is to support his two sisters to wit Mary & Nancy on the place & them to live with him so long as they may & remain single and if at any time that either Mary or Nancy should be cause to marry then and in that case the said Alexander is to give to nancy a good Horse or mare & cow & calf and all so from Mary a good Horse or mare & cow & calf as also one feather Bed & furniture & Bureau to each Nancy & Mary as their own & claim as theirs and all the ballance of household & furniture & farming utenstials & Stock of every description I give to my son Alexander to him and his legal heirs for ever

And it is my further will & desire that in case Alexander should die without lawful issue that then & in that case it is my wish that the land & farm that I now live on with all the Stock that then may be on the place & farming utenstials & household & furniture not otherwise disposed of shall be equally divided between Nancy & Mary and if in case that Alexander Mary & Nancy should die without lawful issue then & in that case I will the whole of my estate to my brothers & son John Summerville the Son of John both real & personal to him & his heirs for ever.

& Whereas my son John Joseph & daughter Jane & Catherine each of them have married and have received from me what I deem right for them at the time I now give to each of them the Sum of one dollar each and it is my will & desire that Williams & Flemming so long as he lives that he would attend to my concerns that may be necessary in the full & final arrangement of this my last will

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this 23rd day of September 1829
