In the name of god amen
I Jacob Chrisman of Fleming County and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and memory do make publish and declare this my last will and testament, in manner following. To wit.

First I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as speedily as possible

Second I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary Chrisman (in case she should be the longest lived) all my estate both real and personal also all monies or debts that may be due to me at my decease for her entire use during her natural life and whereas myself and wife are both aged and infirm and a possibility that we or either of us may require the assistance of some friend to take care of us, and having a firm reliance that that friendly aid will be afforded to us or either of us in that event my will and desire is that such person affording such assistance shall be reasonably and fully compensated for such assistance out of my estate

My will and desire further is that after the decease of my said wife in the event of her being the longest lived my executor hereinafter named shall sell all the property that may be left both real and personal to the best advantage as the circumstances of said estate will admit of within three months after her decease and the proceeds arising therefrom together with all monies or debts that may be left at her decease after paying all her just debts and funeral expenses shall be equally divided into two equal parts, one of which shall go to my brother Matthias Chrisman and his heirs

And the other part to John Overly brother of my said wife or the heirs of said John Overly except Jepe Overly & Jane Hedrick wife of John Hedrick to both of whom I have
