have an equal share with each of my children during her life and at her death they are to be sold, and the money to be equally divided among my children, and in case my beloved wife marries and has her part taken out as above directed, and as
