

In the name of God amen. I Jacob Hilligoss of Fleming County and State of Kentucky making no other appoint this to be my last will and testament, for the good will and affection which I bear towards my son David Hilligoss I give a quarter section of Land of which he has now the proportioned portion lying in Bush County State of Tennessee. I desire for the same consideration of regard I give my daughter Sarah who now lives in the State of Tennessee the quarter section of Land she has on with all its advantages.

Also I give my daughter Lemantina Carr the quarter section of Land she now lives on in the State of Tennessee and in Bush County State of Tennessee. I give my son Joseph one quarter section of Land which he also lives on in the State of Tennessee State of Tennessee. To Levi Hilligoss my son I likewise give one quarter section of Land on which he has built a cabin lying in Section

All my personal property I have with my wife at the time of my decease I leave to her natural heirs with the exception of my children of my & daughter are now with me by Eliza & wife Margaret.

They must collectively have a portion say ^{two} each of them a bed & bedding a cow horse kitchen and saddle and should there be an orphan at my wife's decease. A disposition will be made of it in interest to my legal heirs. I bequeath three dollars to my son Joseph my purpose is to send the place where he now lives. Should it not be sold at my decease it is then to be sold by a friend or public sale so as to promote the best interest.
And on the collection of the money I give my son two hundred dollars if living and my daughter Margaret three hundred dollars and what the profits may be it is to be paid to the interest of my heirs and what the last named that is Joseph is to have of the three dollars the purchaser of this land should have no account he or she can have only a good claim. As the sale of Land and what should have been paid and made on the estate I have bequeathed Joseph and Margaret of single.
I likewise give my daughter Margaret if single the amount that is behind in paying for the land I bequeath of Land to David must be paid out of my property. I appoint my son John of my
